

Church Notices

Church of Christ
1050 Court Street
There will be three services:
10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 8 p. m.
Basket lunch.
Evangelist Finis Lee will preach at each service. Everyone invited.

Butte Falls Presbyterian
Rev. Don MacDougal, Pastor
Sunday school, 10 a. m. Sword drill.
Preaching, 11 a. m.
A religious film, entitled "Choosing a Path," will be shown at 7:45 p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to see this picture.
Prayer service, Wednesday, 8 p. m.

Universal Spiritual Temple
819 North Central Avenue
Rev. Edward C. LeVyne, D. D., Pastor
Universal Spiritual Temple, at 819 North Central Avenue, will hold service Wednesday at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Edward C. LeVyne, D. D., as pastor. The program includes lectures, messages, divine healing and communion circle. All are welcome.

The Apostolic Faith
3rd Street at North Central Avenue
Rev. C. F. Frost, Pastor
9:30—Sunday school. Interesting classes for the whole family.
11—Devotional and praise service.
7—Young People's meeting. A live evangelistic service, conducted wholly by the young people.
7:45—Evangelistic service, preceded by a program of music and song by the orchestra, organist and choir.
8—Mid-week meetings, on Tuesday and Friday evenings.
Personal testimonies, spirit-filled music, and an inspiring message from the Bible are a part of every service. Come often and bring a friend. We never take a collection.

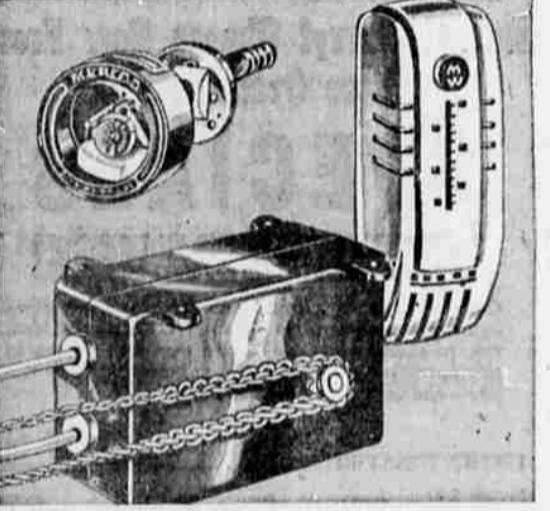

BEST-KNOWN
home remedy for relieving misery of children's colds.

VICK'S VAPORUB

MONTGOMERY WARD

Plumbing and Heating

COST LESS AT WARDS

ELECTRIC DAMPER REGULATOR CONTROL! 12.25

Enjoy thermostatically controlled temperature in your home with this damper regulator outfit. Dampers open and close automatically as room temperature rises or falls. You just dial the temperature you want on room thermostat. Operates on a 1" rise or fall in temperature. Saves coal and furnace tending.

MODERN UNIT TYPE CLOSET OUTFIT

Complete 25.95

Low-priced... but you'd never guess it. This vitreous china closet outfit is modern in design, quiet and efficient in operation. Siphon wash-down type. Complete with hardwood seat.

SAVE AT WARDS ON PIPE AND FITTINGS

at 1.65 21-ft. Low 1.65 Length

Wards carry a complete line of long-life, top-quality galvanized steel pipe and fittings, all at typical low Ward money saving prices. You'll save on plumbing if you buy supplies at Wards.

Montgomery Ward

Visit our Catalog Department for items not carried in this store. Or shop by phone—from the catalog page!

117 So. Central—Phone 3930

Reese Creek Mission
Butte Falls Road
Rev. E. L. Wilson, Pastor
Sunday school, 10 a. m. Truman Collins, superintendent. Special object lesson for the school.
Morning worship and sermon, 11 a. m.
A cordial welcome extended to all. Never a stranger but once at this friendly mission.

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints
331 West Second Street
Earl D. Clements, Branch President
Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Sacrament and testimonial services, 11 a. m.
Sunday evening conjoint services, 7:30 p. m. Home missionary group in charge of program under the direction of Elder Raymond B. Muir.

Phoenix Christian Church
Ronald Whited, minister
10 a. m.—Bible school, Max Whited, Supt.
11 a. m.—Communion and preaching.
2 p. m.—Christian Endeavor.
8 p. m.—Sermon by Ashland minister, Karl Downing.
7:30—Wednesday prayer meeting. Ronald Whited will fill the Ashland pulpit Sunday evening.
You will find a welcome and a help in these church services.

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Authorized branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.
Services are held every Sunday at 11 o'clock. Subject, October 8—"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"
9:30—Sunday school.
10:30—Wednesday evening meeting which includes testimonials of Christian Science healings.
The reading room, located at 414 and 415 Medford Center building, is open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., with librarian in attendance.

The First Baptist Church
815 North Central Street
Wolford A. Dawes, Pastor
Bible school, 9:45. Classes for all ages.
Morning worship, 11 a. m. Sermon, "The Great Captain," by the pastor. Music by the choir and special music.
Young People's service, 6:30 p. m.
7:30—Wednesday prayer meeting. "Looking Unto Jesus," by the pastor. Song service. Special music by the choir and individuals.
All are invited to join us in these services.

Federated Church of Central Point
Rev. Rolf H. Hansen, Pastor
Sunday, October 8—Rally Day, 9:45 a. m.—Sunday school. Special children's Rally Day program.
11 a. m.—Worship. Special music. Sermon by pastor.
6:30 p. m.—Young People's meeting. Everyone welcome to all of the services of the church.
Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.—Ladies' Bible study and prayer at the church.
7:50 p. m.—Picture, presented by Rev. Ray and Rev. Randall of the American Sunday School Union.
Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.—Mid-week prayer service.
Friday, 2 p. m.—Berean Bible class party. Mrs. Cassman, hostess.

First Methodist Church
Main and Laurel Streets
Louis C. Kirby, D. D., Minister
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. E. J. Nettmann, superintendent.
11 a. m.—Sermon by pastor, "The Eyes of Holy Men." John Lohman will son, "The Cross of Christ."
Special evening service, 7:30. Guest speaker, Ben H. Schmidt, director of our newly organized Y.M.C.A., will tell of his experience. Two violin numbers will be presented by Frank Long, Jimmy Grinn and George Goodman.
Two youth meetings at 6:30 in their respective chapels. Lois Krieger will lead Wesley group.
Midweek prayer and Bible study Wednesday at 7:30.

Church of the Brethren
Mary and Saling Streets
Rev. C. Keller, Pastor
We are conducting regular services in our newly dedicated church building, both morning and evening. The community is invited to share in our growing church program for all ages.
10 a. m.—Bible classes for all ages with a full staff of teachers. Adults have the uniform lessons, children, the graded lessons. There are today "Jesus' Program for Meeting Life's Problems."
11 a. m.—Hymn singing, special music, something for children. Sermon—Kingdom Priority.
7:30—Informal service with music, children's worship, Bible quiz, and sermon—"Addition by Subtraction," Ja. 3:30.

Foursquare Gospel Church
Corner Central and Jackson
Rev. W. Shearburn, Pastor
9:45—Sunday school, with classes for all ages. Flannelboard illustrations and object lessons.
11—Worship. Five Aspects of the Cross." Rev. Faith Shearburn speaking.
6:30—Young People's Crusader service. All young people who are not attending services are encouraged to attend.
7:45—Evangelistic service with inspirational songs and testimonies. Rev. Shearburn will speak on "Things are not what they seem."
7:45, Wednesday—Deeper teaching messages revealing "The Glories of Christ."
7:45, Friday—Prayer service. Come and enjoy the fellowship of spiritual things.

First Christian Church
Ninth and Oakdale
Delbert W. Daniels, Minister
9:45 a. m.—Bible school, with graded classes for all ages.
10:35 a. m.—Worship. Message by minister, "God's Men." Anthem by choir. Nurses provided for pre-school age children.
8 p. m.—Youth meeting in fellowship hall.
7:30 p. m.—Evangelistic service. Sermon by minister, "The Church Lost and Found." Special music. Note change of time from 8 to 7:30 p. m.
Calendar for week:
Monday, 7 p. m.—Potluck meal and workers conference.
Tuesday, 7:30—Hi-Triple in Fellowship hall.
Wednesday 2 p. m.—Loyal Women's class party.
Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—Choir rehearsal and mid-week meeting.

Pilgrim Holiness Church
East Jackson and Beech Streets
D. D. Phillips, Minister
Rally day in the Sunday school, 9:45—Sunday school.
11 a. m.—Worship. Rev. S. G. Tighe, superintendent.
11 a. m.—Missionary service, in charge of the P.H.M.S. Mrs. P.H.M.S. president, Mrs. Deming, vice-president. Rev. S. G. Tighe will deliver the morning message.
6:30 p. m.—Junior group, Mrs. Phillips.
7 p. m.—Senior group, Mrs. Eva Thompson, president.
7:45 p. m.—Praise and song service.
8 p. m.—Theme for the evening message, "A Strange Mission." By the pastor.
8 p. m. Wednesday—Mid-week prayer meeting.
8 p. m. Friday—Cottage prayer meeting.
The church extends a cordial welcome to all.

Church of God

Haven and Holly Streets
Rev. F. Wilson, Pastor
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.
Morning worship, 11 a. m.
Christian Crusaders, 6:30 p. m.
Evening service, 7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting—Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.

St. Mark's Church (Anglican)
215 and Oakdale
The Rev. George R. Turney, Rector
18th Sunday after Trinity:
8—Holy communion (corporate communion, men).
9:45—Church school, all classes.
11—Morning prayer and sermon.
12—Vestry meeting.
Monday—Evening guild meeting.
Mrs. F. Humphrey.
Thursday, 7:45—Choir rehearsal.
Friday, 11—Holy communion.
Weekdays, 5—Evening prayer, intercessions.

Assembly of God Church
11 South Newtown Street
G. O. Baker, Pastor
9:45—Sunday school, classes for all ages. Mr. Thompson, superintendent.
11—Morning worship, pastor speaking.
6:30—Young people's meeting.
7:30—Evangelistic meeting. Music by the orchestra with lively congregational singing. Special numbers by the young people.
7:45—Wednesday evening—Prayer and praise.
7:45 Friday, evening—"What the Bible Teaches About Hell."
A warm welcome for all.

Church of the Nazarenes
The topics to be used from this pulpit Sunday are: 10:45 a. m.—"Sanctification—A Christian Essential." 7:30 p. m.—"Being Filled With the Spirit." Fred M. Weatherford, pastor—evangelist will be speaking. The choir and other special music under direction of John Eby will be heard throughout the day.
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. M. G. H. Hansen, superintendent. This school is in a three-story building. The other schools being Portland First Church and Sellwood Portland. The Medford Sunday school led the race last Sunday.
Youth meetings, 6:30 p. m. Mid-week prayer Wednesday, followed by choir rehearsal.

First Presbyterian Church
Holly at Eighth Street
Harry Hansen, Minister
9:30—Preparatory prayer meeting.
9:45—Church Bible school. New classes are beginning their work.
11—Church service. A trio will sing, "How Beautiful Upon the Mountaintain," and Harry Young will sing, "If Christ Come Back." Sermon, "The Three R's of Christ: Junior surprise sermon. Nursery room supervised by Mrs. A. Deane.
7 p. m.—Young People's meeting will be led by Russell Cramer.
Wednesday, 6:30 p. m.—Monthly Church night—no charge.
Dinner. Friends are welcome. Program following, furnished by the Missionary society.

Christian Church

To Honor 102 For Good Attendance

Rally and Recognition Day will be featured Sunday morning at the First Christian church at which time awards of recognition will be given 102 church members for attendance during the past year. Four persons have had perfect attendance. Mrs. Julia Gregory, Doris Hake, Mrs. Jennie Hutchens and A. J. Hanby, church officers reported. Slogan for Rally Day this year is "333 for Victory" and officers hope that this aim can be reached as attendance last year was 302.

The 102 awards will be presented in a feature assembly at the Bible school hour.

Church officers explained that a new system of award for the coming Bible school year has been recommended to the worker's conference for approval.

Following this assembly the choir will sing an anthem and the minister will speak on observance of the "Week of the Ministry" on the theme, "God's Men."

Schmidt To Speak To Church Group

Ben H. Schmidt, secretary of Medford Y.M.C.A., will give a short address on his experiences in China and the Philippines at the monthly fellowship dinner at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday, Oct. 11 at 6:30 p.m. His subject will be "A Layman Looks at Mark 16:15".

A short devotional message will be given by the Rev. Harry H. Hansen, pastor of the church and Sgt. Bob Carlson of Camp White will sing. The dinner, which will be pot-luck, and planned by the women of the congregation, is planned as a family affair and all friends of the congregation are invited.

On the basis of tabulations of ration books, the U. S. Bureau of the Census estimates an increase in the civilian population of the West Coast between 1940 and the fall of 1943 of over one million persons of 8.5 per cent while certain Mid-West States have declined from 10 to 15 per cent, and New York State over 7 per cent.

Closing time for Classified ads 9 a. m. — Too Late to Classify, 12:30 p. m.

RADIO SERVICE

— and —
TELEVISION COMPANY
So. Columbus off Stewart Ave. So.

Specializing in Radio and Amplifier repairing. All work guaranteed and service in 8 days or sooner. We will check and give you a price while you wait. We have a fresh shipment of Radio "B" Batteries. Better get them now!

P. O. Box 866, Medford

DOGWOOD TREE IS SIMPLE MARKER FOR COBB'S ASHES

Brief Services to Observe Last Wishes of Famed Humorist; No Long Faces

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 6.—(AP)—A dogwood tree, fertilized by the ashes of Irvin S. Cobb, will be planted here tomorrow in services for the late Kentucky humorist as the single, simple monument to his memory.

In a cemetery plot shaded by a towering centuries-old oak, the ashes of Cobb—who admonished in a letter written before his death that there be no "long faces, no flowers, no mourning"—will be laid to rest in a hole dug for the tree.

"Should the tree live, that will be monument enough for me," Cobb wrote.

Neither will the "so-called Christian burial service" be read.

Read 3rd Psalm

Cobb, who was born here June 23, 1876, and died in New York City on March 10 of this year, asked only that the 23rd Psalm be read.

Only brief services will be read. His ashes, which Cobb wrote when "properly rendered down shouldn't much more than fill a Mason fruit jar" were brought here from New York in a polished marble urn.

At the head of the procession of friends and relatives who were told "to keep the thing cheerful, boys and girls" will be George Goodman, state OPA director and intimate Cobb friend, carrying the urn.

He will be accompanied by three other of the humorist's cronies, Attorney Tom Waller, Publisher Edwin J. Paxton of the Paducah Sun-Democrat and Col. Guy Thompson, noted horseman. They will be followed by his widow, Mrs. Laura Cobb, his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb Rogers, and his granddaughter, Mrs. Gregson Brautner.

Negro Choir

A negro choir, selected by the journalist and short story writer because he would be neither

DOGWOOD TREE IS SIMPLE MARKER FOR COBB'S ASHES

Brief Services to Observe Last Wishes of Famed Humorist; No Long Faces

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 6.—(AP)—A dogwood tree, fertilized by the ashes of Irvin S. Cobb, will be planted here tomorrow in services for the late Kentucky humorist as the single, simple monument to his memory.

In a cemetery plot shaded by a towering centuries-old oak, the ashes of Cobb—who admonished in a letter written before his death that there be no "long faces, no flowers, no mourning"—will be laid to rest in a hole dug for the tree.

"Should the tree live, that will be monument enough for me," Cobb wrote.

Neither will the "so-called Christian burial service" be read.

Read 3rd Psalm

Cobb, who was born here June 23, 1876, and died in New York City on March 10 of this year, asked only that the 23rd Psalm be read.

Only brief services will be read. His ashes, which Cobb wrote when "properly rendered down shouldn't much more than fill a Mason fruit jar" were brought here from New York in a polished marble urn.

At the head of the procession of friends and relatives who were told "to keep the thing cheerful, boys and girls" will be George Goodman, state OPA director and intimate Cobb friend, carrying the urn.

He will be accompanied by three other of the humorist's cronies, Attorney Tom Waller, Publisher Edwin J. Paxton of the Paducah Sun-Democrat and Col. Guy Thompson, noted horseman. They will be followed by his widow, Mrs. Laura Cobb, his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb Rogers, and his granddaughter, Mrs. Gregson Brautner.

Negro Choir

A negro choir, selected by the journalist and short story writer because he would be neither verbosely nor lachrymose" will deliver a brief eulogy and the Rev. Joseph R. Walker, pastor of the first Presbyterian church, will read the 23rd Psalm.

The Psalm was selected by Cobb because it "contains no choral nor morbid mouthing about corruption and carried no promise of hell or heaven, "which, if one may judge by the people who are surest of going there, must be a powerfully dull place."

"Hell may have a worse climate, but undoubtedly the company is sprightlier," he wrote.

Active participation in local Armistice Day activities is being discussed by Crater Lake Post 1837, Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to Post Commander Louis Erbes, and a military affairs committee has been formed to handle post activities for the day.

This committee, according to Erbes, already has assurances from the commanding officers of the U. S. Naval base and Marine Barracks at Klamath Falls, that detachments of sailors and marines, who have fought in the South Pacific, will come to Medford to parade with the post.

Ashland VFW post has been invited to join with the Medford post for the day which will be started with a "Reveille Breakfast" and close with a public ceremony, staged according to solemn VFW ritual, for the obligating of many new members, Erbes said.

A special meeting of the military affairs committee is scheduled at the Riverside USO Sunday morning to attend to detail

SALVATION ARMY DEPENDED ON IN TIME OF CRISIS

The Salvation Army in Medford as elsewhere has passed through many crises, always endeavoring to meet the emergency of the moment, whether depression or war.

In the last year the local Salvation Army unit has done its share in the present crisis. Although the work for G. I. Joe is carried on through U.S.O., the Salvation Army itself has played Santa Claus to those confined in the hospital at Camp White. Last Christmas 800 gifts were distributed.

At Easter the Army took to the wards of the hospital at Camp White 50 Easter lilies. In one room entered was found a woman sitting beside the bed of her husband. He had been in an explosion and his face showed evidence of great suffering. A beautiful lily was placed on a small stand near the bed. It was the last flower he ever looked upon as soon afterward he paid the supreme sacrifice on the altar of service.

Out of the Easter Lily giving grew the thought of placing flowers in the hospital wards every Monday. The Medford and nearby residents would leave their flowers at the Army Hall, 4th and Bartlett. Hundreds of bouquets were made from these flowers and distributed by the corps officers, Major Nettie Brown and Lieut. Eva McAllan.

The Medford Community Chest and War Fund finances in great part the work of the Salvation Army with funds to be raised in the local campaign beginning October 9.

Want Christmas Money?

You'll Like Earning It Here!

- Our offices are pleasant and equipped with the latest business machines and modern systems. You'll learn while you earn.
- Our employees are friendly and helpful.
- The work is most interesting.
- You'll recognize names of America's leading industries and most distinguished people while handling Christmas orders for our nationally known Royal Riviera Pears and Fruit-of-the-Month Club.

Both temporary and permanent positions are available so...

Call Mrs. Bartelt, 2161, if you can type, file or do general office work and want to earn money NOW.

Our own bus service — excellent cafeteria.

BEAR CREEK ORCHARDS

South Pacific Highway

DOGWOOD TREE IS SIMPLE MARKER FOR COBB'S ASHES

Brief Services to Observe Last Wishes of Famed Humorist; No Long Faces

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 6.—(AP)—A dogwood tree, fertilized by the ashes of Irvin S. Cobb, will be planted here tomorrow in services for the late Kentucky humorist as the single, simple monument to his memory.

In a cemetery plot shaded by a towering centuries-old oak, the ashes of Cobb—who admonished in a letter written before his death that there be no "long faces, no flowers, no mourning"—will be laid to rest in a hole dug for the tree.

"Should the tree live, that will be monument enough for me," Cobb wrote.

Neither will the "so-called Christian burial service" be read.

Read 3rd Psalm

Cobb, who was born here June 23, 1876, and died in New York City on March 10 of this year, asked only that the 23rd Psalm be read.

Only brief services will be read. His ashes, which Cobb wrote when "properly rendered down shouldn't much more than fill a Mason fruit jar" were brought here from New York in a polished marble urn.

At the head of the procession of friends and relatives who were told "to keep the thing cheerful, boys and girls" will be George Goodman, state OPA director and intimate Cobb friend, carrying the urn.

He will be accompanied by three other of the humorist's cronies, Attorney Tom Waller, Publisher Edwin J. Paxton of the Paducah Sun-Democrat and Col. Guy Thompson, noted horseman. They will be followed by his widow, Mrs. Laura Cobb, his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb Rogers, and his granddaughter, Mrs. Gregson Brautner.

Negro Choir

A negro choir, selected by the journalist and short story writer because he would be neither verbosely nor lachrymose" will deliver a brief eulogy and the Rev. Joseph R. Walker, pastor of the first Presbyterian church, will read the 23rd Psalm.

The Psalm was selected by Cobb because it "contains no choral nor morbid mouthing about corruption and carried no promise of hell or heaven, "which, if one may judge by the people who are surest of going there, must be a powerfully dull place."

"Hell may have a worse climate, but undoubtedly the company is sprightlier," he wrote.

Active participation in local Armistice Day activities is being discussed by Crater Lake Post 1837, Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to Post Commander Louis Erbes, and a military affairs committee has been formed to handle post activities for the day.

This committee, according to Erbes, already has assurances from the commanding officers of the U. S. Naval base and Marine Barracks at Klamath Falls, that detachments of sailors and marines, who have fought in the South Pacific, will come to Medford to parade with the post.

Ashland VFW post has been invited to join with the Medford post for the day which will be started with a "Reveille Breakfast" and close with a public ceremony, staged according to solemn VFW ritual, for the obligating of many new members, Erbes said.

A special meeting of the military affairs committee is scheduled at the Riverside USO Sunday morning to attend to detail

SALVATION ARMY DEPENDED ON IN TIME OF CRISIS

The Salvation Army in Medford as elsewhere has passed through many crises, always endeavoring to meet the emergency of the moment, whether depression or war.

In the last year the local Salvation Army unit has done its share in the present crisis. Although the work for G. I. Joe is carried on through U.S.O., the Salvation Army itself has played Santa Claus to those confined in the hospital at Camp White. Last Christmas 800 gifts were distributed.

At Easter the Army took to the wards of the hospital at Camp White 50 Easter lilies. In one room entered was found a woman sitting beside the bed of her husband. He had been in an explosion and his face showed evidence of great suffering. A beautiful lily was placed on a small stand near the bed. It was the last flower he ever looked upon as soon afterward he paid the supreme sacrifice on the altar of service.

Out of the Easter Lily giving grew the thought of placing flowers in the hospital wards every Monday. The Medford and nearby residents would leave their flowers at the Army Hall, 4th and Bartlett. Hundreds of bouquets were made from these flowers and distributed by the corps officers, Major Nettie Brown and Lieut. Eva McAllan.

The Medford Community Chest and War Fund finances in great part the work of the Salvation Army with funds to be raised in the local campaign beginning October 9.

Want Christmas Money?

You'll Like Earning It Here!

- Our offices are pleasant and equipped with the latest business machines and modern systems. You'll learn while you earn.
- Our employees are friendly and helpful.
- The work is most interesting.
- You'll recognize names of America's leading industries and most distinguished people while handling Christmas orders for our nationally known Royal Riviera Pears and Fruit-of-the-Month Club.

Both temporary and permanent positions are available so...

Call Mrs. Bartelt, 2161, if you can type, file or do general office work and want to earn money NOW.

Our own bus service — excellent cafeteria.

BEAR CREEK ORCHARDS

South Pacific Highway

DOGWOOD TREE IS SIMPLE MARKER FOR COBB'S ASHES

Brief Services to Observe Last Wishes of Famed Humorist; No Long Faces

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 6.—(AP)—A dogwood tree, fertilized by the ashes of Irvin S. Cobb, will be planted here tomorrow in services for the late Kentucky humorist as the single, simple monument to his memory.

In a cemetery plot shaded by a towering centuries-old oak, the ashes of Cobb—who admonished in a letter written before his death that there be no "long faces, no flowers, no mourning"—will be laid to rest in a hole dug for the tree.

"Should the tree live, that will be monument enough for me," Cobb wrote.

Neither will the "so-called Christian burial service" be read.

Read 3rd Psalm

Cobb, who was born here June 23, 1876, and died in New York City on March 10 of this year, asked only that the 23rd Psalm be read.

Only brief services will be read. His ashes, which Cobb wrote when "properly rendered down shouldn't much more than fill a Mason fruit jar" were brought here from New York in a polished marble urn.

At the head of the procession of friends and relatives who were told "to keep the thing cheerful, boys and girls" will be George Goodman, state OPA director and intimate Cobb friend, carrying the urn.

He will be accompanied by three other of the humorist's cronies, Attorney Tom Waller, Publisher Edwin J. Paxton of the Paducah Sun-Democrat and Col. Guy Thompson, noted horseman. They will be followed by his widow, Mrs. Laura Cobb, his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb Rogers, and his granddaughter, Mrs. Gregson Brautner.

Negro Choir

A negro choir, selected by the journalist and short story writer because he would be neither verbosely nor lachrymose" will deliver a brief eulogy and the Rev. Joseph R. Walker, pastor of the first Presbyterian church, will read the 23rd Psalm.

The Psalm was selected by Cobb because it "contains no choral nor morbid mouthing about corruption and carried no promise of hell or heaven, "which, if one may judge by the people who are surest of going there, must be a powerfully dull place."

"Hell may have a worse climate, but undoubtedly the company is sprightlier," he wrote.

Active participation in local Armistice Day activities is being discussed by Crater Lake Post 1837, Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to Post Commander Louis Erbes, and a military affairs committee has been formed to handle post activities for the day.

This committee, according to Erbes, already has assurances from the commanding officers of the U. S. Naval base and Marine Barracks at Klamath Falls, that detachments of sailors and marines, who have fought in the South Pacific, will come to Medford to parade with the post.

Ashland VFW post has been invited to join with the Medford post for the day which will be started with a "Reveille Breakfast" and close with a public ceremony, staged according to solemn VFW ritual, for the obligating of many new members, Erbes said.

A special meeting of the military affairs committee is scheduled at the Riverside USO Sunday morning to attend to detail

SALVATION ARMY DEPENDED ON IN TIME OF CRISIS

The Salvation Army in Medford as elsewhere has passed through many crises, always endeavoring to meet the emergency of the moment, whether depression or war.

In the last year the local Salvation Army unit has done its share in the present crisis. Although the work for G. I. Joe is carried on through U.S.O., the Salvation Army itself has played Santa Claus to those confined in the hospital at Camp White. Last Christmas 800 gifts were distributed.

At Easter the Army took to the wards of the hospital at Camp White 50 Easter lilies. In one room entered was found a woman sitting beside the bed of her husband. He had been in an explosion and his face showed evidence of great suffering. A beautiful lily was placed on a small stand near the bed. It was the last flower he ever looked upon as soon afterward he paid the supreme sacrifice on the altar of service.

Out of the Easter Lily giving grew the thought of placing flowers in the hospital wards every Monday. The Medford and nearby residents would leave their flowers at the Army Hall, 4th and Bartlett. Hundreds of bouquets were made from these flowers and distributed by the corps officers, Major Nettie Brown and Lieut. Eva McAllan.

The Medford Community Chest and War Fund finances in great part the work of the Salvation Army with funds to be raised in the local campaign beginning October 9.

Want Christmas Money?

You'll Like Earning It Here!

- Our offices are pleasant and equipped with the latest business machines and modern systems. You'll learn while you earn.
- Our employees are friendly and helpful.
- The work is most interesting.
- You'll recognize names of America's leading industries and most distinguished people while handling Christmas orders for our nationally known Royal Riviera Pears and Fruit-of-the-Month Club.

Both temporary and permanent positions are available so...

Call Mrs. Bartelt, 2161, if you can type, file or do general office work and want to earn money NOW.

Our own bus service — excellent cafeteria.

BEAR CREEK ORCHARDS

South Pacific Highway

DOGWOOD TREE IS SIMPLE MARKER FOR COBB'S ASHES

Brief Services to Observe Last Wishes of Famed Humorist; No Long Faces

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 6.—(AP)—A dogwood tree, fertilized by the ashes of Irvin S. Cobb, will be planted here tomorrow in services for the late Kentucky humorist as the single, simple monument to his memory.

In a cemetery plot shaded by a towering centuries-old oak, the ashes of Cobb—who admonished in a letter written before his death that there be no "long faces, no flowers, no mourning"—will be laid to rest in a hole dug for the tree.

"Should the tree live, that will be monument enough for me," Cobb wrote.

Neither will the "so-called Christian burial service" be read.

Read 3rd Psalm

Cobb, who was born here June 23, 1876, and died in New York City on March 10 of this year, asked only that the 23rd Psalm be read.

Only brief services will be read. His ashes, which Cobb wrote when "properly rendered down shouldn't much more than fill a Mason fruit jar" were brought here from New York in a polished marble urn.

At the head of the procession of friends and relatives who were told "to keep the thing cheerful, boys and girls" will be George Goodman, state OPA director and intimate Cobb friend, carrying the urn.

He will be accompanied by three other of the humorist's cronies, Attorney Tom Waller, Publisher Edwin J. Paxton of the Paducah Sun-Democrat and Col. Guy Thompson, noted horseman. They will be followed by his widow, Mrs. Laura Cobb, his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb Rogers, and his granddaughter, Mrs. Gregson Brautner.

Negro Choir

A negro choir, selected by the journalist and short story writer because he would be neither verbosely nor lachrymose" will deliver a brief eulogy and the Rev. Joseph R. Walker, pastor of the first Presbyterian church, will read the 23rd Psalm.

The Psalm was selected by Cobb because it "contains no choral nor morbid mouthing about corruption and carried no promise of hell or heaven, "which, if one may judge by the people who are surest of going there, must be a powerfully dull place."

"Hell may have a worse climate, but undoubtedly the company is sprightlier," he wrote.

Active participation in local Armistice Day activities is being discussed by Crater Lake Post 1837, Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to Post Commander Louis Erbes, and a military affairs committee has been formed to handle post activities for the day.

This committee, according to Erbes, already has assurances from the commanding officers of the U. S. Naval base and Marine Barracks at Klamath Falls, that detachments of sailors and marines, who have fought in the South Pacific, will come to Medford to parade with the post.

Ashland VFW post has been invited to join with the Medford post for the day which will be started with a "Reveille Breakfast" and close with a public ceremony, staged according to solemn VFW ritual, for the obligating of many new members, Erbes said.

A special meeting of the military affairs committee is scheduled at the Riverside USO Sunday morning to attend to detail