

You Gave Them Hope!

ONE of the biggest jobs the U.S.O. did last year was to carry a slice of home to our boys overseas. Traveling shows that gave to those fighting men the best talent and entertainment this country had to offer.

Bob Hope . . . Carol Landis . . . Joe E. Brown . . . Kay Francis. The top names of radio and Hollywood. Vaudeville and night club headliners. Singers, dancers, magicians, ventriloquists, comedians, swing bands.

Entertainment that gave them the chance to relax and remember what home is like. That's what your dollars helped make possible—in hundreds of overseas outposts.

It's hard to measure the effect this boost in morale had on all the gains we've so far made in this war. That it had an important effect has been acknowledged by our military leaders.

But most important, it helped relieve for a while the loneliness of millions of boys away from home. And that was certainly worth every dollar you gave.

The job isn't over yet. There are still millions of boys across the seas. We can't let them down now. That's why you're being asked to give again, this year—to give more than ever before. Much of your gift will be needed here to help servicemen's families, to help solve juvenile delinquency, to care for the needy. Much of your gift will go overseas, to war prisoners, to Merchant Seamen, to homeless refugees. Make your contribution today, through your local community drive.
