

JACKSON 4H'ERS SEND EXHIBITS TO STATE SHOW

Jackson county 4H club members will send exhibits to the state exhibit of all work in home economics, crops, and miscellaneous projects being held in Portland at Meier & Franks auditorium this week. The exhibits are made by first prize winners at the Jackson county 4H fair held recently.

Five steers will be sent to the Pacific International Livestock Show being held in Portland this week by following Jackson 4H livestock club members: Don Nichols, Bellview; Merton Bradshaw, Lake Creek; Bob and Richard Ryan, Westside and Allene Owens of Valleyview.

Local girls sending home economics exhibits are: Canning, Mary Jean Henry, Dead Indian; Barbara McCune, Arlene Hay, Enid Gaynor of Eagle Point; Pearl Henry, Dead Indian; Barbara Culbertson, Antelope; Allene Owens, Valleyview. Clothing — Darrell Koger, Doreen Straus, Sams Valley; Bernice Bigham, Barbara Greb, Nadine Davies, Clara Mae Bigham, Antelope; Jackie Fortin, Lake Creek; Louisa Greb, Helen Harsh, Wilma Russell, Marian Wisdom, Eagle Point; Allene Owens, Valleyview; Margaret Reed, Table Rock; Pearl Henry, Mary Jean Henry, Dead Indian; Evelyn Ferns, Fern Valley; Barbara Culbertson, Antelope.

Cooking — Charlotte Kent, Kathleen Davies of Antelope; Doreen Wenaus, Maxine Wenaus, Ruth Harkey, Laura May, Bellview; Coralee Wyatt, Marilyn Hay, Barbara Clymer, Eagle Point; Lucille Smith, Table Rock. Camp Cookery — Bob Ferns, Fern Valley and Rodney Thompson, Fern Valley.

Homemaking — Marilyn Hay, Charlotte Kent, Enid Gaynor, Louisa Greb, Barbara McCune, Eagle Point. Knitting — Nadine Davis, Charlotte Kent, Patricia Greb, Antelope.

Earl Jossy, county club agent, and Mrs. Frank Myers, leader of the Table Rock home economics club, left Sunday for Portland to set up the Jackson county exhibits.

SENATOR RIVALS AT EUGENE MEET

Portland, Ore., Oct. 9.—(U.P.)—Wayne L. Morse, R., candidate for U. S. senator, announced from Lakeview, Ore., that he would divide his time during the coming week between eastern and western Oregon cities, according to word received here today.

Morse's tour will embrace Burns, Bend, Prineville, Madras, Springfield, Eugene, Portland, Dallas, and towns in Columbia county. While in Eugene, Morse will appear on the same platform with his opponent, Edgar W. Smith, at a special session at the University of Oregon.

DEWEY BRINGING TROJAN HORSE IS ICKES' WARNING

Hollywood, Oct. 9.—(U.P.)—Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes last night urged voters to "look squarely down the throat" of the "trojan horse Mr. Dewey is trying to lead into the White House" and from the passengers which he said were inside, picked a cabinet for the republican presidential nominee.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey could not repudiate these "followers" without biting the hand that feeds him," Ickes said.

Alternately referring to Mr. Dewey as "my adviser," "my booster" and "my friend," Ickes gave his "selections" as a gathering of 1,000 of Hollywood's film celebrities at an invitational dinner sponsored by the Hollywood democratic committee.

Isolationist Cabinet
The cabinet Ickes chose from a "battalion of isolationist and semi-isolationist" Dewey supporters who "are riding comfortably in the trojan horse" included:

Secretary of state — Herbert Hoover, "regarded as Dewey's political god-father," or the "Wall Street lawyer, John Foster Dulles."

"If Mr. Hoover is not available, Dulles would be ready," he said, describing him as "our foremost organizer and reorganizer of international cartels, monopolies and combinations."

For secretary of labor Ickes suggested John L. Lewis, "Dewey's only other 'labor supporter,'" Ickes said Westbrook Pegler, his first choice, disqualified himself by writing on June 19, 1940, that "as a presidential possibility, dewey is preposterous."

Chicago Publisher Col. Robert McCormick, "who has readily admitted that he is an expert on all matters military," would "rush to seize" the post of secretary of war, Ickes said.

McCormick's cousin, Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, Washington publisher, "would be his only serious rival for secretary of war," Ickes said. "She is an expert in poison gas."

MONTGOMERY HOME
Hollywood, Oct. 9.—(U.P.)—Lt. Comdr. Robert Montgomery went on inactive duty today following his return from Washington and soon will begin work for M-G-M, although no definite plans have been announced. The actor was in the navy four years. Before Dunkirk, he served in the first American ambulance corps in France, and following the fall of that country enlisted in the U. S. navy where he was assigned as assistant naval attaché in London.

FRANKIE MASTERS BAND WILL PLAY FOR CAMP DANCE

Camp White—Camp White's GI's and girls from the Medford-Ashland-Grants Pass area will swing out to the music of one of the nation's top-flight orchestras when Frankie Masters and his band play for an enlisted men's dance at the post's sports arena next Monday night.

Plans are now under way to make it the most entertaining social event in the camp's history, and the acquisition of a "name" band was the first step toward making it an assured success.

The Masters crew, an organization of 20 musicians and entertainers, recently earned the title of No. 1 band on the Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands, heard nightly over 183 network stations, when they appeared on this program for their 20th time.

Masters is the composer of such hit tunes as "Scatterbrain" and "Charming Little Faker." Keynote of the band's popular appeal to night club crowds in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles hotels is its balanced combination of sweet and swing rhythms.

Next Monday night's dance, sponsored by the Special Services Office, will be a formal affair, open only to Camp White enlisted personnel and girls from Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and surrounding towns.

Nothing has been overlooked to make certain the girls will be in for a grand and glorious night. Chartered busses will take them to and from the dance. There will be free refreshments, and souvenir programs to make it a lasting memory. And each girl will be given a rose to adorn her hair.

It was pointed out, though, that in order to assure themselves of transportation, girls in the Medford area should register at their earliest possible convenience with the Riverside USO or with Mrs. Ruth Boyd at the Markade, 6th and Oakdale.

FEAR PROMPTS SUICIDE
Walnut Creek, Cal., Oct. 7.—Roger William Mackie, 20, Richmond, Cal., shot and killed himself with a sheriff's revolver here today, apparently frightened by questioning concerning a highway accident in which he had been involved, Contra Costa county authorities announced.

RESCUED MOTHER AND TOT BETTER
Grants Pass, Ore., Oct. 9.—(U.P.) Mrs. Jack Stoddard and her two-year-old son, whom she rescued from a burning barn, today were under treatment at a hospital here, suffering from second-degree burns.

Fire officials said the child was with other children in the hayloft when the fire broke out. The other children fled, but the small child, frantic with fright, remained until his mother braved the flames to rescue him. The mother and child were expected to survive.

GRATITUDE will flow from millions of hearts for your gift this year. Folks in your home town, servicemen at home and overseas, merchant seamen, war prisoners and many more will bless your generosity. You give this once for all of them. Here's what happens to your dollars:

"Oh boy, me a father and everything's okay. Molly writes that everybody was swell. Our home town family service helped her while the baby was coming, arranged medical and hospital care. Boy, am I happy!" (Thanks to your dollars.)

"There's thousands like me in prison camps. We'd go crazy if we didn't have the sports and music study and entertainment material the War Prisoners' Aid gets through to us." (Your gift penetrates barbed wire.)

"Ever hear of 'convoy jitters'—the thing we merchant seamen have to fight ferrying the invasion past the subs to Europe. We sure thank the United Seamen's Service for helping us fight them—with clubhouses and good beds ashore, and help for our families." (Your gift does it.)

"Last night a U.S.O. Camp Show with Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy cracked the gloom wide open in this dump. The G.I.'s are still laughing. Those comedians meant a lot back in the states, but you got to get 4,000 miles from home to really appreciate them." (Your dollars did this.)

"My kids—bad? Mary not coming home nights and Jim running with a tough gang! I guess Mom and me have been too busy at the war plant. If our town didn't have a Youth Center I don't know where those kids'd be." (Your dollars took care of this.)
