

LT. COM. WHILLOCK ORDERED TO NAVY PRINCETON SCHOOL

Lt. Com. H. W. Whillock, a son of Mrs. Chloe Whillock of 714 West Tenth street and a former Medford resident, has been ordered to the Naval Civil Affairs school at Princeton university, a dispatch from Boise, Idaho, states. Lt. Com. Whillock has been liaison officer with the state selective service headquarters at Boise and is also a former mayor of that city.

MECHANICS CALL THURSDAY STRIKE

Cleveland, Oct. 10.—(AP)—A total of 70,000 members of the Mechanics Educational Society of America will go on strike in 67 Cleveland, Toledo, and Detroit war plants Thursday, Matthew Smith, secretary of the independent union, announced here today.

The ordered strike, Smith said, is a "sympathy" walkout growing out of the labor dispute which completely halted operations at the Cleveland Graphite Bronze company plant last month until it was seized by the army.

CHINESE FORTITUDE IS LAUDED BY ROOSEVELT

Washington, Oct. 10.—(AP)—President Roosevelt saluted the "courage and fortitude" of the Chinese people today on the 33rd anniversary of the outbreak of the Chinese revolution.

GRANTS PASS SEDAN FOUND IN ROSEBURG

Medford state police reported today that a sedan, belonging to Lyle Harrell, Grants Pass, was stolen last night and found in Roseburg. A 14-year-old boy from Portland was arrested and returned to Grants Pass authorities.

LEGION TO DRAW FINAL PLANS FOR ARMISTICE DAY

Further plans for the annual Armistice Day celebration in Medford will be made at the first fall meeting of Medford Post No. 15, American Legion, scheduled for tomorrow night at the club rooms in the armory at 8 o'clock.

A general chairman for the Armistice Day celebration will be named to continue the plans, already partially completed, according to Legion officers. Col. W. H. Paine will be in charge of the parade, as in past years, and it is understood that other veteran organizations will participate to a greater degree than heretofore.

Hugh McKenzie will be chairman in charge of entertainment, plans for which are already being formulated. Albert Fiora will be chairman in charge of the annual American Legion breakfast and announcement of the place will be made later.

WILLKIE ENDORSED MORSE CANDIDACY

Bend, Ore., Oct. 10.—Wayne Morse, republican nominee for U. S. senator for Oregon, had accepted the late Wendell Willkie's offer shortly before his death to endorse Morse in the coming election the nominee revealed last night at a republican rally here.

Morse read the following letter from Willkie, dated Sept. 11: "My Dear Mr. Morse: 'I don't know whether a strong endorsement by me for your election will be of any help to you. But you may have it for the asking.'"

Lady Astor Says Baby Leave Nonsensical Publicity Stunt

London, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Take it from Lady Nancy Astor, this "baby leave" business is a lot of nonsense and British women don't want their soldier husbands home now just to start raising families.

"I think it is just a press stunt. I've never had such a request from a constituent," she said in an exclusive and somewhat hectic interview in the lobby of the house of commons.

HOWARD ELECTED PYTHIAN PRELATE

Clarence C. Howard of 214½ Haven street, Medford, was elected grand prelate of the Oregon Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, in the annual state meeting which closed in Portland today.

The new grand prelate has been a member of the Grants Pass and Medford lodges for more than 20 years and is a past chancellor commander of Talisman lodge. He is at present serving as keeper of records and seals for the Medford lodge.

Mr. Howard was accompanied to Portland by Ed E. Gore, 116 Geneva street, also a delegate to the grand lodge session from the Medford group.

B-17 Crew Saved By Parachutes

Kingman, Ariz., Oct. 10.—(AP)—All 14 crew members today were safe after parachuting from a B-17 bomber near Kingman army air base. The bomber's crew bailed out when engine trouble developed. The plane crashed shortly afterward.

EAGLE POINT SCHOOL STARTS FALL SESSION

The Eagle Point school opened yesterday, the last school in the county to start the fall term. The opening was delayed due to improvements to the school building, made necessary by consolidation with seven other districts the past summer.

Mrs. Una B. Inch, supervisor, thinks the attendance figures will show an increase in the lower grade and a slight decline in the higher grades. Many of the 17-18 year old boys have gone into the military services.

Washington, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Expanding demands for rockets and heavy ammunition has necessitated expansion of existing munition plants involving $150,000,000 in new construction, the war department announced today.
