High School News

By Student Reporters
Margo Gammil Joan Hoppe

At a meeting of the Spanish club last Monday, plans were made for the Klamath-Medford dance to be given after the game October 20. Decorations are in charge of Hortense Jennings, assisted by the following members: Alvin Pena, Margaret Drysdale, Lila White, Suzanne Campbell and Bob Stevens. General chairman of the dance will be Helen Rubenstein.

All juniors and seniors took their annual fundamentals test in remedial arithmetic under the supervision of Miss Delia Whisenant, October 10. Sophomores are scheduled for theirs October 17. Sophomores must make a score of 80 per cent and seniors, 90 per cent.

Principle purpose of this remedial system in high school is to bring pupils up to the standards set forth in elementary arithmetic, in the shortest possible time. Accuracy is the most important factor in this class. For students who fail to pass the test, classes are held during study hall periods. Exemption tests are given at the completion of every week.

At a meeting of the Boys' league, Wednesday, Principal Lester Harris outlined for the league's approval, a new plan for financing all sport activities. A short educational film concerning the air corps, was shown before President Harry Hayes adjourned the meeting.

The first meeting of the special industrial relations class was held Monday with co-ordinator L. A. Mentzer and 27 boys attending. This class is held every Monday, third period, and is for boys who are apprenticed part time out of school. For this apprenticeship, students are granted one school credit, Mr. Mentzer stated.

When the school cafeteria opened October 9, a long line of hungry students was waiting a little impatiently for a taste of Mrs. J. C. Tucker's popular cooking. The students who attended made up approximately one-fifth of the student body and more are expected throughout the year, said Mrs. Tucker.

The Order of M met Monday to decide the "handling of sophomores" in kangaroo court, and entertainment for the initiation of new members of high school. Officers in charge are: President Bill Plaskett, Secretary Dean Sheldon and Treasurer Marvin Doty.

Girls' league held its second meeting last Wednesday to elect a class representative. Sophomores elected Harriet Walker and Joan Gilmore; juniors elected Carmen Wright and June Bosworth and seniors chose Claire Thomas and Calista Farrell.

Students helping with the high school news notes this week were Janet Horsley, Marjorie Thompson and Nancy Swem typist.

METAL AVAILABLE FOR LICENSE PLATE MAKING

Washington, Oct. 13 —(U.P.)— The war production board today lifted restrictions on production of metal license plates issued by state and local governments. WPB ascribed the action to a freer supply of steel.

DAM TO MAKE FARMS

Woodland, Cal., Oct. 13—(U.P.)—Charles E. Carey, regional director of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, today predicted that operation of Shasta Dam will result in a 200,000 acre expansion in the farming area of the Sacramento valley.
