Gardner-Brunn Rites Are Held Thursday Night

Of considerable interest here are the details of the wedding of Miss Peggy Laurene Gardner of Salt Lake City to Dr. John Trovella Brunn, Jr., also of Salt Lake City, which took place Thursday night at Saint Mark's Episcopal cathedral there. The bride is the older daughter of the Very Rev. and Mrs. Herald G. Gardner, who left Medford about a year ago to reside in Utah, and Dr. Brunn is the son of Mrs. John T. Brunn and the late Mr. Brunn of Salt Lake City. When here the Rev. Gardner was rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The marriage service was performed by the bride's father, who is dean of the cathedral, and the bride was given in marriage by the Right Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, Episcopal bishop of Utah. Miss Gardner's wedding gown was of white marquisette, fashioned princess style and with a train. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried a white prayer book with a white orchid and ribbon streamers.

Miss Jo Ann Gardner was maid-of-honor for her sister. She wore for the service a pale blue marquisette gown and carried tallman roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Kay Talbot of Seattle, Wash., a niece of Mrs. Harold B. Jordon of Medford; Miss Margie Burnside of Idaho and Miss Ann Sheldon of Salt Lake City. The bridesmaids all wore similar gowns of marquisette. Miss Talbot's gown being of blue, Miss Burnside wearing peach and Miss Sheldon's dress being deep turquoise blue. All carried bouquets of fall flowers.

Mrs. Gardner wore for the wedding an orchid chiffon gown with gold sequin jacket and the bridegroom's mother was gowned in silver lame.

Best man for his brother was Robert B. Brunn and ushers were Dr. Leland Krantz, Dr. Homer C. Curtis and Dr. Robert L. Rees, all of Salt Lake City. The cathedral, which dates back to 1870, was decorated with white flowers throughout and the service was read by candle light. The rites were made unique by the appearance of the full vested cathedral choir of 35 voices singing the "Wedding March." "Oh, Perfect Love" and Stainers Seven-Fold Amen. Chimes played on the organ concluded the service. Four hundred guests attended the reception held in the parish house following the ceremony. Arrangements of fall flowers and greens made an attractive setting.

The bride is well known in the city. She is a graduate of Medford senior high school and later attended the university of Oregon where she was a member of Alpha Phi sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Utah and the University of Utah Medical school and is a member of Kappa Sigma, social fraternity and Zeta Phi Zeta, honorary fraternity. Dr. and Mrs. Brunn will make their home after October 24 at 279 Second avenue, Salt Lake City.

Women's Society Plans

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church is making plans for observance of the annual "week of prayer and self-denial" which begins Oct. 24. An all-day meeting is planned for that day, termed the "quiet day" and a program has been planned for the evening of Oct. 25. Details of the program will be announced later.

Mrs. W. W. Walker is president of the society.

Miss Dolly Age Becomes Bride Of Sgt. Ritter

Before a flower banked altar at the Colonial Wedding chapel in Long Beach, Calif., Miss Dolly Age and Sgt. William E. Ritter were married Tuesday evening, September 19. The double-ring ceremony was read at 8:45 o'clock by the Rev. C. E. Venable of Long Beach.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Age, of Medford, wore a white satin princess style gown with a train and a waist-length veil caught in a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and fern with ribbon streamers. In the absence of her father, unable to attend the service, the bride was given in marriage by Carl Schultz, close friend of the groom's family.

Maid-of-honor was Mrs. William H. Boxell, Compton, Calif., sister of the groom. For the service she wore a pale green organza gown. Miss Ethel Jacobs of Medford was bridesmaid and her gown was turquoise blue taffeta. Both carried bouquets of yellow roses and fern with ribbon streamers.

Best man for the groom was his brother-in-law, William H. Boxell, and Jack Ritter, the groom's brother, was usher. The bride's mother had selected a burgundy suit with black accessories for the occasion and the groom's mother wore a soldier blue dress with silver sequins. Both wore corsages of red roses.

A reception held immediately following the ceremony was for about a hundred friends. The bride and groom cut the traditional wedding cake and punch was served. Later a second reception was held at the home of the groom's parents for about 60 guests.

Sgt. Ritter and his bride then left for their wedding trip. Mrs. Ritter wearing for traveling a two-piece navy blue suit with fuchsia accessories and a corsage of roses. The couple is now in Savannah, Georgia, where Sgt. Ritter reported for duty at Camp Stewart.

The bride, a graduate of Medford senior high school, has been employed for the past two years as a clerk-stenographer for Lt. Col. Fitzsimmons at Camp White.

Sgt. Ritter, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ritter of Lynwood, Calif., attended the Lynwood schools and Compton Junior college. He was a member of the National Guard before entering the service in September of 1938 and served three and one-half years on several South Pacific islands. Upon returning to the United States, he was stationed at Camp White for a time.

Past Grand Club Meets Thursday

Past Noble Grand club enjoyed a social evening at the Girls Community clubhouse Thursday night. Entertainment was presented by the Mesdames Mary Cave and Vera Wimer and a social hour concluded the gathering. Mrs. Ella Gould, Mrs. Ina Huson, Mrs. Helen Keese and Mrs. Caroline Leaders were hostesses.

Mrs. Katherine Daniels O'Shea who with her husband has taken up residence at Jacksonville, was present. Mrs. Bess Dyer, who has been ill for sometime, was reported as improved.

November committees for entertainment are the Mesdames Sara Reddon, Edith Prescott, Louise Hickman; refreshments, Grace Pankey, Viola Aldredge and Nell Bowles.

NOTICE

Reporters for clubs and other organizations are reminded that notices for Sunday social calendar are to be turned in either Friday or Saturday morning by 10 o'clock. Additions or corrections during the week must be in by 10 a. m.

Newlywed Couple Now Making Home In Florida City

Lt. and Mrs. E. Clyde Hollenbeck, whose marriage in the Pasadena wedding chapel was an event of Saturday, Sept. 16, are now making their home in Pensacola, Fla. Mrs. Hollenbeck, the former Kathryn Adele Jenkins, is a daughter of H. H. Jenkins of San Marino, Calif., and her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hollenbeck of 722 North Riverside avenue, Medford.

White gladiol and dahlias banked the altar where Mr. Jenkins gave his daughter in marriage and the service was witnessed by a small group of relatives and friends. Appropriate organ music preceded the ceremony, performed by the Rev. Worley.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Janet Finkle of San Francisco who had chosen a costume of grey-green, worn with red carnations, for the service. The bride wore a blue-green crepe afternoon dress and carried a white prayer-book with butterfly orchids.

Lt. Hollenbeck was attended by Lt. William May of Santa Barbara.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of Mr. Jenkins for the young couple. The honeymoon was spent at Del Mar, Calif.

The bridegroom, an officer in the United States Marine corps air force, recently returned from a year's service in the South Pacific area. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon and was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Mrs. Hollenbeck is also a graduate of the University of Oregon and was affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority.

Former Residents Guests of Honor At Many Affairs

Much entertaining in Medford during the past week centered around Mr. and Mrs. John Morrill of Pebble Beach, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Buhman, of Ann Arbor, Mich., former residents who were visitors in the city. The Morrills were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts at their home on Crown avenue and the Buhmans were registered at the Medford Hotel.

Among affairs for Mr. and Mrs. Morrill was a dinner given by the Roberts, with a few close friends of the couple as guests. Mrs. Corbin Edgell and Mrs. Ralph Norris were hostesses for a dinner Wednesday evening at Mrs. Edgell's home, 22 Berkeley way, for the Morrills and a buffet supper at Mrs. Norris' home on the Old Stage Road Sunday night also honored the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Gain Robinson entertained Thursday night at a cocktail party which honored Mr. and Mrs. Buhman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tomy were hosts at dinner Tuesday evening and the visitors, with a few close friends were dinner guests of Mrs. J. J. Emmens at her home on East Main street Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Buhman left by plane Wednesday night, cutting their visit short in order to meet their son, Olds Buhman, a pilot with United Airlines now on army duty. The Buhmans, who resided here for many years while Mr. Buhman managed a lumber corporation, are widely remembered in the valley.

The Morrills remained in the city until Friday.

Lt. Robert Alexander Spends Week-End Here

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pearson and family of 118 Clark street had as a guest last week the Pearson's son-in-law, First Lt. Robert H. Alexander. Lt. Alexander returned from overseas duty in July and is now stationed at Dallas, Tex., with the ferrying command. He and Mrs. Alexander, the former Christine Pearson, are making their home at Dallas for the present.

Lt. Alexander's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alexander, his sister, Mrs. Pauline Thomas and Barbara Kay Thomas of Klamath Falls came over from Klamath Falls to spend the week-end with Lt. Alexander and were also guests of the Pearsons.

The visitors left Sunday.

Miss Swemmelaar Married Sunday To Lt. Edwards

Among recent weddings was that of Miss Louise Swemmelaar to Lt. Owen Edwards, Jr., which took place last Sunday at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fender of Roseburg and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Edwards, Sr., of San Francisco.

The informal ceremony was read at four o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. George R. Turney. Traditional nuptial music was played by Mrs. Ernest Conrad.

Miss Swemmelaar's wedding costume was of pastel blue wool crepe worn with brown accessories and a feathered hat with a veil. Her flowers were a corsage of gardenias and roses. She was given in marriage by Mr. Fender.

Matron-of-honor for the bride was Mrs. Jessie Jones of Medford and the bridegroom's father was best man.

The wedding reception was at the Officers' Outpost. An arrangement of white gladiol and white tapers in silver candelabra decorated the table from which the wedding refreshments were served. Fall flowers were used about the lounge where the reception was held.

Later in the evening Lt. and Mrs. Edwards left for McKinney, Tex., where the officer will be stationed at Ashburn General hospital. Lt. Edwards returned to this country a few months ago from the Mediterranean war theater where he had been on duty with the army for nearly two years.

Mrs. Edwards was on the staff of the Eagle Point schools last at 214 1/2 East Main street.

Speaker Explains Y. M. C. A. Work At Zonta Meeting

Interesting information about the work of the Y.M.C.A. was given by Ben Schmidt, secretary of the Medford association, at the meeting of the Medford Zonta club last Monday at the Hotel Holland.

Mr. Schmidt stated that the Y.M.C.A. established the first gymnasium in 1881, held the first boys' summer camp in 1886 and organized the HY club in 1889. The Y.M.C.A. and Red Cross are the only organizations allowed to work with prisoners of war in enemy countries, Schmidt declared. The association is financed through Community Chest funds and memberships raise the balance needed, he said.

Two songs by Joyce Bateman, accompanied by Mrs. Effie Kurtz, were much enjoyed. Miss Bateman leaves soon to study music at Willamette university.

Eight members of the local Zonta club are planning to attend the district conference in Salem, Oct. 21 and 22.

Medford Student In College Play

Miss Clara Daniels, sophomore at Mills college, Oakland, is in the cast of the Shakespearean play "A Midsummer Night's Dream" which the college will present this month. Initial performance will be in Woodminster Bowl, Joaquin Miller Park, Friday, Oct. 20, college officials state. Miss Daniels will appear as Theseus, Duke of Athens.

Miss Daniels, 1942 graduate of Medford senior high school, is attending Mills on a scholarship and is enrolled in the department of speech and dramatics. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Daniels, 407 Park ave.

VFW Auxiliary State Officers To Be Honored

A banquet at the Holland Hotel Tuesday will honor Mrs. Marie Dana, Portland, department president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, and Mrs. Edith Alderman, Portland, department secretary, who will be in Medford to pay their official visit to Crater Lake auxiliary. The dinner will be in the Holland Hotel's new Blue Room at 7 p. m.

Other honored guests will be Department Commander Pete Fredrickson of Grants Pass and Mrs. Fredrickson, who is department guard for the auxiliary this year, and Mrs. Mary Schulz of Crater Lake auxiliary, who is department assistant guard. Past Department Commander I. D. Canfield of Medford will be master of ceremonies.

Members of Crater Lake post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, are also invited to attend the banquet as well as husbands of auxiliary members, whether members of the post or not, those in charge announce.

Today members of District 11, VFW, made up of posts and auxiliaries of Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland, are holding a joint meeting with District 13 at Klamath Falls. The meeting is to be preceded by a service officers school at 1 p. m. conducted by the department service officer, G. O. Pike of the Veterans' Facility in Portland. Service Officer Frank J. Holbrook of Crater Lake post is attending and the school is open to any wishing to attend.

The district meeting, to open at 2 p. m. will be presided over by V. J. Moran, commander of District 11, and J. N. Brochtrup, commander of District 13, will assist. Mrs. Lenore Wall, Medford, president of District 11 for the auxiliary will conduct the auxiliary meeting and Mrs. Ella Mullins, president of District 13, will also attend.

At the five o'clock banquet which will conclude the day honored guests will be Department Commander Fredrickson, Department President Dana and Department Secretary Alderman.

Couple Leaves For Coast Town

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, residents of Medford since 1929, are now making their home in North Bend, Ore., Mrs. Craig's physicians having recommended a change of climate for her health. The Craigs left about 10 days ago.

Before her departure a number of Mrs. Craig's friends arranged a farewell party in her honor. The group gathered at the Craig home, 823 East Ninth street, and during the afternoon presented Mrs. Craig with a shower of farewell gifts.

Mrs. Paul A. Scherer Visits Daughter Here

Mrs. Paul A. Scherer of Washington, D. C., is in Medford spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jack K. James of Tenth street. Mrs. Scherer is expected the middle of this week for a brief visit. The Scherers lived here for a considerable time and have a great many friends in the city. They left Medford about 10 ears ago to reside in the east.

Mrs. James' husband, Capt. Jack K. James, is stationed at an overseas base with the army.

Dinner Thursday Ends Celebration Of National Week

Climaxing the celebration of National Business Women's Week, October 8 to 14, inclusive the Medford Business and Professional Women's club gave a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lenox, 2322 East Main street last Thursday evening. Special guests of the evening were members of the Medford Zonta club.

Dinner was served to approximately 50 members and guests in the rumpus room, "Lenoxico", which is attractively decorated in the Mexican motif. Preceding the dinner, Mrs. Kathryn Larson, accompanied by Mrs. Aileen Maddox, sang "The American Prayer". The song is one which all BPW clubs have been requested to learn this year.

During the dinner hour a group of young Mexican nationals serenaded the ladies with the colorful songs of their homeland. Following the dinner, colored movies of scenes in Mexico were shown by Dr. A. E. Merkel, of the Jackson County Health unit.

Zonta guests in attendance were Mrs. Ilean Grigsby, Mrs. Effie Kurtz, Mrs. Stella Merrick, Mrs. Florence Bolton, Mrs. Thora Lawrence, Mrs. Ethel Lathrop, Mrs. Stella May Hendrickson, Mrs. Edith Gifford, Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, Mrs. Grace Holmes, Mrs. Mabel Conger, Mrs. Katherine Satterlee, Mrs. Mabel Grigsby and Dr. Isabel Donaldson. Another guest of the evening was Mrs. Winnie Weishaar, recently of Portland and formerly a resident of Medford, being a past president of the Medford B.P.W. club.

This is the second annual joint meeting of the two clubs and promises to become a traditional affair.

Miss Helen Parish was general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Jacques Lenox, Mrs. Mildred Drury, Mrs. Eva Judd, Miss Hazel Swayne, Mrs. Ethel Tennant, Mrs. Virginia Waite, Mrs. Lulu Watson, Mrs. Edith Davis, Mrs. Kathryn Larson, Mrs. Gladys York, Mrs. Kathryn Davidson, Miss Laura York and Miss Lucille Lenox.

Observance of National Business Women's Week in Medford was launched last Sunday, with a no-host breakfast at the Holland Hotel, after which members and guests attended the morning service of the First Presbyterian church. Guests attending were Mrs. Winnie Weishaar and Mrs. Helen Pelton. Arrangements for the breakfast were in charge of Miss Laura York, Mrs. Lulu Watson and Mrs. Iva McHenry.
