Changes Horses in Midstream

Jim Moran, the professional screwball, who sold an Exmoor, brought a bull into a china shop and found a needle in a haystack, added to his list of exploded fallacies by changing horses in the middle of a stream—the Truckee River near Reno, Nev. Moran said he thought the Truckee was the best place to carry out his new idea because, as he put it, "Isn't Reno where people go to change horses anyway?"

Mrs. L. Carpenter Speaks to Rogue River Civic Club
