

ICKES DECLARES DEFINITE TREND FOR ROOSEVELT

Washington, Oct. 19.—(U.P.)—Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes, asserting that he has never seen a man "so reckless with the truth" as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, today accused the Republican nominee of "trying to win the presidency under false pretenses."

Recently returned from a speaking tour through the west and midwest, Ickes told a press conference "there is a definite trend in the country toward Roosevelt."

"The chocolate soldier from Albany, N. Y., must sense what is going to happen to him on Nov. 7," Ickes added.

Dewey has become "quarrelsome and petulant," he said, and "no one is going to be elected on a sour note."

He accused Dewey of deliberately misquoting him in his St. Louis speech in referring to the secretary's relations with the war labor board during the coal strikes last year.

"Mr. Dewey," he said, "is evidently trying to start a controversy between me and the W.L.B."

He explained that in a magazine article he had referred to work stoppages—and not to the W.L.B.—as "a black and stupid chapter in the history of the American home front."
