MASK, DAVIDSON AWAIT GONG FOR WRESTLING BOUT

Lillard Reaches Agreement With Ex-Marine to Use Legitimate Holds Only.

The Gray Mask is polishing up his hard noggin to use against Buck Davidson tonight at Mack Lillard's weekly wrestling card at the Medford armory. The masked man has an unbroken string of four victories to his credit here and southern Oregon wrestling fans are wondering if the ex-marine will be the fifth or if the Mask's identity will be revealed as a result of losing the bout to Davidson. Lillard and Davidson have reached an understanding that only legitimate wrestling is to take place in the ring tonight between the Mask and Davidson.

Despite the suspicions of the spectators that the Mask has something hidden in his hood, there is nothing there but a good old hard skull according to the referee and Lillard. There are four Medford wrestlers to date, including Davidson, who will vouch for the fact that the Mask's head is hard as rock. The Mask's aggressive manner, ability to meet any wrestler and throw him for a loss, indicates that he might be an champion from somewhere. The main event will run two out of three falls or an hour of wrestling. Tony Ross meets Paavo Kantonen, one of the Mask's previous victims in four ten-minute rounds or two out of three falls in the semi-main event. Tex Porter and Herb Parks are scheduled for the curtain-opener at 8:30 p. m. and Lillard promises that both will be packed full of action.

CAVEMEN MEET ASHLAND FRIDAY

Grants Pass, Oct. 19.—Grants Pass football fans will have a chance to see the only conference game of the home season tomorrow night when the Ashland Grizzlies will be gunning for their second win in five games.

Frank Burdell, flashy little left half who has been a stand-out in several of the Cavemen games this season, will probably be lost to the squad for the rest of the season because of a lateral knee injury. According to Coach Mel Johnson, the hopes of the team are brightened with the prospect that Junior Moser will be back in the game after a two-week layoff because of a "green stick" fractured rib.

Ashland tied Klamath Falls 12 to 12 two weeks ago and last week the Cavemen were beaten 12 to 0 by the Pelicans. But the Grants Pass club figures to score their first conference win over the Grizzlies Friday.

VETERANS MAY OBTAIN LOANS TO BUY HOMES

Washington, Oct. 19.—(U.P.)—Regulations whereby World War II veterans can obtain loans for home purchasing under the G. I. bill of rights were issued today by the veterans administration.

Veteran Administrator Frank T. Hines emphasized in an accompanying statement that the veterans administration does not make loans directly, but only guarantees those made to veterans by recognized individuals, banks, loan companies, and authorized federal and state agencies.

The loans may not be in excess of $2,000 and must be used for buying property, or financing construction or improvement of property to be used by the borrower as his home, or as his business, if dwelling and business are at the same site.

Veterans can apply for the loans not more than five years after the end of the war.

The regulations identified eligible borrowers as servicemen on active duty on or after Sept. 16, 1940, and before the officially declared termination of World War II; who are discharged or released from service under conditions other than dishonorable" after 90 days active duty, or, regardless of length of service, if released "because of injury or disability incurred in service in line of duty."

BRICKER CITES TRUMAN SUPPORT BY PENDERGAST

Opponent Charged With New Deal Cynicism in Admitting Support of Machine.

Aboard Bricker Train En Route to Fresno, Calif., Oct. 19.—(U.P.)—Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio wins up his five-day campaign for California's 25 electoral votes tonight at Fresno where he delivers his nineteenth speech since entering the state.

The GOP vice presidential nominee carries his drive into Nevada tomorrow with speeches at Reno, Sparks and Lovelock. Bricker opened his final day in California with a speech at Bakersfield today. He also made rear-platform talks at Tulare and Selma.

Pendergast Support
He told a Los Angeles audience last night that Sen. Harry S. Truman, Mo., his democratic opponent for the vice presidency, bespoke "New Deal cynicism" when he admitted he had Pendergast machine support. He also said that Truman, in his speech two days prior in the same auditorium, "insulted" industry, labor and armed service personnel when he "accredited" the Roosevelt administration with "the miracle of war production—indeed for winning the war itself."

"I want to say to you, right at the outset," Bricker asserted, "that these historic results have been achieved not because of the New Deal, but often in spite of the New Deal."

Bricker said that Truman "tore away the shroud and revealed New Deal cynicism in all its ugliness" when the democratic nominee told a news conference that he had Pendergast support.

Could Be President

Citing the fact that Truman could become president, Bricker condemned the Missouriian for his statement that "a statesman is only a dead politician" and Truman's disclaimer that he wanted to be "a statesman."

"Let it be remembered," Bricker said, "that this gentleman who owes his political fortune to Pendergast, and who never wants to be a statesman, could become president of the United States."

"The time has come to eliminate such cynicism from our political life and restore the presidency of the United States to its rightful place of dignity and honesty." Following his three Nevada speeches tomorrow, Bricker will campaign in Utah Friday. His major speech will be delivered at Salt Lake City that night.
