Buy and Store Onions Now WFA Advice To Housewives

Portland — Remember last season when onions were hard to get in many parts of the country and the price fairly high? Well, now all housewives have a chance to insure that doesn't happen again, revealed C. R. Tulley, district representative, office of distribution, War Food Administration.

What many homemakers are doing, according to Tulley, is buying a sack or two of onions and storing them in their garages and basements for later use. The change from famine to feast is caused by a temporary surplus of Sweet Spanish onions in the nation and Oregon. The national onion crop is 50 per cent greater than last year's crop. There are many more onions than can be properly stored in regular commercial facilities.

To help overcome this tremendous surplus, the WFA designated onions as a Victory Food Selection during September and October, Tulley said.

"It's to the advantage of every homemaker as well as a bit of patriotic cooperation to buy and home store onions now," said Tulley. "The price of onions now makes them an attractive buy and they may well cost more later on."

"Any family using onions to brighten up their meals should have no difficulty in keeping them until they are used up. The main requirement for home storing onions is to keep them in a cool, well ventilated place, but not cold enough to freeze them. Under these conditions the onions should retain their natural flavor for a period of at least sixty days," Tulley said.

Dorothy Mickelson, Portland homemaker, demonstrates how to peel or skin onions without shedding a single tear, by holding them under water. Miss Mickelson is just one of the thousands of Oregon consumers now helping the state WFA Food Industry Advisory Committee with the distribution of the surplus Northwest onion crop through the increased consumption of this pungent vegetable. MEDFORD SENIOR HI-Y OUTLINES FUTURE PLANS

The Medford Senior Hi-Y club met last night in YMCA rooms with their advisor, J. C. Tucker, to outline plans for future meetings.

Those in attendance were Gerals Pence, Alton Hayes, Earl Bradfish, Jack Thompson, Larry Hays, John Bullock, Lyle Wilcox, Elmer Kyle, David Grubb, Ronald Weatherford, Bill Virgin, Bill Patton and Karl Barnhart.

Pence, who was elected president of the Torch Honor club, resigned as president of the Hi-Y and Vice President Hayes took over the vacated office. Bradfish was elected vice president.

Plans were discussed for entrance in the Noise Parade and the Armistice Day parade. Bradfish, Virgin and Patton were appointed as a committee for the Noise Parade.

An Invitation Night for friends of the club was planned for Oct. 26. Bullock, as chairman, will be assisted by Kyle and Bradfish to plan refreshments.

Ben H. Schmidt, general secretary of the YMCA, participated in the planning of the programs.

KIWANIANS ELECT EARLY PRESIDENT IN NOONDAY MEET

Joe Earley was elected president of the Medford Kiwanis club at a luncheon meeting Wednesday in the Hotel Holland Blue Room. Glenn Fabrick was chosen as vice president.

Elected to the board of directors were Frank Humphreys, Paul Selby, E. B. DeVoe, J. Arthur Cunningham, Jim Bolton and Al Downs.

Members were entertained by a quartet, Ed Niles, Tony Manno, Al Downs and Paul Selby with Lester Ternahan as accompanist. A joint meeting with the Lions club was held at the Eagles hall Wednesday night at 6:30 p. m.

Guests at the luncheon meeting were Sgt. Joe Earley, Jr., and two members of the Downtown Portland club.

SON OF ADAM AND EVE

Camp Crowder, Mo. —(U.P.)— Cpl. Joe Smith of Abbeyville, La., like the rest of mankind, claims direct descent from Adam and Eve—but Smith has a document to prove it. To scoffing barracks mates he displays birth certificate from his home town which reads: "Joseph Smith, born to Eve and Adam Smith."

Mexico City —(U.P.)— Ramon Bragana, the Cuban Negro who took over the managership of the Veracruz baseball team when Rogers Hornsby quit his $10,000-a-year job after the first month, set a new Mexican league pitching record of 26 wins in one season.
