THE MEMORY LINGERS ON

How like the popular song of a few years ago is the experience of our good friend, Col. N. P. Graff, formerly of Camp White but now in Texas. The Colonel misses Medford and some of the good things he found here.

READ COL. GRAFF'S LETTER:
Let's all join him this Sunday morn in a good old-fashioned breakfast.

"Dear Mr. Gates:

I would appreciate very much if you would please send me 1 giant size package of Sperry Pancake Flour; also 10 lbs. of Sperry Flour.

We are unable to get it here and there is no other can take its place. to Mrs. Graff's way of thinking. Surely have missed Medford and its nice people. Best regards,

Col. Norman P. Graff,
Camp Howze, Tex.

We've sent the Sperry Flours, but the Colonel is going to miss that fine Groceteria old-fashioned Pork Sausage he liked so well with his fine golden brown Sperry Pancakes. Too far away or we would have sent some along so the Colonel could again enjoy the breakfasts he so long remembers. YES, THE MEMORY LINGERS ON!

Tomorrow:

Old Fashioned AA Pork Sausage.....lb. 39c
Sperry's Pancake Flour..... 4-lb. Bag 29c

Col. Graff should have his by Sunday. Let's join him in this glorious old fashioned breakfast this Sunday morn.
