

TRUMAN FOR USE OF WAR PLANTS FOR PROSPERITY

With Truman En Route to Butte, Mont., Oct. 20 (U.P.)—Sen. Harry S. Truman, Democratic vice presidential nominee, carried his campaign into Montana today after attacking proposals for dismantling government war plants valued at $20,000,000 and urging their use to promote prosperity after the war.

Truman slotracks his special car tonight at Butte, where he will deliver a 15-minute radio address over a state hookup before moving into South Dakota. He left Seattle last night after another radio address pointed at the northwest and its concern over reconversion problems.

Not By Government
"The Democratic administration believes that we should go forward and utilize to the best advantage the fine plants and facilities built to win the war."

Jap "Co-Prosperity" Brought Inflation, Graft To Islands

By United Press
Tokyo newspapers called for increased production of aircraft and other war materials today and warned that "decisive battles" were developing in the Philippines.

Editorials in three leading newspapers stressed that the United States was moving for a new, and perhaps greater, thrust at the heart of Japan, according to a Domei news agency broadcast recorded by the federal communications commission. Domei introduced its broadcast of the editorial digest by asserting that the Pacific war "was entering the decisive stage."

Jitters Indicated
Although the Japanese press still was restricting its report of Philippine developments to yesterday's imperial headquarters' communique announcing merely that an American fleet had entered Leyte Gulf and opened a bombardment of coastal areas, the editorials indicated the Japanese were becoming jittery. The Japanese propaganda on the invasion of the Philippines took the line that President Roosevelt ordered the operation so the "defeat" of the United States 3rd fleet off Formosa would not embarrass his re-election campaign. The Yomiuri Hochi Shimbun "predicted" that the "Philippines has become a battleground for decisive battles between the United States and Japan." Domei said, while the Asahi "declared" that the enemy's much-vaunted 58th task force has been dealt a crushing blow by our forces but the enemy by no means abandoned his strategy for the re-invasion of the Philippines with Gen. Douglas MacArthur's forces as a mainstay."

Plane Loss Worries
An earlier Domei broadcast, also reported by the FCC, indicated, however, that while the Japanese were gloating over the alleged victory off Formosa, the loss of Japanese aircraft in the engagement was causing some alarm. Domei said the youth organization of the Imperial Rule Assistance Political society, inner wing of Japan's mass totalitarian party, planned to launch a campaign on Nov. 8 for 500 extra planes "to make up for the 300 lost in the battle of Taiwan (Formosa)."

he told a Democratic rally in the Seattle Civic auditorium. "By this I do not mean government operation of such plants.

"But I do mean that the government must have a vigorous, well conceived and well directed effort to encourage private business to utilize these plants. I mean a government that will place the operation of these plants and the welfare of the millions of workers above the selfish interests of those who fear competition."

Truman said that the facilities built for war production "will form the nucleus of a great prosperity for the entire nation if we have the courage and the vision to see to it that they are kept in operation."

Must Not Lie Idle
"If they are dismantled or allowed to lie idle, the injury will be beyond calculation," he said. Continuing to emphasize his assertion that experienced leadership was necessary to win the war and the peace, he said the war could be won quickly "with the right kind of leadership—the kind we have now—"

Mrs. F. F. Nordwick, temporary staff member, is assisting Mr. Foley. "Our door attendance has tripled in the last week," Mrs. Nordwick said today. "We hope that hostesses will take note."

A dance is being held tonight, and moving pictures are planned for Saturday and Sunday evenings. Eve Prentice and her accordion band will play Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Nordwick also announced that regular dances will be held on Monday and Friday nights if enough hostesses turn out.
