Couple Celebrates 50th Anniversary At Home Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Whetstone celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday at their home, 829 East Ninth street, with a reception for relatives and friends. About sixty guests signed the guest book between the hours of 7:30 and 10:30 p. m.

Mrs. Whetstone wore a white satin dress, fashioned the same as her wedding gown 50 years ago, with a string of pearls and an orchid corsage, anniversary gifts from her husband. The anniversary wedding cake, topped with a golden bell, centered a table decorated with fall flowers of golden hues and yellow tapers. After Mr. and Mrs. Whetstone had cut the first slice, the cutting and serving was completed by Mrs. Whetstone's sister, Mrs. Dora Bower of San Francisco, and Mrs. J. H. Daily and daughter, Beverly, Mrs. Doris Waltermire and her daughter-in-law, Carol served punch.

The Whetstone's two sons from Ashland and Dunsmuir, Calif., were here for the celebration and Wednesday the couple left for Dunsmuir to spend some time with their son in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Whetstone were married at the home of Mrs. Whetstone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, of the Applegate district and both are members of pioneer families of Jackson county.

Medford Couple Married Monday At Church Here

Announcement was made this week of the wedding of Mrs. Katherine Satterlee and James D. Fleming, both of Medford. The wedding took place Monday, Oct. 16, at the First Methodist church here with the Rev. Louis C. Kirby reading the ceremony.

A small group of relatives witnessed the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming are on a wedding trip and will be at home to their friends at 311 South Laurel street after the first of November. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fleming have resided here many years and have a wide circle of friends. ## Glaves-Loeffler Wedding Details Of Interest Here

Details of the wedding of Miss Betty Louise Glaves to Robert Allan Loeffler, which took place Sept. 23 at St. Michael's and All Angel's Episcopal church in Portland will be of interest to friends of the Loeffler family here. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Iole Glaves of Ontario, Ore., and the groom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Loeffler, formerly of Medford and now of Parkville, Mo.

The service, read by the Rev. Richard Flagg Ayres, took place at 8 o'clock in the evening. Miss Glaves' wedding gown was of white satin and her long veil was lace bordered. She carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Miss Jean Glaves, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a colonial type dress of blue and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink roses and gladioli.

Max Glaves, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage and Dr. Loeffler served as best man for his son.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary Ellen Loeffler, the groom's sister, sang "Ave Maria" and "O Perfect Love".

The reception was in the social hall of St. Michael's church. Following a week's wedding trip to the Oregon coast, Mr. and Mrs. Loeffler returned to Portland and are making their home at 3400 S. W. Marquam Road. The groom is a senior medical student at the University of Oregon Medical school and the bride is a secretary in the department of pathology at the school.

Dr. and Mrs. Loeffler visited briefly in Medford after the wedding and then returned to Parkville, Mo., where they are now residing while the doctor is serving as a lieutenant-commander in the navy.

Golden Wedding Is Celebrated By Couple Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Miller of 233 South Riverside avenue celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday with a family reunion and dinner at home.

Here for the reunion were their son, Roy G. Miller, Mrs. Miller and their daughter, Linda, Tacoma, and three nieces, Mrs. Walter Seibert, Mrs. Charles Russell, Pocatello, Ida., and Mrs. Thomas Whalen, Superior, Wyo.

Two grandsons have been in service overseas. Sgt. Gordon Miller, now in France, made his home here with his grandparents until entering the service. First Lt. Glenn Miller, reconnaissance pilot, was recently listed as missing in action over France.

The Millers have resided in Medford for the past eight years.

Patricia Fisher Engaged To Wed Army Sergeant

Mrs. Clara Fisher of 512 South Holly street announces the engagement of her daughter, Patricia, to Sgt. William Dean, army air corps. The wedding will be an event of the near future at Sacred Heart Catholic church here.

Miss Fisher has resided in Medford her entire life and both she and her mother have a large circle of friends in the city. Miss Fisher graduated from St. Mary's Academy here with the class of 1943 and since has been a student at the Southern Oregon College of Education in Ashland.

Sgt. Dean is from Dayton, Ohio, and is stationed at the Medford army air base.

Lt. Jack Keaveny Weds Miss Grayson In Texas Service

Miss Margaret Lucille Grayson and Lt. Jack F. Keaveny were married October 4 at a large wedding in the Baptist church at Bosqueville, Texas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grayson of Waco and Bosqueville, and Lt. Keaveny's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Keaveny of Jacksonville.

Miss Grayson, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in an ivory satin dress with long train. The full-length veil fell from a Juliet cap and she carried a white Bible with gardenias.

Attendants were Miss Jane Scott, gowned in aqua net and taffeta, and the Misses Margaret Rose Scott and Mary Louise Fouts, bridesmaids, wearing identical gowns of pink and blue satin and net. All three carried pink rosebuds. Lauretta Scott, wearing white taffeta, was ring bearer.

The ceremony was read by Dr. B. O. Herring. Best man for the groom was Lt. Corwin L. Hurst of Blackland Field and groomsmen were Dale Alford and Charles Davenport.

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Lt. and Mrs. Keaveny left after the ceremony for Santa Monica, Calif., where the lieutenant is assigned for the present.

Mrs. Keaveny is a graduate of the Waco high school, a business college and also attended Baylor university for two years. Before her marriage she was a government employe. Her family is well known in the Waco-Bosqueville district, being one of the regions pioneer families.

Lt. Keaveny, a graduate of Medford senior high school, has been in the air corps for a considerable time and recently returned to this country after completing 51 missions as a bomber pilot in Italy.

Mrs. Keaveny traveled to Texas for her son's wedding. Several weeks ago the bride-elect and Lt. Keaveny were in the valley to spend a few days with the officer's parents.

Arts Study Group Meets Tomorrow With Mrs. Flinn

Meeting tomorrow with Mrs. Frances Flinn, 604 West Main street, will be the arts study group of Medford branch, American Association of University Women. The meeting will be preceded by luncheon at one o'clock.

This winter the group has elected to study American arts of the 18th and 19th centuries. This will cover music, theater, literature and sculpture with programs to be given by members of the group. Tomorrow's program will be on American music of these two centuries and is to be given by Mrs. Gordon Gilmore.

Mrs. Robert Shepherd, chairman of the group, will introduce the study with a resume of the American arts up to the 18th century.

SERVES THE PURPOSE

In Italy... on barren South Pacific islands this is the way Army Nurses wash their clothes. There just isn't any other way. And because the army recognizes the importance of cleanliness, laundry is washed often and well. We're doing a wartime job too, by keeping laundry on the home front in spotless condition for civilians here.

Chrysanthemum Exhibit Featured By Garden Clubs

An exhibit of more than 100 hardy varieties of chrysanthemums, found to be satisfactory for this locality, was an outstanding feature of the annual meeting of the Siskiyou District, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, held Tuesday at the USO auditorium. The exhibit was left at the auditorium until the following day in order that servicemen might enjoy the flowers, and they were later sent to the Camp White hospital. In charge of the exhibit were Mrs. C. C. Sater, Mrs. D. R. Wood and Mrs. R. T. Nichol of Medford.

A plant exchange proved popular. It was in charge of Mrs. Blake Miller, Mrs. H. O. Smith, Mrs. Gladys M. King, Mrs. Sam Bunch of the Illinois Valley club. Mrs. Smith, state president, also spoke during the day and told of the advance that has been made by Oregon gardeners in hybridizing.

Mrs. R. N. Finney, president of the Jacksonville club, gave a demonstration on the making of dish gardens for hospitalized servicemen, shut-ins or the home. Mrs. Stanton Rowell of the Grants Pass club and state garden center chairman, exhibited a miniature garden center and Mrs. R. T. Nichol, bird chairman of the Medford club, displayed a number of bird houses and feeding stations.

Mrs. L. G. Gentner, vice-president for this district, made recommendations for post-war plans, stressing the value of the return of Arbor Day observance. More than 80 persons registered for the meeting. Registration was in charge of Mrs. J. C. Ottinger and Mrs. R. E. LeVander of the Talent club.
