JUNIOR HIGH TO ENJOY CARNIVAL

Medford Junior high school's annual carnival will be held Wednesday, Nov. 1, in the newly decorated auditorium at 7:30 p. m. It was announced today. Planned for this big event of the year are games, varied food booths and a program centering around Ray Henderson's Minstrels. On the second floor of the building there will be many side shows, including the Fun House, Beauty Shop, Style Show and Amateur Show.

It is pointed out that the income from this affair, the one money-making event of the school year, finances all student body activities. Among these are the Junior high school newspaper, motion picture equipment, athletic expenses, various medals and awards and the assemblies for which paid talent is procured.

Trash Fire — The chemical truck was called to Childer's vacant lot on South Cottage street this morning to extinguish a trash fire.

COLLINS RESIGNS
Portland, Ore., Oct. 26.—(U.P.) Henry W. Collins, chairman of the Oregon racing commission since 1939 and a member since its formation in 1935, today announced he had sent his resignation to Gov. Earl Snell.

The Lincoln P. T. A. association will hold their annual Halloween Frolic on Friday, October 27, in the Lincoln gymnasium, at 7:15 p. m. The admission price is 10 cents.
