MINISTERS SLATE CHURCH LEADERS FOR DISCUSSIONS

The Medford Ministerial association is sponsoring the appearance of two leaders in the field of Christian education and missions for November 7. Dr. Clarence Benson, formerly of the education department of Moody Bible institute and director of the Scripture Press and now head of the Evangelical Sunday School association, will conduct round-table discussions and lecture periods throughout the day. The Rev. Sam Cassells, field representative of the Sudan Interior mission, will take part in a double-header service at 7:30 p. m.

The Ministerial association said that Dr. Benson is one of America's outstanding leaders and authorities in the field of church school work. He is author of a number of books on the subject, the most popular being "The Sunday School in Child Study" and most recently "The History of Christian Education."

Especially capable in the field of Sunday school literature and curriculum, the association said, he has pioneered in many new techniques and processes of education.

The ministers hope that a large delegation of Sunday school officers, teachers, pastors and youth group leaders, together with parents and others interested in the moral and spiritual welfare of children and youth can hear Dr. Benson and take part in the discussions.

Rev. Cassells represents the Sudan Interior mission, an active force of some 500 missionaries and workers holding forth in Africa from Somaliland to Nigeria. This mission has been most active in Ethiopia, and their missionaries the last to leave and the first to return at Addis Abeba. Rev. Cassells himself is a dynamic speaker.

A tentative program for the day follows:
 10 a. m.—Medford Ministerial association monthly meeting at the Church of the Nazarene, First and Holly.
 11 a. m.—Address to the association by Dr. Benson.
 12 noon—Carry-in lunch at First Presbyterian church parlors, followed at 2 p. m. by discussion. Benson will lead on subjects related to Sunday school problems and youth education materials. The general public is invited to attend both the luncheon and the discussion.
 7:30 p. m.—Christian rally at First Methodist church, corner W. Main and Laurel. Address on Christian education by Dr. Benson. Pictures of Africa missions by Rev. Mr. Cassells.
 Pastors of valley churches are asked by the association to give full announcement to the above and encourage and arrange transportation for church school workers.

Brougher's Topics Listed At Baptist

Dr. Russell M. Brougher, who is conducting a two-week crusade at the First Baptist church, will speak tonight on "Love, Courtship and Marriage, and he will also show colored moving pictures of the Grand Canyon.

100-Foot Flagpole To Be Dedicated To Battleship Oregon

Portland, Ore., Oct. 27—(UP)—A giant flagpole 100 feet high today stood on the spot to be dedicated Sunday to the memory of the historic battleship Oregon and the veterans of the Spanish war.

The pole is a 110-foot Douglas fir, weighing about 2 1/2 tons. Nearby workmen moved into place a four-ton Rocky butte stone on which the plaque and the figurehead of the Oregon will be mounted. The surrounding area has been landscaped for a perpetual park.

The old battleship was a state shrine on the Portland waterfront until the early days of the present war, when federal officials asked that it be scrapped for the metal it contained.

An investigation was made several months ago into charges that the scrap had not been used in the war effort, when the hull was found moored in the Columbia river. It was determined that some of the metal had been sold to government agencies, with a large amount remaining unused.

Prospect

Prospect, Oct. 27—Mr. and Mrs. David M. Chandler and daughters, Norma Dean, Maxine, and Juanita, and Glenn Fairchild, Jr., spent October 22 and 23, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schieferstein and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jamison at Klamath Falls.

Ted Fraedrick, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fraedrick, Jr., received his call and left for his naval training base, Oct. 24.

Mrs. Birdie Chancellor, who made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Iley Mays, was called to Omaha, Neb., by the serious illness of her son, Meredith Chancellor, whose death occurred before she arrived. Mrs. Chancellor is remaining in Omaha.

Mrs. Frances Whitehouse of La Center, Wash., and Mrs. Edna Griffith of Ridgefield, Wash., left for their homes, October 26, after spending the past 10 days visiting their brother and son, Leonard Hutchins.
