THE GRANGE

Gold Hill Grange

At the Gold Hill Grange meeting October 19 a resolution was passed favoring a fertilizer plant, also a resolution in favor of another post-war project, the proposed irrigation project on the upper Rogue river.

The third and fourth degree obligations were given Mary Estremado and Martin Johnson. It was decided to put on the third and fourth degree work for other candidates October 23.

The program included piano solos by Beth Eskew. The Chaffee and Christian families served. Near 60 were present.

A special session for degree work was held October 23 for three of our own candidates and one from Sams Valley.

Date for the November recreation meeting was discussed. It was decided to combine the bazaar and recreation night, the date being November 18. It is also planned to serve a dinner at the hall that evening.

H.E.C. was in charge of refreshments.

Preceding the H.E.C. meeting October 25, Mrs. Cleo Gilchrist gave a talk and demonstration, "Conserve With the Scrap Bag."

Visitors were Mrs. Nina Dusenbery and Mrs. Hoback of Gold Hill and Mrs. Sanderson of Sams Valley.

Fancy-work Chairman Florence Lance asks that all fancy-work for the bazaar be turned in at the meeting November 8, as the bazaar dinner and dance will be held November 18.

Marie Christensen announces that the barn dance planned in November will be held in December due to the Bazaar in November.

Maude Martin, Florence Howes and Sadie Frink were remembered by Flora Friends and Mary Shaw received a gift.

Two bouquets were sent to Gertie Rosencrans who is ill.

The Cameron and Chase families will serve at Grange Nov. 2.

Sister Roark, who left to make her home in California, was presented with a pine-needle basket. She gave the Grange a two-burner oil stove.

Phoenix Grange

Phoenix Grange met October 24 with a covered dish dinner. Following the dinner a Hallowe'en program was presented which was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carr.

During the business meeting, plans were made for Booster Night on November 4 at the hall. All members of the Grange are urged to be on hand and a special invitation is extended to new members.

The history, purpose and aims of the Grange will be presented, also the purpose of the Grange committees will be outlined. Grangers who have prospective members in mind are asked to invite them or anyone interested in the Grange.

Following the program a recreational period will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served.

All officers of the Grange are reminded of the practice to be held November 3 at 9 p. m. The hour is set for this time because of another meeting in the hall that night, preceding this time.

Movies of Europe Invasion Planned At Baptist Church

At Sunday night's evangelistic services at First Baptist Church Dr. Russell M. Brougher spoke on the inescapable consequences of sin, declaring that in one way or another sin will always find the person out, basing his assertion on the Bible text, "Be sure your sin will find you out," Numbers 32:23.

Tuesday night Dr. Brougher's subject will be "A Man's Curiosity, Is It Greater Than a Woman's, or The Moral Leper." Moving pictures of the invasion of Europe will be shown in the course of the meeting.

MINISTERS FAVOR BURKE BILL FOR CONTROL OF WINE

Through a special call of the members representing the Medford Ministerial association action was taken without a dissenting voice in favor of the "Burke Bill," a referendum measure which if passed in the November election puts fortified wines and other liquors containing over 14% alcohol out of the hands of promiscuous dealers such as grocery stores, drug stores, etc., and places them in the state liquor dispensaries where a permit is required to purchase.

The ministers state: "This is not a prohibition bill but a bill of regulation. The passage of this act will make it more difficult for minors to get fortified wine. Statistics reveal to us that fortified wine causes more insanity than any other liquor sold."

The ministers reported they were influenced in their action by a letter from Dr. J. C. Evans, superintendent of the Oregon State hospital, in which he stated: "It has been our experience that most of the drunkards admitted here come from an over-indulgence in fortified wine. It is safe to say that at least 50% of them use this beverage. Ordinarily, when asked why they used fortified wine particularly the usual reply is, 'Well, it is easy to get, cheap and potent.'"

The Ministerial association pointed out that their purpose in favoring the bill is especially to protect young people.

The land, ten buildings and equipment of New York City's Columbia University Medical center cost $25,000,000.
