

THREE COUNTIES TOP PAYROLL GAIN

Salem, Ore., Nov. 2—(U.P.)—The largest gains in Oregon wartime payrolls were recorded in Jefferson, Tillamook and Curry counties, the state unemployment compensation commission reported today. This record gain was in spite of Multnomah's gain of nearly four times its pre-war figure in 1943, which was more than twice the amount of covered payrolls for the entire state in 1940.

Jefferson county was reported as having a payroll of $1,243,661, for 1943, or 877 per cent above 1940. Tillamook's covered payrolls jumped 354 per cent between 1940 and 1943, from $1,934,069 to $8,772,428 last year, while Curry county's jump was more than 100 per cent in the one year 1942-43 alone, going to $1,059,798.
