

PILUSO HOLDS INSIDE TRACK TO FACE MASK

Ernie Piluso, favorite from Portland, will probably be the next man to attempt to remove the hood of the Gray Mask at Medford armory, according to Promoter Mack Lillard. Although these two gladiators have not been signed for the bout as yet, Lillard said Piluso has the inside track because of his defeat of Earl Malone last week.

Bulldog Jackson, along with Piluso, challenged the Mask from the ring last week. Jackson announced that he thinks the Mask is a wrestler named O'Toole from Columbus, Ohio, and he could identify him from a scar on the back. The Mask, however, offered fight when Jackson made a move toward removing the jersey from the Mask's anatomy.

Several reports have been heard as to the identity of the Mask. One spectator last week said he was positive he is none other than Jim Londos, world champion, while others think he is King Kong Cox, and others claim him to be Tony Morelli. There were even those who are sure he is O'Toole, as claimed by Jackson.

Pete Belcastro, through his local manager, issued a challenge to the Mask last Thursday but when approached by Promoter Lillard, the Weed Assassin stated that he had not yet made up his mind to meet the hooded villain. Lillard said that Belcastro would have to take a semi-windup bout because he can't seem to make up his mind about facing the mystery man.

ROSEBURG TRIMS GRIZZLIES 12-0

Scoring on flanker passes in the first and fourth quarters, Roseburg Indians took a 12 to 0 football victory over the hapless Ashland Grizzlies at Roseburg Friday night.

The Grizzly offensive couldn't penetrate past the Indian 35 the entire evening. The game was played on a muddy field which considerably hampered both teams.

Ashland closes its season with a southern Oregon conference game with Medford on the Grizzly field Armistice Day at 2 o'clock. A win over the state championship bound Tornado would leave Medford in possession of the league crown, a position the Tornado now holds, and give Ashland a tie with Klamath Falls for second place.

AIR FORCE SQUAD DEFEATS UCLANS

Riverside, Cal., Nov. 4.—(U.P.)—After being outplayed for nearly three periods by an alert University of California at Los Angeles team the 4th Air Force flyers from March Field exploded in the final minutes for three quick touchdowns and a 35 to 13 win today before 12,000 fans at Wheelock Field.

TEN-LEGGED CALF ON HOOVER RANCH

When Dr. George Gitzen was called to officiate at the birth of a ten-legged calf Saturday morning at the C. C. Hoover ranch on Buckshot Hill road, he could remember nothing in his recent veterinarian training that covered the subject. The calf, the first for a high-grade Holstein heifer, had four normal legs, also two sticking out of its front shoulders, and four sticking out from its sides. The monster died, but the doctor is recovering nicely, according to Hoover. Dr. Gitzen, the son of Dr. G. A. Gitzen of 129 North Grape street, graduated recently from Washington State college and is in the army reserve.

COAST SEA LIONS BEAT CALIFORNIA

Berkeley, Calif., Nov. 4.—(U.P.)—An underdog University of California Bear eleven battled the highly-favored Alameda Coast Guard Sea Lions to a standstill for three quarters here this afternoon, but faltered in the final stanza and dropped a 12-8 decision before 20,000 fans.

Given little chance to hold the vaunted Sea Lions and even less of scoring, Coach Stub Allison's brand new line played a stubborn game when they had their backs to the wall, stopping the guardsmen's thrusts time and again inside the 10-yard stripe in the first 20 minutes of play.

But Coach Lt. Joe Verducci's boys wouldn't be denied and they finally took to the air with the good right arm of Gonzales Morales, the former St. Mary's star, providing the winning margin.

TROJANS OUTLAST SAN DIEGO GOBS

Los Angeles, Nov. 4.—(U.P.)—Two great offensive-minded football teams marched up and down the field today with the Southern California Trojans outlasting the San Diego naval training station Bluejackets, 28 to 21, to preserve their undefeated record today before 25,000 fans at Memorial Coliseum.

Billed as a defensive struggle between the stout San Diego line and the Rose Bowl-bound Trojans, the game developed into a scoring race with sensational running of Don Burnside and Milford Dreblow, Trojan touchdown twins, who overshadowed the brilliant running of Gus White, San Diego navy flash.

MICHIGAN HANDS PENN 41-19 LOSS

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—(U.P.)—Michigan's football machine, hitting on all cylinders despite the loss of its sparkplug backs, Bob Wise and Bob Nussbaumer, walloped youthful Penn, 41-19 today before 48,000 fans at Franklin field.

Where the Wolverines were deprived of the services of its touchdown twins by Navy V-12 transfer last week, Coach Fritz Chisler uncovered two able replacements in half back Chubb and Lund. These new starters fitted nicely into a well-oiled Michigan team which scored once in the first and fourth periods, and hit the jackpot with four touchdowns in the second quarter.

Penn chalked up a tally in the third period and added two more in the final quarter, all against Michigan's second stringers.

GUY CORDON

This Industry-the State and the Nation Need His Experience in Critical Years Ahead!
