

SOCIETY and CLUBS

Ethel Johnson, Clifford Lien Married Sunday

Miss Ethel Mae Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Johnson of Astoria, Ore., became the bride of Clifford Lien of Canby, Ore., at a service held Sunday, October 29, at the Medford Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. Fred Weatherford performed the ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon before an altar banked with fall flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of slipper satin fashioned with a full skirt and long train. Her long veil fell from a halo of seed pearls and the bridal bouquet was pink and white roses and carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Fannie Bell Sullivan of Medford and bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Johnson of Central Point, Mrs. Marjorie West of Westport, Ore., cousins of the bride, Miss Donna Allen of Ashland and Miss Astrid Hansen of Medford. All wore pastel gowns and carried bouquets which matched the gowns.

Carol Johnson, sister of the bride, was flower girl and carried a basket of roses. The bride's mother wore a two-piece dress of soldier blue and wore a corsage of roses.

Best man for the groom was Russell Womelsdorf and ushers were John Eby, Homer Sullivan, Ronald Weatherford and Leroy House, Jr., all of Medford.

Miss Mildred Johnson of Astoria, sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Jesus I Have Promised" with Mrs. Ethel Kornstad at the organ. Mrs. Kornstad also played the wedding marches.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dunagan, 412 West Jackson boulevard, an aunt and uncle of the bride. The traditional wedding cake centered the serving table and after the bride had cut the first slice the serving was completed by Mrs. John Eby. Others assisting Mrs. Dunagan were Mrs. Herbert Brown, and Miss Marguerite Heckman.

About 45 guests were present for the reception.

Among the 150 guests at the wedding were many from out-of-town, including Mrs. Alma Call, Rogue River, grandmother of the bride; Delton and Clarence Johnson, Astoria; Berl Johnson, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown and Darlene of Sacramento, Calif.; Charles Dunagan, Hamilton City, Calif.; Mrs. L. M. Sturgis, Corning, Calif.; Mrs. Nettie Smith, Central Point; Mrs. Maude Stayton, Stayton, Ore.; Mrs. Teed Cardin, Mrs. Norma Mullins, Pauline and Joyce Mullins of Rogue River.

The bride and groom are in Medford for the present and will make a delayed wedding trip to San Francisco in the near future. They will establish a home here on returning.

Mrs. Lien has lived in Medford many years and attended local schools. The groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Lien of Canby, Ore., attended the Canby schools and later the Simpson Bible Institute in Seattle, Wash.

Miss Pat O'Brien To Become Bride; Leaves Tomorrow

Miss Pat O'Brien will leave tomorrow for Mason City, Iowa, where her wedding to Arbie Foss of Charles City, Iowa, will take place November 12. Mr. Foss is a government engineer.

During the past two weeks Miss O'Brien has been honored at a number of shower and farewell parties. Mrs. A. O. Tollefson and Mrs. Dessie Davidson entertained at a miscellaneous shower which honored Miss O'Brien, the party being at Mrs. Tollefson's home on Park street.

Others entertaining for the bride-elect were Mrs. Hugh Ford, Mrs. Sam Schlankey and Mrs. Clyde Webb, the three friends giving a shower party at Mrs. Webb's home.

Miss O'Brien's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Diestler, 825 Bennett avenue, the couple coming here recently from Charles City, Iowa, to make their home.

Medford Couple Leave For California City

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Murphy of 827 South Central avenue left Saturday for San Jose, Calif., where they will spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Gladys Parente, at 1085 Lincoln avenue. Mrs. Parente came to Medford and accompanied her parents south on the return trip.

Ensign and Mrs. Eugene Hayes were married last summer in the east. Mrs. Hayes being the former Evelyn Maxfield, daughter of Mrs. Mina Maxfield of Burlington, Vermont. Ensign Hayes, a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Hayes, 724 Alder street, is on South Pacific duty with the navy and Mrs. Hayes is remaining in Burlington, where she is a civil service employee of the government.

University Women Plan Dinner For Ashland Members

The local branch of the American Association of University Women will entertain members of the Ashland branch at a dinner meeting at the Holland Hotel Wednesday, November 8, at 6:30 p. m. A guest meeting for the Ashland branch is an annual affair.

Following dinner Mrs. Robert Carter will speak on Mexico and Central American countries where she lived for a number of years. Mrs. Carter's husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter of Medford.

Mrs. Gordon Gilmore and Mrs. Harry Dowson are in charge of arrangements for the dinner and members are asked to note the change in place from the Presbyterian church to the hotel.

Birthday Party Is Held Tuesday For Corum Twins

Jimmie and Dickie Corum, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Corum, celebrated their fourth birthday anniversaries Tuesday with a party at the family home, 143 Kenwood avenue. The small guests played games and enjoyed the birthday cakes and other refreshments. The twins were presented with a number of gifts.

Present for the birthday festivities were Deanna Cook, Mrs. Claude Miles and son, Jimmy; Mrs. Earl McQuigg and children, Jean and Jackie; Mrs. Dick Kay and twin children, Glenda and Glen, Mrs. Roland Holmes and children, Joanna and Curtis; Mrs. D. Daniels and son, Paul; Mrs. Lillian Ashcraft, Mrs. Ruth Boyd, Mrs. Nicholas Benjamin, the honored guests, and Mr. and Mrs. Corum.

Job's Daughters Dance Hostesses; Hold Initiation

"Hard Times" was the theme of an informal dancing party given the evening of October 28 by Daughters of Job at the Masonic Temple here. Chairman in charge of the dance was Miss Jean Zacharisen and Miss Marjorie Thompson was chairman of the clean-up committee.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Merrick, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zacharisen, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thompson, Mrs. R. J. Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swem, Mrs. W. H. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Seekatz, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sands, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Older, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Butler.

Wednesday evening the Daughters of Job had as a special guest Mrs. Edna B. Stanley of Gresham, Ore., grand guardian of the order, during the regular meeting. Formal initiation was held, the new members being Carol Lausman, Virginia Gibbons, Janet Horsey, Lorraine Persgard, Harriet Jones, Elizabeth Larson and Carol Maddox.

During the evening Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. W. H. Holt, Bethel guardian, were presented with corsages. Miss June Williams and Miss Nancy Swem sang.

Wyant-McCauley Wedding Service At Bride's Home

Lake Creek—Miss Fern Wyant and Keith McCauley were married October 24, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wyant of Lake Creek at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Keller of Medford read the service.

Miss Wyant, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white crepe with a coronet of small white chrysanthemums. Her flowers were white gardenias and white rosebuds.

Miss Lois Wright of Portland was bridesmaid. She wore a pink and gold dress and carried white rose buds and chrysanthemums. Miss Dorothy Wright of Brownsboro acted as usher. Her gown was aqua chiffon worn with pale pink rose buds.

Beryl Wyant, brother of the bride, was best man for Mr. McCauley.

After the wedding reception, held in the community hall, Mr. and Mrs. McCauley left for Arrowhead Lake, Calif., where the groom is employed in the lumber industry.

Mrs. McCauley is a graduate of Ashland high school and also attended Southern Oregon College of Education.

Missionary Group To Hear Speaker

The Rev. Samuel Cassells, returned missionary, will speak at the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church Friday at 2 p. m. It will be held at the church. The Rev. Cassells did missionary work in the African Sudan and in Ethiopia and it is thought his talk will be of unusual interest.

Mrs. George Wendt of Jacksonville will be guest soloist. Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer, also of Jacksonville, will lead devotionals.

Couple Celebrate 50th Anniversary Of Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Taylor were honored at a social meeting Thursday night following the regular session of Mistletoe Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, the date being the golden wedding anniversary of the Taylors and also Mrs. Taylor's birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor have resided in Medford for many years and Mrs. Taylor is a charter member of the camp, established about 30 years ago.

Supper was served from tables decorated with an archway of golden colored flowers with the gold wedding bell. A golden wedding cake was served.

In charge of the affair were Mrs. A. B. Shirley, Mrs. Nora Glascock and Mrs. E. W. Wakefield.

An announcement was made during the business meeting of a district rally in Ashland November 15. It is expected that a number of Medford members will be in attendance.

Officers' Outpost Halloween Party Is Held Tuesday

About fifty people attended the Halloween party Tuesday night at the Medford Outpost. The rooms were decorated in Halloween theme, and games and dancing were enjoyed. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

Miss Margaret Ruth Bolton, Miss Patricia Farrell and Lt. Irwin of the Medford air base were the committee in charge. Miss Norma E. Another of Ashland and Miss Gladys Smith of Grants Pass were out-of-town guests at the affair.

Today the Outpost will hold its weekly supper party at 6:30 for officers and officers' families. Mrs. I. E. Schuler, director of the Outpost, urges that reservations be made in advance.

Guest Honored At Dinner Party Friday Evening

Mrs. W. Garland Jones was honor guest Friday evening at a dinner and linen shower given by Mrs. Allyn Monroe and Mrs. Samuel MacCorkle at the home of Mrs. Monroe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Roberts, Crown avenue. Sixteen of Mrs. Jones' friends were invited for the affair.

Mrs. Jones, the former Julie Carpenter, recently returned to Medford to make her home while her husband, Captain Jones, is overseas with the armed forces. Her marriage to the captain took place last July in Texas.

BEST PHOTOS
REASONABLE PRICES
E. HAYDEN JONES
PHOTO STUDIO
PHONE 3364 — 607 W. 2nd
Phone number under name
Mrs. Fred Ball

Fur Remodeling
and Repairing
Reining, Cleaning and
Glazing
Frances Dalzell—Ph. 2528
Woodrow and Crater Lake

SOMETHING NEW!

Butterick

Basic Fitting Pattern

The foundation of it all!

Hear Miss Elizabeth Chapin, Butterick Stylist explain the use of the new Basic Fitting Pattern. She'll be in our fabric department for two days, Tuesday and Wednesday, to show you how to make fitting alterations easily and accurately. From now on, with Butterick's Basic Fitting Patterns as a guide, it's smooth sailing for home dressmakers!

MANN'S

November Fur Sale

Glamorous Furs

Warm, wonderful furs are essential to you. And it is essential to us that these warm furs have glamour, too! We've styled even our squirrel and muskrats with the smartness of beaver and mink. Whatever fur you have in mind . . . whatever . . . we can supply you with that coat.

Fur expert will be here all day Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday to help you select your coat. Buy now and for Christmas by availing yourself of our budget or lay-away plan.

AND HATS TOO!
Gay colored hats to wear with your fur coat. Styles that are flattering and easy to wear.

ADRIENNE'S

Brophy's

JEWELERS

WILL BE CLOSED WED., NOV. 8
And RE-OPEN MON., NOV. 13

GROCETERIA
NUMBER 1

Sixth and Central

OPEN TODAY

9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Headed for Stardom

FEATHERS! SEQUINS!
CRYSTAL and MIRROR TRIMS!

These Lovely
New....
GAGE HATS

Color-bright, excitingly smart; many of them are bewitchingly veiled. You'll love 'em . . . You'll want 'em . . . we have 'em!

$2.95
— TO —
$5.95

TAMS

In all the high shades, and in all sizes.
Just the thing for that new sport suit.

$1.75 to $2.50

Soft felts fashioned into beautiful turbans—tall and slender or short and puffy . . . flattering sailors with wide brims or narrow brims . . . head-hugging cloths . . . all of them discretely trimmed with perky bows, graceful plumes or sparkling jewels. That's what our new hats are made of! Come in now and choose yours from this elegant new selection.

M M DEPT. STORE

Pay Less and Dress Better