The county voted a special levy for improvements and construction of new buildings at the county hospital and farm. Frank Van Dyke and O. H. Bengston were named representatives to the legislature without opposition and Arthur E. Powell succeeds himself as commissioner, defeating Ralph Jennings. William P. Tucker defeated Fred Kelly for justice of the peace. County Clerk George R. Carter, Treasurer Ralph Sweeney, Assessor C. A. Myers and School Superintendent C. R. Bowman were all re-elected without opposition.

Home folks are now looking forward to the Armistice day celebration. The traditional parade will be held at 11 a. m. and other events will be the annual gatherings of veteran and patriotic organizations. A detachment of men from Camp White will lead the parade.

Medford's Black Tornado faces

Ashland Saturday in traditional Armistice day football game to be played on Walter Phillips field at Ashland. It is the final game in the southern Oregon conference and, win or lose, the Tornado will hold undisputed first place. Best Ashland can hope for is a tie with Klamath Falls for second if they beat Medford.

Al Simpson's Tornado made it six straight wins last week when they defeated Bend, 34 to 13, to continue their climb toward district 2 honors and a berth in state championship finals to be played at Portland December 2.

The growing casualty list has five additional names this week. Second Lt. Robert Coverstone was declared killed in action October 22. He had been stationed at a British bomber base as a B-17 pilot. His brother, 2d Lt. Lanar Coverstone, had arrived at a nearby base but a few days before. Pfc. John R. Brewer was recently wounded while serving in Italy with an armored infantry battalion and Pfc. F. E. Kruggel was slightly wounded in Italy in action October 13 and has been awarded the Purple Heart.

Lt. Don C. Stanley, navy fighter pilot, has been reported missing in action in the south Pacific. His brother, Lt. Harry Stanley, is also on duty with the navy in the south Pacific. Sgt. Merle W. O'Connor has been reported wounded in action in the European theater.

Rogue River has been awarded the silver star for outstanding heroism during the campaign for the Admiralty Islands. Two men serving in the south Pacific, Pvt. Reuben E. Mahler and Pvt. John J. Hubler, have been awarded the combat infantryman badge. Mark K. Miller has been promoted to first lieutenant at a bomber station in England and Staff Sgt. Leslie J. Corey is with the ground forces at an 8th AAF service command station in England.

Earl Gibson, ship's cook with the Seabees, recently sent his wife an entertaining article on "What is a Seabee" from an overseas publication.

Having graduated from advanced bombardier school in New Mexico, Harper K. Hamilton, Jr., is home on leave. He is a flight officer. His brother, Bob, has enlisted in the navy and is awaiting call. Bob Steadman is now taking officer training at the engineering school at Ft. Belvoir, Va. Arthur Straus has been commissioned a junior grade lieutenant in the navy and is now at officer indoctrination school at Tuscon, Ariz.

From Pearl Harbor comes word that Carlton M. Bismark is now a yeoman third class. John F. Dallaire, also overseas, has been commissioned a second lieutenant after three campaigns and Lt. Vern Kellenbeck is now flying FGF Hellcats from an Atlantic carrier.

Nancy Holmes SUGGESTS

EVERY now and again we all get a yen to break away from the same old seven and six and treat our palates to something entirely different. More than often, however, we don't know just what will satisfy our fancies appetites.

Nancy Holmes of the Best Foods kitchens says she will wager that the person doesn't live whose mouth won't water at the mention of light, crisp waffles. Served with sizzling broiled chicken, golden browned to perfection, and a Victory Garden Salad with real mayonnaise, who could ask for more? Well, maybe a dessert of lemon refrigerator pie and a beverage.

 2 tablespoons sugar 1/2 cup milk

YOUNG BURGLARS ARRESTED IN G. P.

Grants Pass, Nov. 10—Chief of Police Carl Dallas said today the robbery of Jim's Trading Post was cleared up last night with admission by two 13-year-old boys that they had stolen two guns from the store and had hidden them in a field. The guns were recovered. They had been wrapped in tar paper and were undamaged although buried for several days.

Chief Dallas, who had been named truant officer Tuesday, first became suspicious of the youngsters when he saw them out of school. Later the father of a school girl brought to the chief part of a box of pencils. The man's daughter later admitted she had helped one of the boys enter the Riverside school and take them. The boy, one of the two observed playing truant and the other who played hooky were questioned and admitted stealing the guns.
