CREW DESTROYS U. S. SUBMARINE

Washington, Nov. 14.—(U.P.)—The navy announced today that the U. S. submarine Darter was destroyed by her own crew in order to prevent capture after the vessel had run aground in enemy territory.

The officers and men of the submarine were rescued unharmed, the navy said, and are now at an advanced naval base.

Skipper of the 1525-ton vessel was Lt. Cmdr. David H. McClintock, of Marquette, Mich.

The Darter, which carries a normal complement of 65 men, was commissioned in September, 1943.

The Darter was the 33rd submarine and the 218th naval vessel to be lost in this war, the navy said.

Indian Representatives Most Talkative In Stating Position On Questions

Rye, N. Y., Nov. 14.—(U.P.)—A series of conflicts had developed at the international business conference here today, as deliberations entered the delicate stage on such items as cartels, tariffs trade, restrictions, and monetary matters.

Indian representatives, most vocal of the 52 nations represented, have stated their positions positively on most of the moot questions. Their statements loosened the mimeograph machines of the other groups which now are giving a hitherto starved press a batch of "copy" which is more than it can handle.

The outstanding points of contention that have developed to date are:

1—The so-called key currency plan which provides for stabilizing the dollar and pound sterling and linking other currencies to those two units. This is the reverse of the method proposed at Bretton Woods and has been vigorously opposed by the Indian delegation here.

2—Retention by Great Britain of its empire preference policy. This policy favors dominions and colonies against other nationals. The United States delegation, opposing this, has said that if the United States is willing to reduce tariffs Britain ought to discard the preference policy.

3—Cartels. The first meetings on this principal topic of the conference brought sharp censure from the Indians. The Netherlands group favored the cartel arrangement, while the British were cagey in their comment. The United States group appeared to be feeling its way, but it read to the conference the Kilgore report just released by a senate committee.

4—The place of the backward nation in foreign trade. India insists on rights to trade directly with the United States, instead of through Great Britain, giving the latter the dollar exchange involved in the transaction. Mexico wants to buy machine tools and machinery and not consumer goods from the U. S. as the foreign economic administration insists at present. South American nations generally want their place in trade so that they can buy our goods for their raw materials.

5—Blocked sterling balances which have been accumulated in India to the extent of $4,000,000,000 were brought up by the Indian delegation which hoped the conference would give them more attention than Bretton Woods did.

There are many other problems to be threshed out in the discussions which continue here for the remainder of the week. So far the arguments have been orderly and there is no hint that the conference will break up without bringing together the diverse opinions of the various delegations. No attempt was being made to work out a definite policy agreement which would be adhered to by all represented.

INJURED AIRMEN REVEAL GHASTLY STORY OF CRASH

Pasadena, Calif., Nov. 14—(U.P.)—Helpless because of their own injuries, two survivors of a C-47 army cargo plane crash huddled under a bent wing tip for protection against a driving snowstorm for more than 24 hours while one of their companions screamed in agony until he died, the two said today.

The victim's name was not released. Ten other servicemen were killed when the plane hit the slope of Strawberry peak in Angelus national forest during a storm Saturday night.

The two survivors, resting in an army regional hospital today after their rescue by army crews, were:

PM 3/c Buford Chism, who was the less seriously injured, and Cpl. Kenneth Bedford.

"The plane split in half when it hit the mountain," Chism said. "One of the halves bounced and struck the mountain a second time—it shattered into pieces."

Chism said that when he regained consciousness he heard Bedford yelling and by calling to each other, they got together.

They dragged coats and blankets from the shell of the plane and huddled together from the time of the crash—shortly before 8 p. m. Saturday—until their shouts attracted a forestry ranger last Sunday.

The agonized screams of a male voice continued until a late hour Sunday, he said.

JAPANESE FORCES TRAPPED ON ISLE

Pearl Harbor, Nov. 14—(U.P.)—American warships blockaded Ngeregong island in the southern Palaus today and apparently trapped a small enemy force on the tiny isle, the first recaptured by the Japanese in the Pacific war.

Admiral Chester K. Nimitz announced that approximately 200 Japanese armed with knee mortars and machine guns, landed on the island, northwest of American-held Pereliu, Tuesday night during a storm.

A small U. S. marine patrol stationed on Ngeregong was quickly removed in several American LCI's (landing craft infantry), and Nimitz said the evacuation was made without casualties.

The Denges passage, north of Ngeregong, through which the invaders apparently came, was immediately blockaded by the two U. S. gunboats and a destroyer.

Plenty of U. S. Fags In Canadian Hands

Chicago, Nov. 14—(U.P.)—An acute cigaret shortage prevailed in Chicago today but Canadian delegates to the International Air conference were doing all right.

One member explained that there isn't a shortage in Canada and that when a delegate went home he returned with all the cartons he could comfortably carry. Thus far the Canadians have had no difficulty with customs officials in bringing United States made cigarets here from Canada, one delegate said.

Philippine Government Returns Home

WHEN AMERICAN TROOPS LANDED IN THE PHILIPPINES they escorted Philippine President Sergio Osmena and members of his reorganized war cabinet to their homeland. Here is the first picture of the new war cabinet. It was taken in Washington, shortly before the invasion began, as the members completed plans to re-establish the government on Philippine soil. President Osmena is at the extreme left. The others (reading clockwise around the table) are: Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, secretary of information and public relations; Col. Mariano A.
