

Society and Clubs

Holiday Parties Planned By Many For Thanksgiving

With the approach of the Thanksgiving holiday plans are underway for the traditional celebrations. While for the most part a family holiday marked with family dinner parties, lodges, clubs and recreation centers for servicemen are also planning dances and parties.

The Officers' Outpost, the Markade and the Riverside USO have all planned dances and other parties and are making plans to have some of the traditional Thanksgiving "goodies" on hand for the servicemen.

At the Outpost there will be a formal dance Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Miss Margaret Ruth Bolton is chairman of the committee and announces that a number of special dances have been planned, including a waltz contest and a rumba contest. Assisting Miss Bolton will be Mrs. Jack Caton, Miss Nancy Jannariello, Mrs. Walter J. Bryant, Mrs. William DiGiacomo and Mrs. Royal Bebb. Invitations have been extended to all officers stationed both at Camp White and the air base and their wives.

The Thanksgiving dance at the Markade will also be Wednesday night. This will be an informal affair with music furnished by Al Jain and his Rhythmaires. Thanksgiving Day the center will open at 5 p. m. for open house and a buffet supper will be served.

A formal dance is planned at the Riverside USO for Thursday night between the hours of 9 and 12 p. m.

Thursday night the annual Fireman's ball will be held at the Oriental Gardens, with music to be furnished by a seven-piece orchestra.

Saturday night the traditional Thanksgiving dance will be given by the Elks lodge, with dancing to start at 10 p. m. Games have also been planned for the evening. The affair is open only to members and their ladies.

Auxiliary-Guild Plans Meeting For Tuesday
St. Mark's Auxiliary-Guild will meet Tuesday at the new parish hall at 12:30 p. m. for luncheon followed by a program and business meeting. It is stated that for this one meeting there will be no morning sewing session, but these will be resumed with the next meeting.

Gibbons Announce Daughter's Troth To Lieut. Muncie

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gibbons, Old Military Road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margery, to Lt. James Alexander Muncie, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Muncie of McLean, Tex. The wedding has been set for December 16 at Ft. Sill, Okla., where the officer is currently stationed.

Miss Gibbons is with her grandmother in Cleveland, Ohio, at present. Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons will leave Saturday for that city and will accompany their daughter to Oklahoma for the service.

Young Musicians To Be Featured On Club Program

"Young America" will be the theme of the program for the November meeting of the Medford Musical society to be held tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Boyle, 1019 South Oakdale avenue. The program has been arranged by Mrs. Roberta Ward Bebb and will feature Miss June Williams, soprano; Miss Nancy Swem, pianist, and Dorothy Gore Davis, violinist.

Miss Williams will sing two groups, the first to include "Care Selva" from the opera, "Atalanta" by Handel, "Were My Song With Wings Provided" by Hahn and "Danny Boy" by Weatherly. Second of the groups will include "As Thro the Street" from "La Boheme," Puccini; "Rain" by Pearl Curran and "Ave Maria" by Luigi Luzzi.

Miss Swem will play "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" by Rachmaninoff and "Rustle of Spring," Sinding, for her first group, and "Malaguena," by Lecuona, and "Le Papillon," Grieg, for the second group.

Mrs. Davis, visiting in Medford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore, is in Klamath Falls for a few days and her numbers have not yet been announced.

Assisting Mrs. Boyle will be Mrs. Royal Clare and Mrs. Clyde Webb.

Mrs. Danenower Wed This Week To LeRoy Whitney

Word has been received in Medford of the marriage on Wednesday of this past week of Mrs. Sioane Danenower, stepdaughter of James Owen, Siskiyou Heights, former president of the Owen-Oregon Lumber company, to LeRoy Whitney, assistant to Donald Nelson, head of the War Production Board.

After the marriage ceremony, which took place in Virginia, a reception was held for the newly married couple at the Mayflower hotel in Washington following which Mr. and Mrs. Whitney flew to Sea Island, Ga., for a two-weeks' honeymoon.

Mrs. Whitney is well known in Medford, having been a frequent visitor at the Owen home and also at the home of the late Colonel Gordon Voorhies and Mrs. Voorhies of Voorhies Crossing, Mrs. Charles Voorhies, formerly of Medford and now of Portland, is Mrs. Whitney's stepdaughter.

Chapter Visitors Are Entertained By Local Groups

Three visiting officers of the P.E.O. Sisterhood were entertained in Medford Wednesday. Mrs. E. N. Kaser, Grants Pass, president of the state chapter, Mrs. B. E. Whisenand, Bend, a state vice-president, and Mrs. H. C. Kavanaugh, Grants Pass, president of AG chapter, were the visitors.

Wednesday noon the guests were entertained by Chapter AA at the home of Mrs. C. H. Paske on South Oakdale avenue. Mrs. E. B. DeVoe and Mrs. W. E. Hoppe were assistant hostesses. That evening Mrs. O. H. Bengtson of Chapter BE entertained at dinner for Mrs. Kaser, Mrs. Whisenand and Mrs. Kavanaugh, inviting officers of the chapter and other guests. The dinner was at her home, 122 Oregon Terrace. Following dinner Chapter BE entertained the visitors at the home of Mrs. George Canode on Crown avenue, with Miss Ora Cox as assisting hostess.

Firemen To Give Traditional Ball Thanksgiving Day

Roy Elliott, chief of Medford's fire department, announces that the traditional Fireman's Ball will be given Thanksgiving night at the Oriental Gardens in Medford. The chief states that a seven-piece orchestra will furnish music for dancing between the hours of 9 p. m. and 1 a. m.

For a great many years the annual dance given by the firemen raised funds for their extensive toy repairing project, whereby underprivileged children were provided with Christmas toys. Since supplies are not now available for the repairing, the funds from the dance will be used to purchase Boy Scout campships and for other services for underprivileged children. Chief Elliott states.

A special ticket price has been set for servicemen, it is announced.

Medford Student Is Photographer

Miss Barbara Inskoop, sophomore at Stanford university in California has been appointed as photographer for the Standford Daily News. Miss Inskoop has worked with photography as a hobby for a number of years. She is also to be a photographer for the "Quad," Standford year book.

Miss Inskoop, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Inskoop, Hillcrest Road, is enrolled in biology at the university.

LOVELY-ALLURING-LOW-COST PERMANENT WAVE 59¢

Natural-looking curls and waves now yours, easily, coolly, at home. Do it yourself. The amazing Charmin-Kurl PERMANENT WAVE KIT contains everything you need, permanent wave solution, curlers, shampoo and wave-set. Safe for every type of hair. Praised by Hollywood movie stars. Over 5 million sold. Get a Charmin-Kurl Kit today. At any department store or 5 & 10¢ store.

Western Thrift Store and All Drug Stores

Grand Officer Is Honored At Eastern Star Reception

Central Point—Beulah Lauer Faber, Grand Adah of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Order of the Eastern Star, was honored at a reception given here Tuesday evening by Nevita chapter No. 93 of the order. The reception, given at the Masonic temple, proved to be one of the largest fraternal gatherings ever held in Central Point.

After Mrs. Howard Jewett, worthy matron of Nevita chapter, welcomed distinguished guests, members and friends, Mrs. Faber was escorted to the east while Mrs. Lloyd Morris sang a song in her honor. Officers of the chapter formed an honor escort.

An original addenda for the honor guest was given by Mrs. Orville Hamilton, Mrs. Wallace Freeland, Mrs. Perl Bonney, Mrs. Juanita McKibbin, Mrs. Leonard Freeman, Mrs. Granville Brittain, Mrs. Hensley Holt, Mrs. Truman Brenner, Mrs. Ruth Sawyer and Mrs. Julius Dobrot. Each officer placed a nosegay of blue pansies on a carved sword and the associate conductress draped it with the blue veil. Then with appropriate verses the emblem of her station was presented to Grand Adah, and Mrs. Freeland presented a gift on behalf of Nevita chapter and Central Point lodge. The addenda was written and prepared by Worthy Matron Gladys Jewett, Merritt. Swing presented the honor guest an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums from Central Point lodge.

Mrs. Darrell Huson and Mrs. William McAllister, accompanied by Mrs. Eva Marsh, furnished music for the evening. Each appeared in a group of solos and following talks by visiting grand chapter members, Mrs. Huson and Mrs. McAllister sang two duets. The program was sincerely appreciated by members and guests.

Each officer wore a white chrysanthemum with No. 93 lettered in blue, a gift of Mrs. Faber and distinguished and honored guests were presented white chrysanthemums with O. E. S. lettered in blue. This accented the blue and white color scheme used throughout the evening. Mrs. Faber wore a corsage of white rosebuds, a gift of her chapter. Chapter rooms were decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums tied with blue bows and low bowls of flowers of appropriate color were placed on each star point pedestal. A very special part of the decoration was the white flowered triangle which hung in the east, symbolic of Mrs. Faber's office. This was made by Mrs. Perl Bonney. Two candelabra of blue tapers flanked a background. Miss Lila Holt and Miss Patsy Faber lighted the tapers.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with white and blue flowers, flanked by blue tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Hope Wood, grand representative of South Carolina, and Mrs. Maude Hamby, grand representative of Pennsylvania, poured. Each service plate was centered with a blue and white hand-tinted doily and napkins were also hand-decorated by Mrs. Ellis Clark. Organ music in the dining room was played by Mrs. Lloyd Morris.

Mrs. Howard Jewett, worthy matron, was in charge of all arrangements assisted by the following committees: Decoration, Mrs. William Bishop and Mrs. Perl Bonney; dining room, Mrs. Ellis Clark and Mrs. Walter Grant; refreshments, Mrs. Hensley Holt, Mrs. S. Ryan, Mrs. Julius Dobrot, Mrs. J. McKibbin, Mrs. Ernest Scott and Mrs. Merritt Swing; seating arrangements, Howard Jewett and Orville Hamilton.

Distinguished and honor guests present included Mrs. Margaret Barnes, past grand matron, Grants Pass; Mrs. Lorena McNair, grand conductress, Ashland; Mrs. Maude Hamby, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Hope Wood, Medford, grand representatives; Mrs. Minnie Bullock, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Louise Daugherty Ashland, worthy matrons; Eugene Tardy, Grants Pass, Elton Waldron, Medford and Arthur Peters, Ashland, worthy patrons, and many other out-of-town members.

William Bishop, worthy patron of Nevita chapter conducted the good of the order and called on many of the visitors who responded with pleasing remarks. Next meeting of Nevita chapter will be men's night.

Medford Zontians Entertain Guests At Birthday Party

Medford Zonta club celebrated the 25th anniversary of founding at a luncheon meeting Tuesday, Nov. 14, at the Hollahd hotel. This was guest day and guests present were Mrs. H. S. Ingle of Ashland, Mrs. C. M. Hurd of LaJolla, Cal.; Mrs. Bren Starcher, Mrs. Lynn Cram, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. J. S. Anthony, Miss Vera Humphrey, Mrs. Josephine Jerome and Miss Claire Hanley.

Mrs. Margaret Fabrick gave a sketch of the history of Zonta. Mrs. C. M. Hurd, a charter member of the Medford club, told of wartime conditions at San Diego and LaJolla. A large birthday cake was cut and served by President Ilean Grigsby.

The club voted as part of its project to purchase chairs and table for the Y clubrooms.

Sharon Thompson Honored At Party

Sharon Kay Thompson celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary Saturday, November 11, with a party at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thompson, 820 1/2 Summit avenue. The young guests played games and were served refreshments from a table centered with a birthday cake topped with four candles. Sharon was presented with a number of gifts.

Present were Sylvia Mae Smith, Mary Ballew, Joan McCloskey, Elvira Greenwood, Gayle, Carol Linn and Carma Sutton, Barry Ballew, Arthur McCloskey, Hazel Darrow, Mrs. O. W. Ballew, Mrs. C. Marion Smith, the guest of honor, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Canton Auxiliary Gives Dinner For State President

Members of the auxiliary to Canton Siskiyou entertained the state president, Mrs. Viola Spencer of Roseburg, at a covered dish dinner at the I.O.O.F. hall Wednesday evening. This was Mrs. Spencer's official visit to the lodge.

After the business meeting, presided by the president, Mrs. Marie Hansen, inspection, mustering in of candidates and the address of the evening by Mrs. Spencer, were on the program. Mrs. Spencer was presented a gift from the Medford auxiliary. The state president left Thursday morning for Klamath Falls to meet with the group in that city.

Holiday Affairs Held By Lodges

Armistice day members of the Redmen and Pocahontas lodges, wearing the traditional Indian costumes, took part in the annual parade and a float was also entered in the line of march. Following the parade a covered dish dinner was held at the lodge hall for members and families. Cards were played during the afternoon and a dance in the evening completed the day's celebration.

Mrs. Ivan Jackson Chorry was formerly Miss Eileen Marie Zissenis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zissen is of Lawrence, Kan. Her marriage to Mr. Chorry, United States navy, son of Mrs. A. Chorry, 312 South Ivy street, took place October 21 in Lawrence.

Hartleys Hosts Tuesday Evenings At Supper Party

Col. and Mrs. LeRoy P. Hartley entertained Monday evening at a supper party, the affair being given at the Officers' Outpost on Sixth street. The supper party provided an opportunity for the colonel's friends to spend an evening with him while he was in Medford on a brief leave to visit Mrs. Hartley and their daughter, Mrs. Tom Martin.

Col. Hartley was stationed at Camp White for a considerable period and currently is stationed at Camp Gruber, Okla. He left Tuesday to return to Oklahoma.

Dinner Meeting Is Held Friday By Ladies Troop

Members of the Ladies' Mounted Troop held a dinner meeting at the Holland Hotel Friday night, with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Tuttle as special guests. The dinner, an annual affair of the troop officially closes the riding and drilling season for the troop members. Twenty-eight were present.

Following dinner Mrs. C. Lyall Fidler, captain of the troop presented Mrs. Tuttle a gift, making the presentation with several lines of original verse which she had written. Mr. Tuttle serves as drillmaster for the troop. Mrs. O. H. Bengtson, a past captain of the group, spoke briefly in praise of Mrs. Fidler's service for the troop during the past season.

Mr. Tuttle spoke, stating that interest in riding and in mounted troops seems to be on the increase for Oregon and enthusiastic plans were made by the group for another year of riding and drill under Mr. Tuttle's supervision.

Temple Officers Attend Meeting

Mrs. E. B. Price, Sunset Ave., and Mrs. Franklin Vannice of Grants Pass were in Roseburg Tuesday night of last week to attend a meeting of the Roseburg Nile club. Mrs. Price is recorder of Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile, and Mrs. Vannice is queen of the temple.

Also in Roseburg for the meeting were Mrs. Frances Hall, queen of Nydia Temple No. 4, Portland, Mrs. Theresa Castner, recorder of Nydia Temple and three other officers of the Portland group, Mrs. Thomas Luke, Mrs. Chidester and Mrs. King.

The group had dinner at the Rose Hotel and then attended the meeting held at the home of Mrs. M. F. Lawson.

Mrs. Price and Mrs. Vannice returned home Wednesday.

Fur Remodeling and Repairing

Refining, Cleaning and Gilding
Francis Dairies—Ph. 2525
Woodrow and Crater Lake

Church of Christ

1058 Court St., Medford
Announces
Evangelistic Services Through
November 22nd
Subjects As Follows:
Sunday Morning: "Have You Left Your First Love?"
Sunday Evening: "How to Maintain the Open Door."

Leland H. Knight

Monday Night: "Where Are the Dead?"
Tuesday Night: "The Last Judgment!"
Wednesday Night: "Heaven or Hell?"
Services Each Evening at 7:30 P. M. Sunday 10:30 A. M.

"We Speak Where the Bible Speaks, and Are Silent Where the Bible is Silent"

Quilted and lovely

THE GIFT
ROBE EVERY WOMAN WANTS

And where but Wards would you find such lovely ones as these at such sensible prices? The smooth quilted rayon is warm but never bulky . . . the skirts are wide and flowing. You know she'd love to have one, so why not select it for her today? Misses', Women's sizes.

1298

Ask about Wards convenient Time Payment Plan

117 So. Central Phone 3930

Montgomery Ward

Gay, cheery wools . . . warm and heart-lifting to wear under furs. We've one and two-pieces so you may choose the most flattering. The fabrics are exceptional at this price. Some are 100% wool. Colors: purple, fuchsia, pink, blue, red, green, gold, and black.

$10.98 to $29.98

WINTER WOOLS

Also select a matching hat to wear with your wool dress and suit. New shipment of beanies and Dutch Boy hats.

ADRIENNE'S

GROCETERIA

NUMBER 1

Sixth and Central

OPEN TODAY

9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

KIDDIES

—are a lot of joy . . . and a lot of work, too, for Mother. There are so many clothes to keep clean, especially when school days arrive. That's where American Laundry service comes in. We can take a load off Mother's hands by laundering the youngsters' clothes — spic and span. You'll be agreeably surprised how economical this service is, too!

BUY WAR BONDS

