

IRISH TROUCE NORTHWESTERN; MICHIGAN WINS

Minnesota Gophers Take Advantage Of Iowa To Score Easy 46-0 Victory

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Notre Dame, its pride and manpower severely jolted by Navy and Army the past two Saturdays, regained some of its lost glory today as a patched and fighting Irish football team defeated Northwestern, 21-0, before 48,000 fans in the 24th game of their traditional series. The Irish, hampered by the loss of three regulars through injuries, started five new men, of whom the most brilliant was freshman Jimmy Brennan, a skittish halfback who scored twice in the first seven minutes of the game to give Notre Dame a safe lead.

Starting his first game for Notre Dame and playing in his second game of the year, the 18-year-old Milwaukee, Wis., youth was the spark which revived the Irish touchdown machine.

Michigan Wins

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Michigan was a perfect football team for two plays today and earnestly futile the rest of the game, but these two plays were good for a 14-0 victory over Wisconsin which kept Michigan in the thick of the Big Ten race with one more game to go.

Approximately 20,000 spectators were still settling in their seats when Michigan's Bill Culligan went 84 yards to a touchdown on the game's first running play. Every Michigan man blocked perfectly and Culligan had only to pick his spots.

Michigan's second touchdown came in the final period on another smooth working play. He twisted away from four tacklers and dived down the sideline for 46 yards to score.

The rest of the time both teams tried very hard and kept the crowd well entertained—but they didn't play good football. They fumbled frequently—12 times for Wisconsin, three times for Michigan—and passed long and wildly and made long runs which were called back on penalties.

Hawkeyes Routed

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Minnesota combined speed, power and an effective aerial game to take advantage of numerous misplays by the young Hawkeyes to rout the University of Iowa here this afternoon, 46 to 0.

It was a dismal close to a disastrous Big Ten season for Coach Slip Madigan's club, which finished without a conference victory. It was the worst defeat suffered at the hands of Minnesota since 1936, when the Gophers pounded out a 52 to 0 win.

Cleveland, Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Ohio State university's Buckeyes beat the "ten second" seat backs of Illinois at their own game of speed, 26 to 12, before 83,627 fans in Cleveland stadium today to protect their perfect record and climb a step nearer the Big Ten championship.

The Buckeyes now need only to defeat the Michigan Wolverines in their season's finale at Columbus next week end to take undisputed possession of the Western Conference title.

Mississippi Loses When Star Injured

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—A leg injury which sent Tom (Shorty) McWilliams to the sidelines on the second play of the game ruined Mississippi State's offensive game today and the Maroons crashed from the nation's unbeaten ranks, falling before Alabama's Crimson Tide, 19 to 0.

McWilliams' injury made a one-sided affair out of what had been heralded as a duel between the Young state star and Alabama's passing wizard, Harry Gilmer.

HAPPY ISSUE WINS

Inglewood, Cal., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—C. H. Pinon's Happy Issue came from the outside as she went into the home stretch to win the $25,000-added vanity handicap at Hollywood Park today by two lengths.

Pimlico, Md., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Pot O' Luck, given a perfect ride by Jockey Doug Dodson, came up in the stretch today to nose out three other horses in a photo finish and win the $15,000 added Pimlico futurity.

METHODISTS AND CHRISTIANS WIN

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—A young fellow named Harry Mullins enabled Texas Christian University today to defeat the University of Texas 7-6 before a rain-drenched crowd of less than 4,000 and tighten TCU's hold on the top rung of the Southwest conference.

It was Mullins' conversion in the third period that won for the Christians.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Southern Methodist university toppled Arkansas from a chance at the Southwest Conference title today with a 29-12 upset on a muddy field, while fewer than a thousand spectators huddled in a cold, drizzling rain.

The Methodists played a sturdy brand of line plunging and capitalized on Arkansas passes that went bad. They made 192 yards in running plays to a mere 50 for Arkansas. However, in the air Arkansas chalked up 160 yards to 39 for SMU.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—The Aggies of Texas A. & M. college whipped a fighting Rice Institute squad here today, 19 to 6, in a cold rainy battle before 20,000 shivering fans.

PARENTS RECEIVE DE MILLE'S MEDAL

Posthumous award of the Air Medal, with three Oak Leaf Clusters was made to Staff Sergeant John W. DeMille, aerial gunner, Friday evening at the Medford Army Airfield. The medal was received by the sergeant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. DeMille, of 9 Granite street, Ashland, with Captain Otha M. Smith, commander of the field, making the presentation in an informal ceremony.

Sergeant DeMille was killed in action over Sicily and award of the medal was authorized by the war department in 1943. The parents also have received the Purple Heart awarded their son because of wounds suffered.

The DeMilles have another son in the air force now serving in India.

KANSAS BEATEN

Lawrence, Kan., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Marching toward its second consecutive Big Six football title, the University of Oklahoma defeated the University of Kansas, 20-0, before 4,500 fans here today.

COLGATE UPSET

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—In another of the major upsets which has marked the 54-year-old series, Syracuse's all-civilian football team scored early and often today to defeat Colgate 43 to 13 before a crowd of 15,000.

IOWA STATE WINS

Ames, Ia., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Iowa State knocked Drake from the list of the nation's unbeaten and untied teams here today with a 9 to 0 victory in the Cyclones final game of the season before a crowd of 5,000.

COLORADO WINS

Colorado Springs, Colo., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Colorado University's Buffaloes used three teams and part of a fourth to smother the Colorado College Tigers 40-6 at Washburn Field.

DUKE ROLLS ON

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Duke's Four Horsemen galloped again as the Blue Devils rolled to a 34 to 7 victory over South Carolina today.

BROWN-COLUMBIA

New York, Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Touchdown runs of 83 and 50 yards gave Brown a 12 to 0 victory over Columbia.

S. army may make to release Japanese who were lodged in relocation centers during the early months of the war, but announced that he has asked the military to "evaluate" the possibility of civil disturbances.

REBEKAHS STAGE DISTRICT 12 MEET, CENTRAL PT. HOST

More than 150 Rebekahs, including many state and district officers, attended the 36th annual convention of District 12 held Wednesday in Central Point with the Central Point and Jacksonville lodges as hostesses.

Heading the list of state officers present was Mrs. Ethel Bailey of Roseburg, president of the State Rebekah assembly. Others present were State Warden Suda Comstock, Baker; State Conductor Alma Cofer, Klamath Falls; and Louise Peruzzi, Ashland, past state president.

During elections Cecal Burningham of Ashland was elected district president. Julia Gregory, Medford was named vice-president and Alta Nichols, Ashland, secretary and treasurer. Other officers named were Willa McLean, Gold Hill, warden; Clara Vincent, Central Point, conductor; Grace Brownlie, Jacksonville, outside guard; Leah Ivie, Medford, inside guard; Evelyn Saures, Kirby, musician; Nellie Madden, Ashland, assistant musician; Marion Wilson, right supporter to president; Louise Peruzzi, Ashland, left supporter to president; Carrie Morand, Portland, right supporter to vice-president; Bertha Bateman, Grants Pass, left supporter to vice-president; Mary Ferns, Grants Pass, chaplain.

Seating of the new convention officers was done by the Ashland lodge. Inez Ferguson of Central Point served as convention chairman and Cecal Burningham, Ashland, as vice-chairman. Lillian Weidman of Central Point served as secretary and treasurer. Assisting with the convention were Noble Grand Bessie Fredenberg of the Central Point lodge and Noble Grand Zola Fick of the Jacksonville lodge.

Reports were given, a paper on member interest read by the Glendale lodge and a memorial service was conducted by the Medford lodge. Mary Ferns of Grants Pass, assisted by 12 members, presented a clever drill in tribute to the flag and Anna Meyers of Ashland gave the tribute to past chairman.

Mrs. Alice Ulrich of Jacksonville, who has been a member of the Rebekah lodge for 64 years, was present and gave a brief history of the Jacksonville order.

Ashland was selected as site of the convention for next year. Morning, afternoon and evening sessions were held, the Central Point officers being in the chairs for the evening session with Gold Hill members staging initiation.

Corsages were presented to the grand officers by members of the two hostess lodges. Music during the meeting was presented by Bessie Hubler of Medford who sang, her accompanist being Mrs. Marguerite Conrade, and by Ella Mae Gail of Gold Hill, who appeared in whistling solos.

WOMEN OF TRAIL FORM GROUP FOR RED CROSS WORK

Trail, Nov. 18.—A group of women from Trail and vicinity met Thursday at Rogue River Lodge to plan for a Red Cross sewing unit.

Mrs. Orin Schenck, chairman of production, spoke to the group on production needs and the recent conference in Portland, showing samples of slippers, pajamas, afghans, for hospitalized servicemen and apron kit bags for men on their way overseas. She explained that these kits are gifts of the Red Cross to every serviceman.

A new quota of 576 kits has just been accepted by Jackson county chapter and an additional share in the 100,000 recently asked of the Pacific area will be assigned to this chapter for January and February.

The group decided to meet once a week starting Thursday, Nov. 30, from 10 to 4 at Rogue River Lodge. Mrs. Montana Gilhausen was appointed chairman by Mrs. Bob Chamberlain, supervisor of sewing.

Mrs. Fred Rankin, executive secretary, spoke on new services of the Red Cross to P.O.W. families and returning veterans, of Red Cross classes available and plans on Red Cross Open House on Pearl Harbor Day, December 7. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Gilhausen and her mother, Mrs. Ranney.
