

LYDIA GARDNER OF TALENT DIES

Talent, Nov. 21—Mrs. Lydia J. Gardner passed away Nov. 18 at her home, the Golden Crest Orchard, near Talent.

While health permitted she was actively associated with Mount Ashland chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, the Talent Grange, the Rebekah lodge in Ashland and the Elks Ladies of the B. P. O. E., Ashland.

She was born in Centalla, Wash., April 2, 1885, and when a baby moved with her parents to the Rogue River Valley where she has since resided.

On August 14, 1912, her marriage to E. C. Gardner took place in Talent.

She leaves to mourn her loss a daughter, Barbara Jean; a sister, Mrs. Pearl Foster of Talent, and her husband, E. C. Gardner.

Kannapolis, N. C., is the largest unincorporated city in the United States.

GOLD HILL MAN KILLED BY TRUCK

Grants Pass, Nov. 21—Peter Selestino Valdez, 48, Route 3, Box 609, died at Josephine General hospital Nov. 19 from injuries incurred Saturday evening when he was struck by a Consolidated Freightways truck and trailer. According to the state police report Valdez had parked his car across the highway about 2 1/2 miles south of Grants Pass on the Pacific highway. He was not in his automobile when the truck, which was going north, attempted to pass his car on the left.

Just as the truck was about to pass, Valdez jumped in front of the Consolidated vehicle and tried to stop it. The truckdriver swerved toward the Pontiac to avoid hitting Valdez, but struck him about the same time it hit the car. The accident victim was thrown to the left of the road, according to Sgt. J. A. McJidding the report Monday morning.

Valdez was employed by the Southern Pacific company at Gold Hill.

DR. SOULE SHAKEN AS CAR LEAVES HIGHWAY

Dr. A. A. Soule, Medford physician, was shaken up yesterday when his automobile skidded on a sharp curve, about half way down the Green Springs highway, and rolled over a 50-foot embankment.

The car rolled over twice and landed on top of a pile of oak posts and trees. The doors jammed and Dr. Soule was pinned in his car for an hour.

He returned to his office today from a vacation trip.

LEGION FOR ARMY CONTROL OF JAPS

Indianapolis, Nov. 21—(U.P.)—A resolution urging that the American Legion sponsor legislation placing all Japanese in the United States under control of the United States army has been adopted by the Legion's national executive committee.

Leon Hoppel, national executive committeeman from California, who introduced the resolution adopted yesterday, charged that both American and foreign born Japanese were being returned to the coast by the War Relocation authority.

"Removal of these Japs from the Pacific Coast was determined to be a military necessity three years ago to insure the safety of the nation and conditions now existing on the Pacific Coast make such necessity greater than ever," his resolution stated.

ARMY SALVAGES TIRES FOR USE OF CIVILIANS

New York—(U.P.)—Each week 500 heavy tires, damaged in front line service, are cleared at the army tire base collection service, Fort Totten, for civilian use. More than 120,000 heavy-duty tires have been received this year. Fifty per cent can be repaired for civilian use, 25 per cent can be used by the military after repairs and the other 25 per cent are scrapped and sold.

The tire collection service was set up in September after the August arrival of 75,000 tires, nearly eight times as many as received in the previous seven months. Soldiers and civilian tire inspectors are working two shifts, daily, inspecting, sorting and classifying the mountain of 55,000 unsorted tires. A thousand are inspected daily.

SALE OF CIGARETTES HALTED IN BRITAIN

London, Nov. 21—(U.P.)—The sale of cigarets at United States army exchanges in the United Kingdom, with certain specified exceptions, was discontinued tonight because of critical shortages in the supply for combat units.

Excepted were the air force combat stations, hospitals, ground force replacement centers and rest areas, where cigarets will be sold only to air combat personnel, hospital patients, replacements and combat personnel in the rest areas.

TOMATOES RELEASED FOR CIVILIAN SALE

Washington, Nov. 21—(U.P.)—The War Food Administration today announced release of 41,274 cases of government owned tomatoes for sale through normal trade outlets to civilians.

The tomatoes are part of a total of 166,214 cases which are being released from government stocks and will be offered for sale to all tomato canners.

ASK RENO PROBE

Reno, Nev., Nov. 21—(U.P.)—Two district judges today joined the Washoe county board of commissioners in asking for a grand jury investigation of wide-open gambling conditions in the "Biggest Little City in The World" to "clear the air" of a recent wave of fights, knifings and disorder.
