Fisher-Dean Rites Held November 11 In Fresno Church

Announcement was made this week of the wedding of Miss Patricia Fisher, daughter of Mrs. Clara Fisher, 512 South Holly street, to Sgt. William C. Dean of Dayton, O.

The rites were read November 11 at St. Theresa's Catholic church in Fresno, Cal. For the service the bride wore an afternoon dress of white wool with brown accessories and a brown and white hat. Her corsage was an orchid. Bridesmaid for Miss Fisher was Miss Mary Ellen Sullivan of Fresno.

Pvt. Louis Mallone was best man for Sgt. Dean.

Following the service the bridal party was served a wedding dinner at a Fresno cafe and later the bride and groom were entertained at the Fresno USO.

Mrs. Fisher accompanied her daughter south to attend the service. Prior to their departure Miss Fisher was honored at a party given at the MarkKade where she has served as a junior hostess for the past several months. During the evening the bride-elect was presented with a gift.

Mrs. Dean is widely known in the city. She is a graduate of St. Mary's academy here and later attended the Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland. Sgt. Dean was stationed at the Medford air base until recently and now is at the Fresno base. Prior to coming to Medford the sergeant was on shore patrol along the Caribbean sea for a considerable period.

Mrs. Fisher returned to Medford Monday, having stopped en route home to visit a son in Pittsburg, Cal.

Visitors Leave For Canal Zone

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Davis left the county several days ago for San Francisco and Los Angeles and from there continued by air to their home in the Panama canal zone. Mr. and Mrs. Davis had been in the states for the past four months visiting relatives and were guests of Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ward of Talent.

While in the valley Mr. and Mrs. Davis were entertained at a number of social functions, including dinner parties and teas.

Mr. Davis is employed by the locks' division of the canal by the government.

Cuffels Announce Daughters Troth To Lieut. Hunter

Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Cuffel of North Central avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to First Lt. John A. Hunter, son of Mrs. H. R. Cox of Philadelphia, Pa.

No wedding plans will be made at present since the lieutenant is on duty in the south Pacific with the army engineer's corps.

Miss Cuffel is a graduate of Medford senior high school and later studied and took a degree at Pacific college, Newberg, Ore. She is at present on the staff of Timber Products company here.

State President Of Rebekah Lodge Guest In Medford

Ethel Bailey, Roseburg, state president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, paid an official visit Monday night to Olive Rebekah lodge No. 28 in Medford. Other guests at the meeting were State Warden Suda Comstock of Baker, Ore.; State Conductor Alma Kofler of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. William Reid of Center, Colo., and Mr. Bailey. Mr. Reid is a former past grand master of the Colorado Odd Fellows' lodge.

The Victory committee of the lodge gave a beautiful tribute to servicemen and women in the armed forces and the degree staff, under the direction of W. H. Dyer, initiated three candidates.

Mrs. Bailey told of her visits to other lodges in the state and spoke about the Odd Fellows' home in Portland. Mrs. Bailey is making up a fund to buy a station wagon which is needed by the home. Mrs. Ina Huson, assisted by eight F. L. girls, presented Mrs. Bailey with a gift and all visiting officers were presented corsages. Several visitors gave short talks.

Plans were made for the next meeting, to be December 4, when the annual homecoming will be held. A dinner will be held at 8:30 p. m. for all Odd Fellows and their wives and Rebekahs and their husbands. After a brief lodge session there will be a program and roll call. Carolyn Edwards, Emily Conrad and Bessie Hubler make up the entertainment committee for the homecoming meeting and Mary Cave will be chairman of the dinner committee, assisted by Myrtle Newton as co-chairman and a committee from the Odd Fellow lodge.

Dinner Is Given Saturday Evening By David Holmes

Present for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gifford and son, Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Byrne and daughters, Katherine and Rita, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Randall M. Gifford and children, David and Martha, the host and hostess.

Miss Birkemeier Becomes Bride Of Lt. Beeson

The marriage of Miss Joyce Birkemeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Birkemeier, Milwaukie, Ore., to Lt. Emmett William Beeson, United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Beeson, Talent, was solemnized Tuesday, Oct. 31 at the post chapel at Camp Robinson, Ark. Chaplain Sagen officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Birkemeier, father of the bride, was soloist and Cpl. Gibson played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory slipper satin gown with a seed pearl embroidery yoke and long fitted sleeves. Her full tulle veil fell from a Juliet cap, and she carried an arm bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert Rau, the former Jeannette Ross of Portland, was matron of honor. She wore an orchid marquisette frock and carried a bouquet of matching flowers.

Lt. Richard Birkemeier, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Lt. York and Lt. Mann of Camp Robinson. As the bridal party left the chapel it passed through a guard of honor composed of enlisted men from Lt. Beeson's battalion.

Instead of the traditional ride in a caisson, the bridal party was taken in a jeep to the Officers' club where a reception was held. Mrs. Harris served the three-tiered cake and Mrs. Maze served the punch. The young couple cut the cake with a saber.

Mr. and Mrs. Birkemeier and Mrs. Beeson went east for the ceremony. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. H. Bailey Hughes of Dallas, Tex., Mrs. Robert Rau of Ft. Smith, Ark., and Lt. Richard Birkemeier of Ft. Worth, Texas.

After a short trip to Memphis, Tennessee, Lt. and Mrs. Beeson will be at home at Ft. Sill, Okla.

The bride is a graduate of the Milwaukie schools and a student of Oregon State College where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, social sorority. Lt. Beeson is a graduate of the Medford schools and also attended Oregon State college where he was affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity.
