20th Anniversary To Be Celebrated By Phoenix Group

Phoenix — Phoenix Thursday club will formally observe the twentieth anniversary of organization with a silver tea to be held in the parlor of the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 28, from 3 to 5 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies of the community and it is hoped that all former club members will be present.

The club was formed in 1924 by a group of young women as purely a social club but due to lack of a civic organization in Phoenix and also a Parent-Teachers association the Thursday club became active in community and school affairs. Soon a library was started with the aid of the Jackson County library in a building provided by the town of Phoenix, and has been maintained by the club for practically all of its existence.

An active part was taken in school affairs until a year ago, the club members making school costumes and contributing to hot lunch funds. At various times the club has sponsored the local Girl Scout troop. Another project was that of furnishing a day room at Camp White.

Club membership has increased from eight charter members to a limited membership of 30 and meetings are held the second and fourth Thursdays of each month.

At present officers are Mrs. Floyd Barrett, president; Mrs. W. D. Barnes, vice-president; Mrs. Alton Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Robert Furry, treasurer. Other members are the Mesdames George Bourne, Earl Briscoe, T. M. Caster, Guy Coble, Alvin Coats, G. Drake, Frank Fairweather, A. H. Dudley, Milo Furry, Ray Furry, Walter Germer, F. E. Hallgren, Fred Lander, R. Montgomery, V. L. Quackenbush, D. Sloan, Bert Stockliffe, W. Steadman, C. E. Stockwell, F. Tripp, R. C. Ward, G. Turpin, R. H. Wilcox, and J. Wilson.

Mrs. Robert Carter Returns To Mexico
Mrs. Robert Carter and two sons left Monday for Ciudad Obregon, Mexico, to join Mr. Carter. Mrs. Carter and her sons have been in Medford for the past two months as guests of Mr. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter, 821 East Jackson boulevard.

Chicago Violinist, Student Musicians Heard On Program

Dorothy Davis, Chicago, violinist who is spending the fall and early winter months on the coast and who is being welcomed by a large circle of friends here, was guest artist at the November meeting of the Medford Musical society held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. John C. Boyle, 1019 South Oakdale avenue.

Mrs. Davis presented the second part of a program arranged by Mrs. Royal Bebb, program chairman, the first section having been given by two Medford students, Miss Nancy Swem, pianist, and Miss June Williams, soprano. Miss Swem and Mrs. Bebb were Miss Williams' accompanists.

Since leaving her home in Medford three years ago Mrs. Davis has been at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y., and recently studied with the late Sametini in Chicago where she was one of his artist students. Mrs. Davis has made many recordings and has given concerts in Chicago, Palm Beach and Miami, Fla., and in Grand Rapids, Mich. She is returning to Chicago in January to resume her studies. Mrs. Davis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore of Medford.

Mrs. Davis' numbers were: Second Movement, "Concerto D Minor"; Weiniawsky; "Prelude, Op. 34, No. 15"; Schostakowitch; "Beau Soir"; Debussy; Heifetz.

Mrs. Bebb opened the program with a talk on the program theme, "Young America." She reviewed the American scene from the standpoint of the young musicians and stressed the increased opportunities for study afforded ambitious young artists due to the influx of musicians from countries at war as well as the opportunity for professional talent to secure recognition in radio and on the stage.

Mrs. Howard Rutherford presided over the business session. Mrs. Boyle's assistant hostesses were Mrs. Royal Clare and Mrs. Clyde Webb. Next meeting of the society will be Dec. 18 at the home of Mrs. C. H. Paske, 1010 South Oakdale avenue.

State Rebekah Officer Is Entertained Here

Mrs. Fred Cofer of Klamath Falls returned to her home Tuesday after having been a guest in Medford at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Flemming, 311 South Laurel street. Mrs. Cofer attended the district meeting of the Rebekah lodge held in Central Point last week and was present Monday evening for the special meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge held here.

Prospect Groups Are Entertained; Son Is Honored

Prospect—Mrs. Viola Mallory was hostess for the Jantzer Girls' club Nov. 16. Business session was conducted by the president, Ethel Goode. Secret Pals for the past year were revealed, and new names drawn. The picture-song contest was won by Mrs. Goode. Refreshments were served later to Mesdames Dorothy Jantzer, Georgia McKillop, Florence Conger, Marjorie Broomfield, Velma Chapman, Rose Ditsworth, Hazel Haynes, Ruth Doty, May Dalton, Pauline Lacy, Fannie Snook, Ethel Goode, and the hostess.

Mrs. Rueben Moore entertained the Bumblebee club at her home Nov. 21. Luncheon was served at a long table beautifully decorated in the Thanksgiving motif. The birthday cake at this meeting observed the birthday of Mrs. George Jantzer. After the brief business meeting three contests and sewing were the diversions. Attending were: Mrs. Elmer Clemens, Mrs. George Jantzer, Mrs. Joe Dobbyn, Mrs. T. J. Richey, Mrs. Glenn Fairchild, Sr., Mrs. Floyd Kelley, and Mrs. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Jantzer entertained a group of friends and relatives with an evening party Nov. 15 honoring their son, Pvt. Ted G. Jantzer, who is home on a furlough from Camp Shelby, Miss. Zioncheck dummy was played and later refreshments were served. Attending were the guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jantzer, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fairchild, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. R. Ceford Garoutte and daughter, Glenda, Miss Dorothy Fairchild, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goode, Mrs. Elmer Clemens, and Mr. and Mrs. Jantzer.

Family Reunion Is Held At Trail

Trail—A family reunion was held recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory when Mrs. Mallory's three sons were home at the same time. Sgt. Lee Merriman was home after having been on duty in Iceland, Ray Merriman was up from Sacramento, Calif., and Guy Merriman and family from Grants Pass were also present.

While home Sgt. Merriman saw his son, born in October, for the first time. Mrs. Merriman and the infant are making their home with Dr. and Mrs. Mallory. The sergeant reported for duty again Nov. 18.

Eighty Attend Skating Party

About 80 persons attended the monthly roller skating party of the First Christian church held Monday evening at the Medford roller rink. These skating parties are being held the third Monday evening of each month and are proving very enjoyable affairs for the young people who attend.

Captain Hoppe, Guests Returning To Portland
Capt. Wait E. Hoppe left Saturday night for Portland and Vancouver after spending Thanksgiving here with Mrs. Hoppe and their children at the family home, 1806 East Main street.

Two guests accompanied the captain here. They were Miss Margaret McCarthy, executive secretary of Barnes General Hospital, Vancouver, and Miss Pat Whitehead, Portland, who was a guest of the Hoppe's daughter, Miss Katherine Hoppe. Both also returned to Portland over the week-end.

Capt. Hoppe is head of the department of oral surgery at Barnes hospital.
