

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Leaves for Astoria—Seaman 1/c Barbara Stone, daughter of Mrs. A. C. Bevan, King street, left Sunday evening for Astoria where she is stationed. She recently spent two weeks in Medford with her mother.

To Initiate—Initiation will be held during the meeting of the Eagles auxiliary Thursday of this week and all officers and members of the drill team are asked to be at the meeting in uniform. The meeting is set for 8 p. m.

Temporary Promotion—A United Press dispatch received here today said William Edward Winterstein, 1231 N. Riverside, Medford, has been given a temporary promotion from first lieutenant to captain. His local connections could not be immediately established.

Overseas—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Payton, Route 3, Morrow Road, have received word that their son, Pfc. Donald L. Edler, is now somewhere in France. He is a graduate of Prospect high school and was employed at Snyder Dairy and Produce company before entering the service.

Returns Home—Mrs. Walter Inch, her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Emmens, and the Emmens' children, Robert and James, arrived in Medford Sunday after a three-week visit with Mrs. Inch's daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts of North Hollywood. Captain Thomas Emmens is stationed in Italy with the medical corps.

Two Enlist—Two additional Medford youths have enlisted in the United States naval reserve according to Herb Crain, recruiting officer in charge of the Medford navy recruiting station. They are John William Clark, Jr., Route 2, Box 418, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Clark, Sr., and Bobby Alfred Schroeder, Route 4, Box 195, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Schroeder. Both are 17 years old. Clark and Schroeder are home on inactive duty awaiting their call to a training station.

Leave For California—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson of Central Point left yesterday for Burbank, California, to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Anderson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy, born November 26, in Burbank. This is their second son. Kenneth graduated from Medford High school and was employed for nine years at the United States Weather Bureau at the Medford airport. The Paul Andersons will stop in Oakland en route to visit Mrs. Donald W. Neilson and children. Lt. Donald Neilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Neilson is now stationed in the South Pacific.

Dog Problem—Several children have been bitten by stray dogs roaming around elementary schools of late, and the problem of stray dogs has become so acute that school principals will be forced to call city officials to care for the animals in the future, according to E. H. Hedrick, local school superintendent. Children have been requested to keep their pets at home, but there are still dogs that roam the school grounds whose owners are unknown, the superintendent said.

Inducted—The following Jackson county men were inducted into the army November 21, according to the registrar at selective service board number 2: Paul Eugene Atkins, Claude Wesley Johnson, Allan Pierce Colingwood, Delbert Merle Spain, Robert Nathaniel Ford, William Joseph Williams, Don Roy Elder and Wesley Glen Lematta. Alf John Brewold, Arthur Leroy Eichert and Carl Willard Scott were inducted into the navy on the same date. The following men were inducted into the army November 17 at Fort Lewis: William Donald Sommer, Jess Cummings, Kenneth Elvin Hood, Victor Lawrence Van Hoy and Orris James Johnson. Don Eugene Sears and Wayne Milton Turpin were inducted into the navy on the same date.

Special Meeting To Welcome Deaconess At Lutheran Church

Three special meetings have been announced for Wednesday at Zion Lutheran Church as the congregation welcomes Sister Mildred Winter, the first Lutheran deaconess to visit the church. Ladies of the church will meet with her for a waffle luncheon at noon, girls of the congregation will gather at 5:30 p. m. for a potluck supper to hear Sister Mildred explain her work, and at 8 o'clock the Women's Missionary Society will sponsor a special Thank-offering service at which Sister Mildred will deliver the address. The latter service is open to the general public.

Sister Mildred is the newly chosen field secretary of the Board of Deaconesses work of the church and is being sent out to the various congregations in order that the deaconess cause may be better known and that young women may get first hand information of this type of work. She has served for 13 years as parish deaconess in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Williamsport, Pa., with marked success.

Following the evening meeting a social hour with refreshments will be held.

MEDFORD GIRL SAID MISSING

Leola Faye Pool, 15, has been missing from her home, Route 3, Box 439, since last night, according to a report on file at state police headquarters. She made her home with her mother, Mrs. Dale Friend, the report said.

She is said to be five feet, four inches tall, weighing 130 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. She is thought to have gone to California.

The girl was reported missing to the police by her brother, Malborn Pool, 311 Ashland Ave., Medford.

At the MarKade

A real old-fashioned barn dance with real "fiddle music" will be given at the MarKade tomorrow night and to top the evening, there will be a box social. Mr. and Mrs. Skeeters will provide the "fiddle music" and Marjorie Hopkins will assist with the square dances. Modern dances will be mixed in with the square dances for variety. Hostesses are to bring lunch boxes for the social and anyone wishing further information should call the director, Mrs. Ruth Boyd.

Insects compose from 50 to 75 per cent of the food of shrews and moles.

Ida Dunn, Infant, Taken By Death
