Your Health and Its Care

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY, M. D. Readers should address inquiries to: Dr. William Brady 285 El Camino, Beverly Hills, Calif.

HARD TO PLEASE ANYBODY ANY TIME Honestly it is difficult to say anything that won't bring about as cordial a crack on the uh-uh as on the ow-ow.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of ... say thank you for your fine message of Oct. 11, wishing each child could take the pledge against alcohol or tobacco. We are doing all we can to bring this very thing to pass ... (Mrs. C. C. W., corresponding secretary).

I am a young minister in the ... church, and I want to thank you for your excellent teaching regarding the use of alcohol and tobacco. I am very much concerned about the increased ... (Signed)

So far we're happy about the whole thing, although I confess there is some trepidation in the back of my mind about the effect of a suggestion I contemplate making here for the benefit of the older folk. However, time to cross that stream when we come to it. Now comes a third letter from a woman who bears the name of a famous leader of women who died 50 years ago:

I have rejoiced in your sensible advice to young folks smoking and drinking, and your warm commendation of the W. C. T. U. However, I am amazed at your recent outburst—"I wish they'd drop the Christian part of the name ... for I know some of the finest mothers who are not Christians." In other words you'd like to have the W. C. T. U. bow God out! I'm sure I have read in your own column more than once "God bless the W. C. T. U."—but perhaps you didn't really mean "God." I wonder if you ever heard of ... as a Doctor would you say she was the finest nurse who cared for the patient until the most critical stage ... Your remarks do not indicate, Dr. Brady, that you know personal.

Raymond, who has been going with her for a year, popped the question on Thanksgiving Day and got her promise to marry him, Miss Velez said. "I am very happy," she declared. "Harold knows how to handle me. I've always been used to controlling men, but when I try it with Harold, he tells me where to go." Use Mail Tribune Want Ads
