On Leave—Ensign Manfred I. Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Douglas, Rt. 2, arrived in Medford recently on a short leave to visit his parents and his sister, Mrs. Allegra Green of Willamette street. Accompanying him is his fiancée, Miss Prue Hinds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hinds, Chillo-wack, British Columbia. Ensign Douglas has just received his commission in Chicago.

Bracelet Lost—A souvenir bracelet sent to Mrs. Leona Roberts, 539 Effie street, from her son, Pvt. Chester L. Roberts, somewhere in New Guinea, was recently lost on the streets of Medford. Mrs. Roberts will have her son send another souvenir from New Guinea to anyone returning the bracelet. Pvt. Roberts has been transferred to an ordnance company, according to a letter received by his mother. He writes that he has just had his first drink of cold water since coming overseas in June. His wife resides at 315 Bessie street.

Fires—Two fire engines were called to Timber Products, North Central avenue, at 2:43 this morning to extinguish a blaze started by sparks from a burner in the saw-filling room, according to the fire department today. The blaze was put out at 3:30 a. m. Minor damages were done, the fire department said. Monday night the chemical wagon was called to 412 North Grape street, residence of D. Cawsmill, to extinguish a blaze started by an oil stove, according to a second report from the fire department. This report also said little damage was done.

Sons in Service—Gunner's Mate 1/c Earl Minger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Minger, 2117 Capital avenue, left recently for the east coast to report at a navy yard after visiting his parents in Medford. He plans to visit friends and relatives in Iowa and Missouri en route. Gunner's Mate Minger served in the Pacific for the past four years. Clarence Minger, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Minger, is chief pharmacist mate on a ship in the Pacific. Alton Minger, a third son, is on a merchant ship in the Pacific and Staff Sgt. Clyde Minger, a fourth son, is with the army air corps in Italy. Miss Irene Minger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Minger, is working on B-29's in Seattle, Wash.
