Plan Observance Pearl Harbor Day At Luncheon Meet

Plans for the large open house affair which the Jackson Red Cross chapter will hold December 7 at the courthouse in observance of Pearl Harbor day were made Tuesday at a luncheon for which Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter was hostess at the Colony club. Mrs. Carpenter is general chairman in charge of the open house which will be held between 10 a. m. and 6 p. m.

The open house will accomplish a three-fold purpose, according to the plans. It will show the activities and operation of the many chapter departments and services, greatly needed volunteers will be recruited and gifts collected to be sent by the county camp and hospital committee for presentation to men on the high seas at Christmas time. Great emphasis is being laid on this latter project by the camp and hospital committee and everyone in the county is invited to contribute gifts. These will be added to gifts collected from many coast points and assembled at ports of embarkation.

Suggested gifts are shaving cream or lotion, comb and nail file sets, razor blades, cards, paperback books, handkerchiefs, ties, small games, address books, eversharp pencils, writing pads and pencils, soap, cigarettes, cigarette cases, oilskin waterproof pouches, snapshot cases or billfolds.

Invited to the luncheon were the chairmen of various Red Cross services and committees including Mrs. Rawles Moore, Mrs. A. Oren Schenck, Mrs. Gus Newbury, Mrs. Charles Stearns, Mrs. Harry Holmes, Mrs. C. Reese Braly, Miss Helen Bullis, Mrs. S. E. Phillips, Miss Vera Humphrey, Mrs. H. O. Colburn, Mrs. Maurice Spatz, Mrs. Don Newbury, Mrs. Mark Goldy, Mrs. Lillian Salade, introduced during the meeting as the new vice-chairman of special services for the chapter, Mrs. John R. Young and Mrs. John W. Horsley, representing the army Red Cross auxiliary, Mrs. Fred Rankin.

Medford Woman Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Albert Kenyon was honored guest last Monday morning when Mrs. Everett Faber invited a few friends for "brunch" at her home in Central Point. An arrangement of fall flowers of a deep rose hue and blue tapers centered the table and boutonnières marked the places laid for each guest.

Guests were Mrs. Kenyon, Mrs. Clarence Meeker, Mrs. Louis Kirby, Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. Charles Hopkins and Mrs. Elton Waldron.

Party Is Planned By Wenonah Club

Members of the Wenonah club will hold the annual Christmas party Thursday of this week, the affair to be at the home of Mrs. Walter Wilson on Janney Lane. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon and a Christmas tree with exchange of gifts is planned for the afternoon. Members are reminded to bring their own table services.

McKinney in Portland For Family Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McKinney, 537 Austin street, went to Portland last week to attend the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mrs. McKinney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Reinig. Mr. and Mrs. Reinig were married in Seattle, Wash., November 29, 1894. They have resided in Portland since 1904.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinney planned to attend the Medford-La Grande football game during their visit.

Women Of Rotary Christmas Party To Be Wednesday

Medford Women of Rotary will hold the annual Christmas party Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap, 35 Geneva street. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock with the traditional exchange of gifts from the Christmas tree in the afternoon. Members are asked to bring a gift for a charitable project as well as the exchange gift.

A program appropriate to the yuletide season will be presented. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. C. J. Semon, Mrs. E. H. Edgerton and Mrs. Kenneth Denman in addition to Mrs. Gilstrap. Members are asked to arrive promptly at 1 o'clock.

Visitors Leaving After Month Here At Newhall Home

Mrs. Dorothy L. Guthrie, former Medford resident who has been a guest of Mrs. Charles Newhall, Old Stage road, for the past month, plans to leave Wednesday for California. She will visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Guthrie in Riverside, and friends in a number of other cities.

Mrs. Guthrie, who came to Medford from Canada where she had been with a brother, will spend the winter in the south and plans to be in Medford again when she returns north in the spring. Until her arrival in Canada Mrs. Guthrie had been in England for a number of years and for five years served with the women's auxiliary air force.

While here Mrs. Guthrie was honored at a number of social affairs.

Plan Homecoming Of Rebekah Lodge Tomorrow Evening

Olive Rebekah lodge will hold the annual Homecoming affair tomorrow night at the I.O.O.F. hall. The Homecoming will be in the form of a 6:30 o'clock dinner for members of Odd Fellows lodge No. 83 and their wives and for members of Rebekah lodge No. 28 and their husbands.

Those desiring further information may call Mary Cave, 3066, or Myrtle Newton, 6569.

Mothers To Hold Annual Election

Election of officers will be held by the Medford Navy Mothers club at the meeting scheduled for Tuesday at 10 a. m. at the Girls' Community club. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Mrs. Charlotte Lehman, adjutant of the group, Friday expressed the appreciation of the group to all individuals and organizations who assisted with the project of supplying Christmas boxes for men of the marine corps stationed at Klamath Falls. Mrs. Lehman stated that the results were most gratifying, seven large boxes of games, magazines and other articles having been packed.

Mrs. Sleeter Returns From Visit With Son

Mrs. R. W. Sleeter has returned to her home, 1715 East Main street, after spending five weeks in Salt Lake City with her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Dick Sleeter and their infant son, Richard Lee. Richard Lee, first child of Dr. and Mrs. Sleeter, was born Oct. 14. Mrs. Sleeter is the former Isabelle Miller of Medford.

Dr. Sleeter is taking a residency at the Salt Lake City General hospital, his mother states.

Birthday Celebrated

In celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Ferdie Hubbard, Mrs. Edna Standley entertained at dinner the evening of November 29. Dinner was served at six o'clock at the home of Oliver Martin on Kirtland road to Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard, Mr. Martin and Mrs. Standley. During the evening Mrs. Hubbard was presented with a number of gifts.

Newlywed Couple Will Make Home In Eagle Point

Eagle Point—Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Whaley, Jr., have taken up residence here with Mr. Whaley's sister, Miss Rose Whaley, having returned here from a brief wedding trip.

Mrs. Whaley is the former Dessie Jane Wirick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wirick of Eagle Point. Her wedding to Mr. Whaley took place November 13 in Portland, the services being read at Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church by the Rev. Owen J. Beades. The bride's wedding costume was a royal blue wool crepe dress with matching accessories. She wore a gardenia corsage.

The groom recently received a medical discharge from the army.

State Inspector Of Relief Corps Coming Thursday

Mary Fern, Portland, department inspector for the Women's Relief Corps, will be in Medford Thursday to make the annual inspection of the local corps. She will meet with corps members at the armory at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Election of officers will be held during the afternoon and the meeting will close with a tea hour. Mrs. Fred Lawrence is president of the Medford corps.

Mills College Student Will Aid With Play

Miss Clara Daniels, sophomore student at Mills College in Oakland, Calif., will aid with the presentation of the annual Christmas play at the college according to a news release from the school. The play will be given Wednesday, Dec. 6. Miss Daniels is serving on the committee in charge of properties for the play.

Miss Daniels is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Daniels, 407 Park avenue.
