NELSON WINS TOP MONEY IN FRISCO OPEN GOLF PLAY

By Hal Wood
United Press Correspondent
San Francisco, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—Touring pros followed golf's rainbow trail to Oakland today after Byron Nelson picked up $2,666.70 in war bonds winning the 14th annual San Francisco open in a heart-breaking final round duel with M/Sgt. Jim Ferrier.

Ferrier blew the match on the 16th hole of the final round yesterday after holding the lead for two days. He was on the verge of making golf history, playing his heart out, but he learned what scores of other tournament perennialists have learned, that you can't waste a stroke when Nelson, the mechanical man, is playing for the blue chips.

Nelson shot his second straight three under par 69 in the final round to win with a total of 281, one stroke ahead of Ferrier.

Nelson's victory here, a repeat over last year, brought his winnings for the year to around the $44,000 mark.

Nelson's four day with Card was 72-71-69-69—281. Ferrier had one big day in which he shot a brilliant 66—but otherwise had erratic scores of 75-70-71—282. Second share brought him $1,866.70.

Tied for third place were Sammy Snead, Hot Springs, W. Va., and Willie Goggin, White Plains, N. Y., each with a 287, who collected $1,200 for their efforts.

Deadlocked for fifth and sixth were John Geertsen, Salt Lake City; and Fred J. Wood, Vancouver, B. C., each with 292 and each collecting $866.

Other money winners and their scores:

Craig Wood, Mamaroneck, N. Y., 282, $633; George Fazio, Pine Valley, N. J., $633; Harry Coper, Oahu, Hawaii, 293, $466; Sam Byrd, Detroit, 293, $466; Bruce Coltart, Absecon, N. J., 293, $466.

Art Bell, San Francisco, Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Philadelphia, Claude Harmon, Gross Point Woods, Mich., and Denny Shute, Akron, O., 294, $270; Bob Hamilton, Evansville, Ind., and Jimmy Gaunt, Ardmore, Okla., 297, $213; Harry Bassler, Culver City, Calif., 298, $173.

Ted Longworth, Portland, Ore., C. A. Collier, Dallas, Tex., W. A. Stackhouse, Texas, and Mark Fry, Oakland, Calif., 299, $73.

Top amateur honors of the tournaments were taken by Ed Furgol, Detroit, Mich., star with a 72-hole total of 296.

Roseburg, Dec. 5.—Transfer of Avery Berry, in charge of the South Umpqua district of the Umpqua national forest since 1934, to the Whitman national forest, effective some time this month, is announced by Supervisor V. V. Harpham.

WATSON KICKS 32 FROM PLACEMENT IN GRID CAMPAIGN

Bob Watson, place-kicking quarterback on the state championship Medford high school football team, booted 32 extra points between the goal posts in the season just completed, according to statistics compiled. The extra point, which is often needed to win a football game, was not necessary for Medford this year as they rolled through their regular season and went on to down La Grande 14-0 for the state title. In each case Glen Bostwick held the ball for the kicks.

His biggest days were against Grants Pass and Ashland when he kicked five in each game. Earl Barnhart also scored one point-after-touchdown when he ran it over in the Ashland game. Marvin Doty was leading scorer for the Black Tornado, making 12 touchdowns from his fullback position. Other scorers were Bostwick, 11; Jerry Clark, 7; Watson, 6; Plaskett, 2; Darrell Riggs, 2; and Barnhart, Jerry Hunter and Floyd Whillock one each.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX TO TRAIN AT TERRE HAUTE

Chicago, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—A year-old feud between the Chicago Cubs and the Chicago White Sox was ended today with the selection of Terre Haute, Ind., as the Sox spring baseball training site.

White Sox manager Jimmy Dykes termed Terre Haute training facilities "excellent" and said he would complete final arrangements with municipal authorities in the near future.

SINKE LEADS NATIONAL BOWLING ELIMINATIONS

Chicago, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—Joe Sinke, Chicago, was back in the lead with a total of 3,677 in the national individual match game bowling eliminations today after shooting a handsome 1232 series last night to boost him 35 pins ahead of Cpl. John Supple, Fort MacArthur, Calif., with 3642.

Supple bowled a brilliant 1259 set last night.

Cobb Picks All-Time Team And Ballplayer's Ballplayer

By Frank H. Bartholomew
United Press Correspondent
Glenbrook, Nev., Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—Who's the ballplayer's ballplayer of all time?

I put that one up to the man who is certainly the sports critics' pick as the greatest star of baseball, Tyrus Raymond Cobb.

The big fellow stood in front of his luxurious log home high up in the Sierra Nevada and looked thoughtfully through the pines out over the sparkling waters of Lake Tahoe.

"Eddie Collins," he said.

Could Do All

"And that was really a tough question. There were great catchers, great infielders and great outfielders. Mickey Cochrane, Sisler. All were fine hitters. Some had long careers and some short. Many had unusual ability to aid their teams in other ways.

"But for a man who could do anything—hit, field, run bases, and play real inside and brainy baseball—Eddie Collins stands in front."

To get the 1944-45 season of the hot stovers really under way I asked Ty who was the greatest hitter of them all.

"That would be Joe Jackson," he said. "Jackson hit with a full swing and at the end of his bat. A real slugger. And he was in there during all the trick pitching—the spitball, emery ball and all the rest."

On the subject of pitchers, trick and otherwise, I asked Cobb which one gave him personally the most trouble and why.

"All pitchers bothered me," he said seriously, a modest remark for the man who's lifetime batting average was over .300 for 3,033 major league games.
