ORANGEMEN BOOK WILLAMETTE FIVE

Oregon State College, Corvallis, Ore., Dec. 6 — With five straight wins to its credit, the veteran Oregon State basketball team has two more pre-season tilts booked for this week. The Beavers will wind up a four-game series with Willamette here Friday night and at Salem Saturday.

The Orange hoopsters are rapidly rounding into shape for the tough 16-game Northern division campaign which starts next month. Saturday night Coach Slat's men handed the powerful Seattle Coast Guard its first defeat of the season, winning by a score of 43 to 33.

Evidently all Jack "Howitzer" Simms, letterman guard, needed to get going was some stiff competition. After being ousted from the starting lineup for the Astoria navy contest last Thursday by Bob Labhart, speedy freshman, Simms returned to the first five Saturday night to pour in 7 points.

JACKSON, CHAMP PRIMED FOR MAT CLASH THURSDAY

Wrestling fans who like their mat cards on the rough side will be treated to an outstanding program at Medford armory tomorrow night. Promoter Mack Lillard has lined up three bouts, each offering plenty of rough grappling.

Heading the list will be the one hour main event between Bulldog Jackson, hunter, trapper and wrestler, and Gust Johnson, Pacific coast junior-heavy champion, in a non-title affair. Jackson, master of the stomping hammerlock often applied after gouging eyes, choking and other wild maneuvers, will have to stay out of Johnson's surfbord hold if he wants to win the bout.

Harold (Blood and Guts) Davidson will be up against a clever matman when he faces Herb Parks, Canadian champion, in the semi-windup.

Billy McEuin will return to the local mat wars after a lengthy absence, to clash with Tony Ross in the three round opener. Both displayed considerable desire to rough it up in their last appearances here.

The card starts promptly at 8:30.

Col. Roosevelt's Gasoline Outlay Rankles Editor

Hanford, Cal., Dec. 6 — (U.P.) — Use of three private planes for the wedding trip of Col. Elliott Roosevelt, his bride, Faye Emerson, and other members of the wedding party was under fire today from the Hanford Daily Sentinel.

The newspaper in an editorial headed "Was This Trip Necessary?" questioned the wartime importance of the flight of three planes from Los Angeles to Williams, Ariz., where the president's eldest son and the Hollywood actress were married Sunday.

Pointing out that "the colonel's party blithely utilized three private airplanes" and flew to Williams with Jack Frye, president of Transcontinental & Western Airlines, the Sentinel commented:

"One wonders how Jack Frye will justify to the office of price administration and the office of defense transportation the use of aviation gas for such a purpose."
