

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Fined—William Warner was fined $5 in city court yesterday for failure to stop his vehicle at a stop sign.

Sentenced—Olaf Redahl, 53, was sentenced to five days in the city jail this morning for being drunk on a city street.

Correction — Daughters of Union Veterans will meet in the armory tomorrow night as was stated in yesterday's calendar of events.

To Portland—Glenn H. Utz, Crater Lake avenue, is leaving tonight for Portland where he will transact business. He plans to return Monday.

Official Here—J. A. Ormandy, general passenger agent of Southern Pacific company, with offices in Portland, is in Medford today on business.

To Denver—Mrs. Charles P. Johnson, 109 Geneva street, left last night for Denver, Colo., where she will visit her son, Charles, Jr., who is confined in Fitzsimmons Hospital there. He was seriously wounded last August in England.

Kyle in France—Pfc. Robert F. Kyle, Jr., is now in France with an infantry division of the Seventh Army according to a letter from the serviceman to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Kyle, Sr., 609 South Oakdale avenue. The young man wrote his parents that he had been on a trip to Marseilles and that the French people were "kind and generous". The section in which his unit had been stationed was forested much after the manner of Oregon, he wrote. Pfc. Kyle has been in France since Oct. 20.

Trapped Doctor Directs Own Rescue

Trapped in his car by steel rods that have crushed both his legs, Lt. (jg) Robert Crossman, Navy medical officer, calmly directs highway patrolmen attempting to extricate him after his car crashed into the rear end of truck near Camp Shoemaker, Calif. Opiates were administered to ease his pain during the hour-and-a-half-long ordeal.

Price Corrected—A correction was announced by OPA today on the ceiling price of apples for the current week as published in yesterday's schedule. The list should have read, under apples, "all others, two pounds for 19 cents" instead of 16 cents. The mistake was due to a typographical error made in the Portland office, it was stated.

On Furlough—Pvt. Ralph Brook, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brook, 851 Palm street, arrived in Medford Monday night on a two week furlough to visit his parents. Pvt. Brook, who is in the administrative branch of the Army Air Force, will report to Turner Field, Albany, Ga., when he leaves here. He is a graduate of Medford High School and was employed at the California-Oregon Power Company in Medford prior to entering the service.

Husband Swapping Between Sisters Enlivens Divorce
Hollywood, Dec. 7.—(UP)—The torrid story of two pretty sisters who swapped husbands now and again plus details of one sister's love trysts with a movie star and an army corporal to-day enlivened divorce proceedings of shapely Mrs. Dorothy Gray Mahoney, 23.
Mrs. Mahoney filed suit for divorce from Fred Delbert Mahoney, 27-year-old navy man veteran charging he had made intimate love to her 24-year-old sister, Mrs. Lorena Bowers.
Lorena took the witness stand and said she never did any such thing and furthermore she had plenty of trouble with Dorothy "over her cheating on her husband."

More than 2,000 Waves are releasing regular navy men for active sea duty by performing essential tasks in the 13th naval district, including Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

RED CROSS OPEN HOUSE INCLUDES EVENING HOURS
Hours for the Red Cross Pearl Harbor day open house being held today have been extended to include this evening. It was announced this noon. Originally planned to close at 6 o'clock, the hours have been extended until 9 p. m. A demonstration by nurses' aides is announced for 8 p. m.
Hundreds of visitors are expected to attend both the chapter open house at the courthouse and the Junior Red Cross open house at the junior's headquarters in the Holly building. Visitors will bring articles which will be wrapped as Christmas gifts for men at sea on Christmas day.
This noon more than 30 people attended a luncheon meeting of the chapter board held at the courthouse. Board members and other unit and branch representatives came from all parts of the county to be present for the Pearl Harbor day meeting and open house.
Luncheon arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Lillian Salade, vice-chairman of the volunteer special service corps.
