

ALBANY LAB FUND BALKED BY HOUSE

Washington, Dec. 9.—(U.P.)—The house refused today to give the bureau of mines an additional $160,000 for mineral research work in its Albany, Ore., laboratory.

The amount had been approved by the bureau of budget and rejected by the appropriations committee. Rep. Harris Ellsworth, R., Ore., failed in an attempt to amend the pending deficiency appropriations bill to have the funds restored. He said the money was necessary to keep the laboratory in operation next year and that its work was directly connected with the war.

Committee Chairman Clarence Cannon, D., Mo., replied that
