

LOCAL and PERSONAL

D. V. A. to Meet—Jackson county chapter, D. V. A., will meet tomorrow in the armory at 8 p. m.

Returns Home—Royal Brown of Eagle Point returned today from a month's visit with his daughter, Mrs. Hazel Knight, in Santa Barbara.

To Farragut—S 2/c Marvin Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Williams of Ashland, left last week to report for duty at the naval station at Farragut, Ida., after a five-day leave at home.

Spotlights Stolen—Frank Rogers, Gebauer apartments, and Catherine Mayo, 802 West Jackson street, reported to city police that hand controlled spotlights were stolen from their cars sometime Sunday.

In Gold Hill—Walter Hinkle of Roseburg arrived in Gold Hill recently to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shoemaker. He has received a medical discharge from the service after seeing action in the South Pacific.

Minor Accidents—Minnie Ofenbacher, Jacksonville, and Edwin Lee Rawson, 307 Chestnut street, drove passenger cars involved in a minor accident Saturday on West Sixth street, according to a report on file.

Breaks Leg—Mrs. Annie Martin of Gold Hill broke her leg last Tuesday when the car in which she was riding struck a telephone pole in a heavy fog. She was on her way to Medford when the accident occurred.

In Medford—I. M. Moyer, former Medford resident, arrived here Friday on a short business trip. Moyer, whose home is now in Salem, is with the Plast-Kote company. He is staying at the Jackson hotel.

To Virginia—Cpl. and Mrs. A. J. Jayner left Saturday morning for Blackstone, Va., after visiting Mrs. Jayner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arnold, Arnold Lane. Cpl. Jayner, who is stationed at Camp Pickett, Va., was here on a 30-day furlough.

Car Recovered—A 1936 model Ford coupe, registered to Lee Marsden, Gold Hill, was stolen Sunday night from a street in Medford and was recovered near the Big Y market this morning, according to a state police report.

Reckless Driver—Raymond Edward Christie, Phoenix, a sailor on leave from Corpus Christie, was fined $15 in city court today on a charge of reckless driving Saturday night when the car he was driving jumped the curb and crashed into the residence of R. L. Bussey, 512 North Bartlett street. Damage to the house was estimated at $400, according to police reports.

Unit to Meet—The Oakgrove Extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Jack Rose, Janney Lane, tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. Lunch will be served at noon with a small charge. Subject for the meeting will be "Buffet Meals in War Time." Those attending are asked to bring a 25-cent gift for exchange and service for lunch. All women of the neighborhood are invited to attend.

Reports—Robert L. Stewart, recruiting specialist, USNR, reported to the Medford navy recruiting last Saturday to assist the local office in the procurement of radar men, Seabees and combat aircrewmembers. Chief Stewart will reside at 1310 West Main street. Mrs. Stewart and two daughters will arrive in the immediate future. Chief Stewart was formerly attached to the recruiting station at Los Angeles.

Announce Sale—A rummage and food sale will be given Wednesday, Dec. 13, at the old Rexall store, corner of Main and Grape streets, by the Dorcus club of Valley View.

Fined—Lloyd Pinky Byrd, 39, and Leon Smith, 45, were both fined $10 in city court today on a charge of being drunk on a public street. William Paul Maroni, 29, had a five-day jail sentence for being drunk on a public street suspended on condition he left town.

To Salem—C. A. Myers, county assessor, will leave tonight for Salem to appear before the state tax commission. Mr. Myers will appear at a hearing on the appeal of the International Business Machines corporation from the assessment set on their property by Mr. Myers. The assessor will be absent from his office two days.

Morrell Home—Flight Officer Harvey Mervin Morrell will leave tomorrow for Lincoln, Neb., to continue aviation training. F/O Morrell graduated and was commissioned at Luke Field in Arizona last week and arrived in Medford Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Morrell, 331 Edwards street. He is a 1942 graduate of Medford senior high school.

Health Insurance
The resiliency of your backbone denotes your age in life. If you would stay young and healthy a supple backbone is your best health insurance. A normal functioning spinal column provides for the normal flow of the life energizing energy to the organs and for the flow of the vital materials over supply lines. Our modern life makes many demands on the nervous system. The hectic hours of every day living call for greater nerve control than ever before. Normal nerve function will permit you to absorb the shocks of life with more courage and poise. The secret of nerve control will enable you to win the battle in "the war of nerves." Normal nerve function can be restored through mechanical correction, normalizing internal chemistry. This provides you your best health insurance.
