Unhappy Landing for Superman

This bruised and bleeding young German paratrooper was captured by American artillerymen when he jumped at night behind U. S. lines during early hours of the Nazi counter-attack on First Army positions in western Germany. Signal Corps radio-telephoto.

Old French Wine Cellars Hold Big Nazi Food Supply

Kansas City, Mo. (U.P.) — Those old French wine cellars hold more than wine, Yank quartermaster soldiers discovered upon entering the town of Cinq Mars la Pile, in northern France.

American soldiers discovered an unbelievable amount of German subsistence supplies stored in the series of wine cellars, officials of the Kansas City quartermaster depot reported.

A rough inventory begun shortly after occupation revealed that nearly a million pounds of canned meats, including beef, pork, sausages, hams, sardines, tuna and several stew combinations, were neatly stacked in branch tunnels.

Many Never Suspect Cause Of Backaches

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pain, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eye, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
