In a WORLD filled with WAR, where Hatred, Greed and Selfishness seem to reign supreme, another Christmas Season has come. Peace on Earth and Good Will among men seem to have temporarily vanished from the face of the earth. War has dimmed the lights of Tolerance, Freedom and Religion.

With the day of Victory, may the lights of all we hold most dear burn more brightly than ever before and guide and bless men of all nations and all creeds.

May this year of all years, awaken each of us to the task that is before us, and when Christmas comes again to the world, may there be Peace on Earth and Good Will toward men.
