

PUYALLUP, WHITE RIVER PLAN BAN ON JAP'S RETURN

Sumner, Wash., Dec. 30—(U.P.)—Members of the anti-Nisei "Remember Pearl Harbor" league today were on record as determined to boycott all Japanese returned to the Puyallup and White River valleys and anyone catering to them.

Nearly 300 members, some of them non-members, attended a meeting slanted at recruiting supporters, particularly from the ranks of servicemen.

"We are fighting an enemy—not a race," President Benjamin F. Smith, Kent, Wash., said.

Smith said requests for new units have come from Seattle, Tacoma and other western Washington cities. He said, however, that the press of business brought on by the impending return of Japanese citizens to the valleys probably will prohibit the formation of new chapters immediately.

President Harold Foster of the Sumner school board supported the right of returning Japanese-Americans to public education, "because the law concerning admission to schools covers Japanese as well as American students."

Eagle Point

Eagle Point, Dec. 29 — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newland were happily surprised Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Wm. De Priest and Mr. and Mrs. James Razor of Inglewood, Cal., old time friends, arrived unexpectedly, to spend the holiday season with them.

Mrs. Otho D. Gosnell of Lakeview, Ore., who was houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Henderson the week preceding Christmas, left Tuesday for Roseburg to remain until her husband, Cpl. Gosnell, who is the 881st Bomb Squadron on Saipan returns.

The Extension Unit Christmas party which was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Newland December 14, was a most pleasant affair with 38 members present. Subject of the business meeting was "Buffet Lunches" and was very ably demonstrated by Mrs. Clarence and Mrs. Wilfred Davies. The delicious chicken loaf and gelatine dessert was served for the noon buffet luncheon. Mrs. Newland had the rooms nicely decorated, with fir boughs and cunning little favors, also a beautiful Christmas tree under which the gifts were placed. At the close Christmas carols were sung, and each one was asked to tell their most thrilling or exciting Christmas experience as the gifts were given out. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. Robinson Thursday, Jan. 11, and the subject will be "Color in the Home." County Agent Miss Marian Farrell will be leader.

S/Sgt. Earl Harnish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harnish of Eagle Point, arrived in San Francisco December 20 from 2½ years' service with the 41st Division 186 Infantry in Australia. He was wounded in July and has been in a hospital since. He is in Barnes General hospital in Vancouver, Wn., at present for further medical care, but wrote that he may be home for New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson of Gasquet Camp, Calif., who spent Christmas here with Mrs. Gibson's mother, Mrs. Gustie Seefield, left Tuesday for home. Lella May Tibbetts, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Tibbetts of this place, was returned to her home Christmas evening, and recuperating nicely from an appendectomy.

Sgt. George Peachy arrived here last week from New York on arrival from France to spend Christmas with his grandmother, Mrs. Alice Daley before going on to a Spokane, Wash., hospital for further medical care for wounds received while in action last August 8. He was in four major engagements, Africa, Sicily, France and Italy. Words are so inadequate to express the debt of gratitude we owe these brave boys who have gone through with so much for us all but the best of all good wishes are extended them for an early return to health with the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harnish of Medford spent Christmas afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harnish of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Henderson, Eagle Point, and house guest of Mrs. Otho D. Gosnell, also Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ferren of Ashland and Mrs. Lillie Gilbert of Jacksonville were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Norris of Jacksonville Christmas Day.

Teron Taylor of Sacramento, Calif., but formerly of this place arrived here December 12 for a few days' visit with relatives before going on to Portland hospital to receive medical care. He has not been well for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simmons entertained four WACs from Camp White at dinner on Christmas Day.

Miss Dorothy Young is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young and her brother, Billy. She will return Tuesday to Portland where she is an army cadet nurse training at the Good Samaritan hospital.

NAVY NEW YEAR'S FETES FOR WOMEN, MEN IN SERVICE

A full program of New Year celebrations for service men and women in Medford have been planned by the USO, Markade and clubs at Camp White.

At the USO the calendar is crowded with parties and entertainment beginning Sunday morning with the popular Java session at 9:30 and climaxed with a formal dance New Year's night with Barnie Beaton's orchestra.

The regular Sunday supper at 5 o'clock will be served by the Lady Lions. A Watch party will be in full swing later, followed by an oyster supper at midnight.

At the MarKade New Year festivities began last night with a formal dance and intermission supper served at 9:30.

At Camp White the hub of activities is the Officers Club where a dinner dance for members and their guests will take place tonight. Other parties are planned at Service Clubs at the camp, including a supper and movie to be shown at Service Club No. 2.

FORMER CAMP WHITE MAJOR IS PROMOTED

Promotion of Major Clarence M. Jones, formerly stationed at Camp White, to lieutenant-colonel has been announced by the army, the news being received at Camp White this week. Col. Jones, formerly commanding officer of the First DEML and inspector general at Camp White, is now inspector general for the Alaskan Defense command, with headquarters at Whitehorse, Yukon territory. Col. Jones was stationed at Camp White from the time the camp was first established until last May. His marriage to Mrs. Florence Thomas of this city took place last summer and it is understood that his wife is with him in Alaska.

'DRESSED UP' SERVICE IS FORBIDDEN BY OPA

Washington, Dec. 30—(U.P.)—The office of price administration moved today to halt overcharging by laundry and dry cleaning establishments by forbidding them to charge higher prices for so-called "new services" that are in reality only "dressed-up" old services. At the local war price and ration board it was stated that laundries and dry cleaning establishments in Medford were operating under a price schedule worked out for the entire state through the state association. Surveys made in recent weeks by the price clerk of the local board found no infringements of price regulations in local establishments.

Sergeant Simmons Slightly Wounded

Staff Sgt. George Simmons suffered a slight wound during combat in eastern France some time this month, according to word received by his wife, Mrs. Dorothea Simmons, who with their 18-month-old daughter, Sharon, makes her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moore, route 4, box 379.

Sgt. Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Simmons, Granite street, Ashland, is in Gen. Patch's 7th army. The sergeant received a silver star in September.
