

NEW GOVERNMENT ASSUMES BURDEN IN HUNGRY GREECE

Athens, Jan. 4.—(U.P.)—A new government took up the task today of attempting to bring peace to hungry, revolt-torn Greece.

Among first problems on the agenda was the demand of the left-wing, revolutionist ELAS that the Greek gendarmerie and national guard be disbanded as a precondition for its own disarmament.

ELAS leaders already have signified their willingness to cease resistance against the British and other Greek forces if that demand is met. They contend that the gendarmerie and national guard actually are a private rightist army.

A British communiqué said "good progress" had been made by British and Greek government forces in clearing ELAS troops from central and eastern Athens, with a number of prisoners rounded up.

Regent Archbishop Damaskinos swore in the new government yesterday. Headed by Gen. Nicholas Plastiras, who retained four other portfolios, it comprises six more ministers and five "working undersecretaries."

(A BBC broadcast said the cabinet was liberal, but likely to be uncompromising in its attitude to the extreme left.)

D'ANJOURS GOING TO EAST MARTS

Shippers report D'Anjou pears, last of the winter varieties, are now going to eastern markets at the rate of 15 to 25 cars per week. The post-holiday lull is somewhat slowing the movement, the shippers report. Shipments will string along until mid-April or the first of May. Last of the Christmas gift packages were dispatched last week, mostly on late orders.

Orchard work is now confined chiefly to pruning, with many growers ordering their early spring spray materials.

A large portion of the beef cattle of the valley has been shipped to California pastures, County Agent Robert G. Fowler reports.

Turkey dealers say bulk of the turkey production of Josephine and Jackson counties, estimated at approximately 125,000 birds has been sold and shipped. Some plants plan to kill and ship the coming week.

A Lot To Do About Ground Meat

There's a difference in the pan-frying and broiling times for the various kinds of ground meat. Beef and veal require the same cooking time but lamb and pork take a bit longer. When two or more kinds of ground meat are mixed together, the time is gauged by the kind of meat in the largest proportion. However, when there's fresh pork in the combination it's advisable to follow the timing given, for pork must be cooked thoroughly.

GROUND BEEF AND VEAL

Because of their leanness, ground beef and veal are benefited by the addition of fat or liquid, such as suet, eggs, or evaporated milk. Eggs and evaporated milk also act as binders to help hold the ground beef and veal together after they're cooked.

Tests show the best results are obtained by using 2 eggs or 4 tablespoons of evaporated milk or 4 tablespoons of suet for each pound of ground beef or veal. 1/4 pound beef or veal patty, broiled or pan-fried, should be cooked about 10 minutes—5 minutes on each side.

GROUND LAMB

It isn't necessary to add any binding ingredients to ground lamb for it holds its shape when cooked. However, the addition of a little chopped bacon contributes a delectable flavor and adds the fat that is needed.

For patties and mock cutlets and chops of average thickness that are to be pan-fried or broiled, it is best to allow about 30 minutes—15 minutes for each side.

GROUND FRESH PORK

Ground pork is often confused with fresh pork sausage. The difference lies in the fact that sausage contains spices and seasonings while ground fresh pork does not.

A binding ingredient or extra fat is not required for ground pork because it is tender and juicy enough without any additions.

It takes at least 20 minutes for pan-frying or broiling of fresh pork patties of average thickness and it is important that they be well done throughout.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

CREAMED GROUND MEAT: Sauté 1 lb. ground meat, 1/4 cup finely diced onion, in 2 tablespoons shortening until meat and onion are browned. Break meat apart as it cooks. Blend in 4 tablespoons of flour, season to taste. Gradually add 3 cups milk, stirring constantly. Cook until thick. Serve on toast cubes, in pastry cases, in noodle ring or over steamed rice. Serves 6.
