Margery Gibbons Wed December 16 To Lieut. Muncie

Of interest to friends here will be details of the wedding of Miss Margery Bruce Gibbons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gibbons, Old Military road, to Lt. James A. Muncie, of McLean, Tex. The ceremony took place December 16 at the Old Post chapel, Ft. Sill, Okla., at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

For her wedding Miss Gibbons wore an ivory satin gown with embroidered neckline and long sleeves and her fingertip length veil fell from an embroidered Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was of gardenias and white roses.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Jean J. Gibbons, stationed at Astoria, Ore., with the WAVES. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Kearns, Shaker Heights, Ohio, and Mrs. Gall Hendricks, Los Angeles, a sister of the groom. All three were gowned in yellow chiffon worn with long white gloves. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations on green maline with green ribbons and wore matching flower headpieces.

The bride's mother was gowned in crepe with fuchsia sequins.

Mr. Gibbons has been ill and was unable to attend the wedding service.

Lt. and Mrs. Muncie are now at home at 310 H avenue, Lawton, Okla., since the groom is stationed at Ft. Sill. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Muncie of McLean.

Mrs. Gibbons is at present in Cleveland, Ohio, as a guest of relatives.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of Medford senior high school and later attended technical schools in Los Angeles.

United Nations Plans For Peace To Be Discussed

Details of a nationwide campaign of the League of Women Voters to interest citizens in the preliminary plans for a United Nations organization to keep peace will be explained to members of the Jackson County League of Women Voters at a meeting planned for Tuesday evening at the Girls community club. Speakers of the evening will be Mrs. Ralph W. Rasmussen, Portland, president of the state league, who this week will make a tour of local league.

Pointing out that before his retirement Secretary of State Hull asked for a "full study and discussion by the people of all countries of the tentative proposals for an international organization" the national board of the league has prepared to launch the greatest campaign in the league's history, officers state.

The league has worked to further a strong international organization to keep the peace for 20 years and the foreign policy item in the league program calls for membership of the United States in a general international organization eventually to include all peoples regardless of race, religion or political persuasion, for peaceful settlement of disputes with power to prevent or stop war," according to a statement by Miss Anna Lord Strauss, national president.

Mrs. Rasmussen will present details of the Dumbarton Oaks conference, whose proposals the national league has endorsed and will present three questions which the state department has asked the public to think about and discuss. These are: Should we join the United Nations now to keep peace; should the United Nations be able to use some U. S. military force against aggressors; should we try to solve such problems as trade, transportation and raw materials by United Nations action?

Famous Violinist To Give Concert In City Thursday

Joseph Szigeti, violinist, who has achieved world-fame on two rounds of the world tours, eleven tours of the Soviet Union and two decades of coast-to-coast tours in the United States, opens the concert season of the Jackson County Civic Music association with an appearance in the Medford senior high school auditorium Thursday, Jan. 11, at 8:15 p. m.

Szigeti is considered one of the world's great musicians and has been ranked as one of the three greatest violinists of the world, topped only by Kreisler and Heifetz. He made his debut in this country in 1925 with the Philadelphia orchestra, under the direction of Leopold Stokowski, and has since given thousands of performances in all parts of the nation.

The violinist was born in Budapest, taught first by his father and then placed under the guidance of the great Hungarian violinist and teacher, Jenő Hubay. When Szigeti was 12, Hubay had him play for Joachim, greatest violinist of the 19th century, who declared "he has a great future."

In recent years Szigeti has given a great deal of time to the war effort having volunteered for USO and army camp performances, played for many concerts for the United Nations relief agencies and is credited with giving the first "war bond" concert, admission being by purchase of bonds only.

Outside of music, the artist has varied interests. He has a collection of miniature furniture, a victory garden where he grew one of the biggest squashes and the smallest so-called "cherry tomatoes" in California, and a wild bird aviary. He has started preparations towards becoming an American citizen.
