Captain Sleeter Returns To City

Capt. Robert W. Sleeter, with Mrs. Sleeter and their daughter, arrived in Medford Wednesday to spend three weeks with the captain's mother, Mrs. R. W. Sleeter, 1715 East Main street. Capt. Sleeter, who formerly practiced medicine in Medford, has been in service four and one-half years with the 41st infantry division and spent 33 months in the south Pacific. His wife has been making her home here and went to California to meet the captain upon his arrival.

Mrs. Thomas Lewis Returns to Medford

Mrs. Thomas Lewis, Jr., the former Ruth Humphries of this city, arrived in Medford last Sunday from Buffalo, N. Y., to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Humphries. Mrs. Lewis has been making her home with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lewis, Sr., of Tonawanda, N. Y. While in the east Mrs. Lewis was employed as an army inspector in the Remington-Rand plant in Buffalo.

Cpl. Thomas Lewis, stationed at Camp White last spring, is now serving with the combat engineers in Luxembourg. Both Cpl. and Mrs. Lewis have many friends in the valley.

Flight Lieutenant Here As Guest of Kayes

Flight Lt. Harold Hoover of the Royal Canadian air force left Medford Thursday night for his station at Abbotsford, B. C., after spending five days here with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kaye, 724 West Second street. The officer, who returned to Canada last fall after two and one-half years in England, is now an instructor for Liberator bombers at the Abbotsford air field.

Mrs. Runyard is Guest of Medford Friends

Mrs. Don Runyard of Seattle arrived in Medford Thursday and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zacharisen of Beekman street. Mr. and Mrs. Runyard resided in the valley until Mr. Runyard's enlistment in the coastguard and in recent months have made their home in Seattle.
