AFTER "CAT'S EYES"—A favorite pastime of Superfort crews during their time off in Saipan is hunting small shell creatures found in the coral reefs. They dry the shells, then string them into pretty necklaces and braclets to be sent as gifts to the folks back home. Many came for Christmas.

UNDER COVER—These German refugees from near Saarlautern defied the Gestapo to evacuate their homes on the Franz Von Papen estate, wait for a meal in the unused mine into which they fled in their minor revolt. Note stove smoking behind crowd, which had been freed by American Third Army units. Also that most of them are women and children.

By C. D. Griffiths, Scoutmaster

Due to the paper drive Troop 2 has been asked to postpone the dance planned for Friday, Jan. 12 to Friday, Jan. 19. The Lincoln school gym has become a waste paper gathering place.

Scout George Lockett suffered a broken forearm in an accident Sunday. He is reported coming along fine.

Due to weather last Sunday the trip to the camping ground was called off.

Next Tuesday will be visitors' night for Scout parents. Everyone is invited.

Court of honor will be held February 20.

Members of the troop are again reminded to bring their Troop dues, R book and hand book next week, and keep in touch with Mann's store for uniforms.
