HEAVY SNOW IN HILLS IS HOPE OF IRRIGATORS

It was raining this morning at Fish Lake, according to a telephone report to the office of the Medford irrigation district, with four inches of old snow on the ground. At Four Mile Lake, the other source of water supply for the district, there was 26 inches of snow on the ground, according to the last report. Irrigationists of the valley are now hoping for a heavy fall of snow in the hills.

Heavy snow is reported on the ground at Crater Lake and Union Creek but with no recent new snow.

FIRE IN CRIB TO KEEP INFANT WARM IS FATAL

Canandaigua, N. Y., Jan. 12—(U.P.)—Efforts of David Coye, 3, to make his 13-month-old brother, John, more comfortable during a cold wave were revealed today to have caused the infant's death.

David told his mother, Mrs. David C. Coye, that he "put a fire" in John's crib because "baby was cold." He lighted a stick of firewood in the kitchen stove and placed it in the crib, he said.

The baby died in Memorial hospital here Wednesday night.

World Renowned Violinist Opens Concert Series Here

By Mrs. E. E. Gore

The Jackson County Civic Music Association last night gave the first concert of the 1945 series at the high school auditorium presenting Joseph Szigeti, world renowned Hungarian violinist, assisted by Harry Kaufman at the piano. The audience was the largest ever assembled here for a civic concert and completely filled the hall. The enthusiasm was unbounded and music lovers were sure they heard one of the great masters of supreme art.

Choosing as his opening number the Brahms' Sonata, No. 3 in D-minor for violin and piano, the artist introduced this monumental work, written in four movements, to our community. The people loved it. The music is stupendous in construction and of unparalleled emotional depth and beauty. The intellectuality demanded the refinement and finish of the artist's rendition and the satisfaction of his interpretation were apparent in every phrase of the exquisite music.

In the second group of contrasting numbers, the marvelous beauty and unity of Mr. Szigeti's intonation, his sensitivity to nuance and phrasing, and the well-nigh infinite resources of the violin as an instrument conveying human emotion were apparent in every sweep of the bow.

The E-minor concerto by Mendelssohn, more often heard than the Brahms sonatas and hence more familiar to audiences, was played in its entirety. The first movement is an ecstasy of joy in Mr. Szigeti's hands, the lovely andante, followed by the mounting speed, and intensity of the turbulent finale, brought hearty and instantaneous applause. The orchestra score as arranged for piano was effectively played by Mr. Kaufman who shared honors with the violinist in this as well as in the Brahms sonata. While he accompanying was completely satisfying he also showed in his solo work what artistic and mature piano can be.

The Russian numbers following the intermission were delightful with characteristic and nationalistic charm and verve. They were much enjoyed and elicited much applause.

The encores were: "Glaom's Dance," Dvorak-Kreisler; "Zepher," Jena Hubay; "Variations on a theme of Corelli" by Tartini-Kreisler.

The artists go from here to Eugene where they play Sunday on the University of Oregon concert series.

NO DIMOUT HERE IN COAL CRISIS

Washington, Jan. 12—(U.P.)—Shop windows and billboards in many parts of the country will be darkened next week by government order and millions of homes and office buildings are expected to lower heating temperatures in cooperation with a White House move to avert a threatened coal crisis.

Warning that a serious coal shortage is impending, War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes last night announced a drastic conservation program which he said was the only alternative to coal rationing.

Seth M. Bullis of the California-Oregon Power company stated today that there was little likelihood of the order being enforced here since the electricity used locally is not produced from coal.

P.-T. A. Activities

Eagle Point P.-T.A.

Plans were made for mothers to assist the Eagle Point school cook with the hot lunch program at the meeting of the Eagle Point Parent-Teacher association held January 10 at the schoolhouse. It is hoped that all mothers will aid with the project. A dish towel and silverware shower was included in the evening's events and the association extends thanks to those who contributed.

The evening ended with the playing of games and serving of refreshment.

Dell Crowl Sends Box Of Souvenirs From German Base

A package of interesting souvenirs and presents has been received in Medford by Mr. and Mrs. L. Crowl, 525 South Central avenue, from their son, T. Sgt. Dell Crowl, stationed somewhere in Germany.

In the package were a jewel case made of shells, a handkerchief case made from colored reefs braided in squares, and what the sergeant termed a "rum barrel." The china barrel has six little mugs and with it a figurine of a drunken man with a tall hat, the hat holding the bung for the barrel. The package also held a pair of china love-birds.

Sgt. Crowl has been overseas for two years, being stationed first in Sicily, Italy and England. He participated in the D-Day Normandy invasion. He is a cook with an infantry unit.
