and at 1:05 p. m. she will present the Medford High school sextet in several numbers. Unit reports will be given during the morning session and all of Jackson county's 23 units are urged to have delegates in attendance. The Oak Grove unit will serve coffee during the noon hour and everyone is asked to bring a sac klunch. The meeting will begin at 10 a. m. and adjourn at 3 p. m.

The public is invited to hear the panel discussion.

A Red Cross representative will speak on "Accident Prevention in the Home" at the January meeting of the Junior High School Parent-Teacher association planned for Thursday. The group meets in room 41 of the school at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Ivan Davies will preside. A social hour follows the meeting and officers point out that this provides an excellent opportunity for parents to meet other parents and teachers of the school.

Reames Chapter Ceremonies Held Thursday Night

During candlelight ceremonies in the Masonic Temple Thursday evening Mrs. Amelia Hiles was installed worthy matron and Elton Waldron was installed worthy patron of Reames Chapter No. 66, O.E.S. Mrs. Hope Woods is the retiring matron.

Also installed were Edward Root, associate patron; Hattie Alden, secretary; Ethel Coverstone, treasurer; Della Denny, conductress; Esther Turpin, associate conductress; Mabel Jewett, marshal; Ethel Root, chaplain; Grace Pankey, organist; Muriel Preston, Adah; Audrey Miles, Ruth; Mary Lee Strang, Esther; Margaret Halvorsen, Martha; Francis Zundell, Electa; Elsie Strang, warder; Mals Ettinger, sentinel.

Installing officers for the evening were Clair Norris, worthy installing matron and Aubrey Norris, worthy installing patron. Assisting them were Ruth Freed, marshal; Angie Ray, chaplain, and Myrna Frink, organist.

Heather, large baskets of red-wood ferns and bronze candelabra holding tapers of the five Eastern Star colors, decorated the hall. The candles were lighted at the opening of the installation by the courtesy girls, Glenna Hale, Mabel Nitzel and Ella Lyster. Other courtesy girls introduced were Melvina Little and Ruth Stewart.

For the ceremonies Mrs. Hiles wore a gown of turquoise blue chiffon. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid and ribbon streamers.

Solos were sung by Pauline Bush, accompanied by Katherine Morris, accompanied by Evelyn Crain. Harry Young sang the Lord's Prayer, accompanied by Eva Marsh. The ceremonies closed with a benediction by H. F. W. Spilver.

Refreshments were served to about 250 members and friends.

47 INCHES SNOW AT CRATER LAKE

Acting Chief Park Ranger Clyde E. Gilbert, accompanied by W. T. Frost, hydraulic engineer for the soil conservation service, and Robert Gober of Klamath Falls made a ski trip to Crater Lake last week to measure the depth of snow and water content on the snow courses and to secure readings on the discharge from Annic Spring.

At Annie Spring the snow depth was 41.2 inches with a water content of 13.2 inches, or 32%. The ground was very mushy. At Park Headquarters the snow was 47.1 inches with a water content of 14.7 inches, and the ground was very wet. Last year on January 26, according to figures given by Park Superintendent E. P. Leavitt, the snow depth was 35 inches with a water content of 10 inches. However, in 1943, on January 27, the snow depth at Annie Spring was 114 inches with a water content of 40 inches.

Look Your Loveliest in these Pretty

Cottons

Wear them around the house—wear them to market—wear them when you're spending an afternoon with the girls... or boys. They're pretty, pert, flattering,—and above all washable! They're ready, willing and able to take over day in and day out—you keep you looking as fresh as a daisy.

WASHABLE COMBED YARN SANFORIZED CHANDRAY IN SOLID COLORS

SanfORIZED and all set to be your Spring and Summer standby, is this JUVIE HUBRITTE charm. The extra-softness of the wavy-rolling collar and deep pockets is brought out by cut-out eyelid embroidery in a lovely elongated scroll design. The waistline of the cut-dress front is emphasized with a neck-on-beam row of buttons. The skirt, cleverly shirred at the waistline, is lined front and back for smooth fit. This is the kind of dress that lends itself to wear, luncheon, career, or home life with equal aplomb. Have it now for all-season wear. Sizes 12 to 20 and 28 to 42 in length. Colors, Gold, Aqua, Red and Blue.

IN SANFORIZED NOVELTY SHADOW CHECK GINGHAMS, WASHABLE

Born for action, and dashing as your favorite officer's uniform this youthful Shirazma Classic, with crisp, clean, easy-to-wear lines that are carefully Hubrite-colored in an eye. There's a world of charm in the convertible V-necked collar that tops off the sanfORIZED semi-cut front, smartly rounded by the neat stitched see-in belt. A smooth pleat takes over where the cut-front ends. There's a gay parade of cut-out square-circle buttons down the front of this year number. Extra little details are bias shoulder straps of self-material that drop from the shoulders and double stitching that picks up the vibrant color of the plaid. Sizes 12 to 20 in Royal and Wine, Brown and Gold, Gray and Wine.
