

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Club To Meet—Jacksonville Home Economics club will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer.

Fined—Encarnacion Solis, a Mexican, jailed Sunday night for being drunk in a public place, was given five days suspended sentence in local court.

Draft Delinquent—Lee Turner, 18-year-old farm laborer, was reported delinquent to U. S. district attorney today in filing a change of address with his local draft board number 1, Medford.

To Washington—Miss Janie Smith of the Rogue River National Forest service left Saturday for Wind River, near Stephenson, Wash., where she will attend a conference of administrative assistants of the forest service.

Picked Up—Four Camp White soldiers were turned over to military police early today after city police picked them up riding in a vehicle registered to J. C. Waite of Grants Pass and reported stolen from Grants Pass Sunday night.

Grandson Wounded—Mrs. Mary Hiatt of Eagle Point has received word that her grandson, Pvt. Joel Edward Abbott, has been wounded while serving with an infantry unit in France. Pvt. Abbott is the son of Mrs. Marie Abbott of Portland.

Here On Business—John Tomlin arrived in Medford a few days ago on business and will remain for two or three weeks at Hotel Medford where he is a guest. Mr. Tomlin is the former head of the Timber Products Co. here, moving to Los Angeles about four years ago.

To Salem—Mayor Clarence A. Meeker and Frank Farrell, city attorney, left last night for Salem where they will attend a meeting of the League of Oregon Cities and sessions of the Oregon state legislature. Farrell will return Wednesday while Mayor Meeker plans to remain for the entire week.

Receive Permits—Building permits were issued today by the city superintendent to Anna Lindley, 806 North Riverside avenue, to build a garage extension at an estimated $100 cost, and to J. C. Cass, to erect a repair shop at his residence, 1118 South Riverside avenue at a cost estimated at $200.

To Grants Pass—Mrs. Robert Young is visiting in Grants Pass as the houseguest of Shiplee and Linda Anderson who are well known in Medford. Mrs. Young, formerly Ruth Nordwick, is the daughter of Mrs. H. F. Nordwick of 919 Reddy street. Her husband is a marine flier stationed somewhere in the European theater of operations.

Traffic Accident—An accident report was filed today by R. L. Sutherland of route 1, after he was involved earlier in a minor collision with a pickup truck owned by the Rogue River Orchards at the West 11th and Peach streets intersections. Driver of the truck was not immediately known according to the report, but damage was reported as minor.

Couple To Leave—First Lt. and Mrs. Larry Schade, Jr., will leave Medford Thursday for Salem where they will visit with Mrs. Schade's mother, Mrs. Sylvia Shreve. Later they will go to Santa Monica, Calif., where Lt. Schade will report for reassignment. Lt. Schade, AAF pilot, recently returned to this country after nearly a year's service in the South Pacific and for the past several days has been at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schade, Sr., 889 South Oakdale avenue.

NERVE CONTROL
Nerve control is important in life. It often enables an obscure person to become a champion or master of his calling. It will enable you to do your work better and more easily through greater concentration and coordination. Normal nerve function makes you master, rather than slave, to your emotions. Structural integrity must be restored for free nerve action. Regain your self-control through proper care of your nerves. Make your work in life easier. See that your nerves are free to function. Do this by employment of Chiropractic and Naturopathic sciences.

JUNIOR CHAMBER DIRECTORS MAKE BANQUET PLANS

Board of directors of the Medford junior chamber of commerce met at a 7 o'clock breakfast today to draw up final plans for their banquet to be held at USO January 20. Lofton Tatum, state president, will give the main address, speaking on "Young Men and Their Part in War and Peace."

A dance will be given at Medford hotel following the banquet and chamber officials expect 300 junior chamber members, their wives, and citizens of Medford to be present. Bill Chrysler is in charge of ticket sales.

Medford's outstanding junior citizen will be announced at the banquet and the club will be presented with its charter.

Regular semi-monthly meeting will be held at the Jackson county Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night at 7:30.

SUPERFORTS, JAP FIGHTERS BATTLE

A B-29 Base, Saipan, Jan. 15 (ELT)—Via Navy Radio—(U.P.)—B-29 pilots, returning from a successful flight yesterday over the principal Japanese aircraft center of Nagoya, reported today that they encountered heavy fighter opposition on the part of enemy pilots who "really know how to fly."

Staging a giant air battle against the fighters, the Superforts destroyed at least 13 Japanese planes, probably destroyed 19 and damaged 10.

OBITUARY

Jesse C. Mathews
Jesse C. Mathews, 65, a resident of this community for the past 15 years, passed away in a local hospital early Monday.

Services will be held in the Conger-Morris chapel at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday with the Rev. Delbert Daniels officiating. Interment will be in I.O.O.F. cemetery.

OSA ARNOLD
Services for Miss Osa Arnold, 36, who passed away in Salem, Saturday, will be held in the Conger-Morris chapel at 1 p. m. Wednesday with the Rev. Delbert Daniels officiating. Interment will be in the Jacksonville cemetery.

She was born in the Applegate district, Nov. 18, 1875, moving to Salem about 13 years ago. She is survived by four brothers, Alex L., Medford; Fred, Applegate, and Jim and Melvin, Butte Falls. There are also two sisters, Mrs. True Lewis, Snohomish, Wash., and Mrs. Charles Pidgeon, Salem, Iowa.

FIND OWN FINGERPRINT
Kansas City (U.P.)—After the robbery of a small restaurant here, police excited to find a series of distinct fingerprints along the counter beside the cash register. They were identified easily, but the exultation ceased. The prints included only those of the proprietor and several members of the police force who ate at the establishment, across the street from their precinct station.

PRICE OF POLITICS
Portland, Me.—(U.P.)—When he decided to enter politics, Maine's Gov.-elect Horace Hildreth shaved his mustache so voters could distinguish him from his twin brother Charles.

PATRIOTIC CORN
Elizabethtown, Ill.—(U.P.)—Austin Hurford of Elizabethtown grew some patriotic corn this year. He picked three ears, each of which had red, white and blue kernels.

SPOTTED—But not dotted was Nanette Parks, 18-year-old daughter of District Judge Clayton Parks, of St. Paul, Minn. A judicious talent scout for Columbia studio did the spotting at the Pasadena Community Playhouse, and signed her up. Now she's a starlet in Hollywood.

Fala Disappears; Expected To Come Home With Bride

Washington, Jan. 15—(U.P.)—It's official now. Somewhere, there's a Mrs. Fala.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt revealed yesterday in response to inquiries by a group of veterans she was showing through the White House, that the president's little black Scottie—who will be five years old in March—was away for the week-end and "we hope he's having a wedding." She wouldn't say where or to whom.

Rumors have cropped up from time to time that the nation's most famous canine was being mated, but heretofore the reports have met only denials.

RUSSIANS STUDY IN U.S.
New York (U.P.)—Eighteen men and three women from the Soviet Union are enrolled at Columbia University, studying extension courses in English, American history and government, United States geography and American life and problems. The group, several of whom are war veterans, arrived in this country via Seattle and plan to leave in the spring.

HIGH SCHOOL AIDS FARMERS
Boonville, Ind.—(U.P.)—The Boonville high school came to the rescue of the Warrick county farmers by granting them permission to use the school's vocational shop to prepare their machinery for next year's work. The vocational teacher, Loren N. Evans, will instruct them on how to repair the machines, since it is so difficult to get professional mechanics.
