

FARM PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSN. WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

One of two sectional meetings of the Southern Oregon Production Credit association will be held here Wednesday, Bren H. Starcher, secretary-treasurer, announced today. Sectional meetings, instead of one central meeting, were decided upon because of transportation difficulties and to give a maximum number of associations' members an opportunity to participate.

Election of four directors, progress reports by E. W. Jarboe, and association Director Eugene Fisher of Oakland, Oregon, will highlight the meeting. Under discussion during the day will be the need of maintaining food production during 1945, assistance to returning war veterans, and plans for a sound post-war agriculture. E. E. Henry, president of the Production Credit Corporation of Spokane will be present to participate in discussions and address the meeting. Lunch will be served at noon.

Directors whose terms expire this year are Clarence Zumwalt of Sixes, and J. P. Johnson of Coquille. Other vacancies in the five-man board are the positions held by V. D. Brophy of Medford, and Ben Hilton of Grants Pass. All four of the directorships will be filled by election.

The Southern Oregon Production Credit association was organized in 1934 and since that time has made $4,364,000 in loans to farmers and stockmen in Jackson, Josephine, Douglas, Coos and Curry counties, Mr. Starcher said. During this same 11-year period, members have increased their ownership of association stock to $33,400. A local farmer-controlled cooperative, the association's goal also is 100 per cent local farmer-ownership.

NEWBURN TRIAL MOTION WAITS JUDGES RETURN

No motion asking for a new trial for Woodrow Wilson Newburn, convicted by a circuit court jury of statutory rape, was filed before Circuit Judge James R. Crawford last Saturday, as reported. Under the law only the judge who heard the evidence in the case can make the decisions, so the matter will necessarily await the return of Judge H. K. Hanna to the local bench. Hilding Bengtson, attorney for Newburn, returned from the legislature at Salem over the week-end and presented other legal matters.

A number of divorce cases were brought before the court at the Saturday session. The district attorney's office reported seven waivers had been signed.

WALLACE EXPECTED TO GET HIGH CABINET JOB

Washington, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—The political future of Henry A. Wallace, whose term as vice president ends five days hence, remained a mystery today but best guesses were that he might serve in a cabinet post during President Roosevelt's fourth term.

Speculation that Wallace would receive a high administration assignment was heightened by the disclosure that during the past week he turned down several high-salaried job offers in private industry.

HECTOR B. CADY TAKEN BY DEATH

Hector Bangs Cady passed away at his home, 44 N. Orange street Saturday evening. Mr. Cady was born in Missouri on May 2, 1861.

On May 22, 1920 he was married to Mrs. Nellie Arnold at Albany, Oregon. He worked on the Medford police department for a number of years. One of Mr. Cady's favorite pastimes was working with agates and various forms of minerals. He had a large collection of polished stones and minerals, gathered during the last few years.

Left to mourn his passing are his wife Nellie Cady, one son, Conn Cady, of Long Beach, Cal., and one daughter, Mrs. Esther Robinson, Pasadena, Calif., and three grandchildren. He also leaves a host of friends in this community.

Funeral services will be held at the Cady residence Wednesday at 2 p. m. Elder G. A. Thompson of the Seventh-Day Adventist church will officiate. Interment will be in Medford I.O.O.F. cemetery. Perli Funeral Home is in charge of funeral services.

Youths Fined For Trying Gaff Fish

Donald B. Dimmick, 17, and Samuel D. Evensizer, 16, Rogue River youths charged with trespassing on a fishway on Evans Creek Sunday, entered pleas of guilty today and were each fined $25 and costs by Justice of the Peace W. P. Tucker. The youths were arrested by State Police Game Warden Phil B. Lownd in the vicinity of the fishway, with gaff hooks in their possession. They had caught no fish. Both were given until January 27, to complete payment of their fines.

FEHL TAX ARGUMENT SET FOR WEDNESDAY

Arguments before the supreme court at Salem, in the suit of Jackson county against Earl H. Fehl, former county judge, for collection of back taxes up to 1938, will be made Wednesday. The county will be represented by District Attorney George W. Neilson, and Fehl by himself, and Attorney Roy R. Hewitt of Salem. The action growing out of tax foreclosure proceedings has been hanging fire for five years.

Fehl also recently filed a brief on his appeal to the supreme court in his suit for $11,000 he alleges is due from Jackson county for salary for the term to which he was elected as county judge, but did not serve.

WORK INSURANCE IS SOUGHT IN CALIFORNIA

Sacramento, Calif., Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Gov. Earl Warren's compulsory health insurance program, slated for induction in the legislature Friday, will provide medical service for California workers beginning in 1947, and will be financed by a three per cent payroll tax.

Warren said that under the bill as now drafted, payroll deductions will begin some time in 1945, with benefits available the following year. Half the tax will be paid by employers and the other half by employees.

Shift Possible In Japanese Cabinet, Tokyo Radio Hints

By United Press
The Japanese radio hinted today that the successful American campaign in the Philippines may force the resignation of Premier Gen. Kuniaki Koiso.

Tokyo broadcasts referring to the Koiso regime were taking the tone of those which preceded the deposit of his predecessor, Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo, following the American conquest of the Marianas last summer.

A Japanese Domei dispatch recorded by the FCC said "factions" in the nation's ruling circles were clamoring for a "bold and unprecedented political re-orientation" and a "second political reformation."

Nestlé's gives the world a great improvement in evaporated milk

3 TIMES RICHER IN VITAMIN D

Norm Tessner, 403 E. Center St., Anaheim, Calif.

Norm Tessner has a $35,000 kit of tools

1 Norm Tessner is a Union Oil well puller. Like any other skilled workman, Norm has to have tools. The principal "tool" in his case is a portable rig which pulls the tubing and the pump out of the wells. Without that rig Norm simply couldn't practice his trade.

2 So in order to use his skill, Union first had to provide him with a portable derrick and machine that cost $35,000. At first glance this may seem like a lot of money. But it takes even more than that to provide working equipment for each employee in the Union Oil Company.

3 Of course, it only takes a $90 typewriter to provide the working equipment for a stenographer. But on the other hand, it takes a $4,000,000 refining unit to make jobs for just 25 stillmen. And if the company is going to function as a unit, one phase of the work is just as necessary as the other.

4 So the Union Oil stockholders have actually invested $39,504 (in refineries, ships, tools, rigs, oil lands, etc.) for every one of the 7,869 employees in the company. This figure shows how drastically the machine age has altered American life.

5 75 years ago almost any man could buy what simple tools he needed himself. Today, in many industries tools cost so much the individual simply can't finance them. The answer is multiple ownership—pooling the money of a lot of people. (In Union's case, 31,375 stockholders have helped finance our equipment.)

6 Of course, some countries form these pools by government ownership. But in America we form them under legal agreements known as corporations. For that way, we can preserve the freedom of the individual, the efficiency of a free economy and that all-important human incentive—competition.
