

The NAVY'S need is YOUR opportunity

RADAR

IS ONE OF THE WAR'S MOST EXCITING DEVELOPMENTS

—THE NEW SCIENCE WITH A GREAT PEACETIME FUTURE

HOW TO QUALIFY FOR RADIO TECHNICIAN TRAINING

ELIGIBILITY. Voluntary enlistment in the Navy is open to men of 17 and those who are 18 and over. Parents' consent is required if 17.

REQUIREMENTS. All enlistees who pass their pre-enlistment physical examination and meet Navy standards, may take the Eddy Test. Those who pass the scored of assignment to the Navy for Radio Technician training.

Knowledge of high school mathematics, physics and associated subjects will help pass the Eddy Aptitude Test, which determines your acceptance for Radio Technician training.

4 IMPORTANT REASONS FOR TAKING RADAR TRAINING

1. You begin as a Seaman First Class—Shipping Apprentice Seaman and Seaman Second Class.
2. You get the equal of two years of college $5000 specialized education.
3. You can achieve swift advancement to rank of Petty Officer which means higher pay, plus living expenses and special allowances.
4. You can make certain of a good postwar job in a field where opportunities are unlimited—television, radio engineering, industrial electronics and aviation.

KEEP ON BUYING WAR BONDS

THE NAVY is growing by leaps and bounds and so is the urgent need for alert men to take Radar training. Because of this wartime need you can benefit after the war. There are no limits to the postwar horizon of this new science! Radar is one of the war's most exciting developments—a new development with a great future for you. Unlimited horizons are ahead of you through navy training in Radar.

YOU WILL HAVE a thorough background in principles that will still be unknown to most commercial engineers. You'll be proud to wear Navy blue as a radio technician. Help your country win the war and insure your own future by applying tomorrow.

U. S. NAVY RECRUITING STATION

POST OFFICE BLDG.
MEDFORD • PHONE 5333

U. S. NAVY RECRUITIN STATION,
POST OFFICE BUILDING,
MEDFORD, OREGON.

Please send me information how I may qualify for radio technician training.

Name
Street  State
City

This advertisement published in behalf of the U. S. Navy's Radio-Technical Training Program by

WESTERN THRIFT

Medford's Original Drug Price Cutters

Fill Out This Coupon -- Mail It Today!