

JERRY ROSS OUT OF HOOP FRAGAS WITH GRIZZLIES

Jerry Ross, high-scoring Medford high school forward, will definitely be out of the Ashland game tonight, Coach Al Simpson announced today. Ross has been suffering from a soft corn between his toes which became slightly infected after the Klamath Falls series last week and will be kept out of the game on the advice of his physician, Simpson said. The conference game will be played at Ashland. Ross has been consistently accounting for between 10 and 15 points in each game in which he has played and his loss will cut down Medford's scoring considerably. His place will be taken by Earl Stelle, who has showed considerable improvement since the beginning of the season. Ashland is expected to be at full strength for the Tornado, using John Reedy and Bob O'Hara at forwards, Dommie Provost at center and Jay Samuelson and Jimmie Jandreau at guards. Medford's starting lineup will see Larry Hayes and Stelle at forwards, Darrell Riggs at center and Bob Watson and Dick Fawcett at the guard positions.

Washington, Jan. 26—(U.P.)—The Office of Price Administration today set the two weeks from Feb. 19 through March 3 as the next period in which dealers may sell old lot shoes without collecting ration coupons.

GRAY MASK BEATS HOOP TILT AIDS GUST JOHNSON PARALYSIS FUND

The Gray Mask ran his winning streak to 12 straight matches at the Medford Armory arena last night when he took two out of three falls from Gloomy Gust Johnson in the main event of the weekly wrestling struggle.

It was in the third round before the Mask could subdue Johnson and "Old Stoneface" took the first spill with four head butts and a half crab.

In the fourth session Johnson came up with a leg strap which forced the hooded villain to yell "uncle".

In the fifth canto the Mask tossed Johnson out of the ring and Gust was too badly banged up to offer much opposition as the Mask again pinned him with head butts and a half crab.

Terrible Tony Ross held Jack Kiser to a draw in the middle bout. Milt Olson, who refereed the match in place of Earl Yoakley who was late in getting to Medford from Portland where he underwent physical examination by the army, once knocked Ross down because of his dirty methods and another time tossed him across the ring by the hair.

Olson and Billy McEuin, who substituted for Ernie Piluso, prevented by his draft board from appearing, went to a draw in the opener, each taking a fall.
