

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Fined—Elmin Ray Babcock, 109 McAndrews Road, was fined $10 in city police court this morning on a charge of reckless driving.

Moose to Meet—Members of the Moose lodge will meet to night at the home of George S. Stevens, one mile south of Phoenix. Cards and refreshments will be enjoyed.

Promoted—George Fredenburg has been promoted to staff sergeant at a South Pacific base according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fredenburg of Sams Valley. Sgt. Fredenburg has been overseas with the 13th air force since the spring of 1944.

CALENDAR

Friday
8:00 p. m.—Daughters of Union Veterans, annual installation of officers.

Saturday
1:00 p. m.—Crater Lake chapter, DAR, luncheon in Holland Hotel Blue Room honoring Mrs. Lowry, state regent, followed by official visit to chapter.

9:30 p. m.—Dance at Redmen hall, Fourth and Apple streets, given by Redmen lodge.

Driver Cited—E. J. Feldman of Medford was cited by city police yesterday on a charge of overparking and paid $1 bail.

To Practice—Pythian Sisters officers and staff members are to practice at the hall Sunday at 7:30 p. m. it was announced today.

Family Leaves—Pvt. and Mrs. Ernest Reed Cox and small child will leave this evening after spending the past week here with Pvt. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cox, 336 Mae street. Pvt. Cox, who recently completed army paratroop training at Ft. Benning, Ga., will return to the fort for advanced training and Mrs. Cox will go to Hagerman, Ida., to be with her parents.

Sons Meet—In a letter to his mother, Mrs. E. H. Oliver of Trail, Orval Oliver, 51c in the navy, wrote that he met his oldest brother, Herman P. Oliver, TME1c, by accident. The brothers had not seen one another in four years. Young Oliver wrote that he was standing in front of a theater near the overseas base where he is stationed and looked up to see brother walking along the street. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver have four sons all in the service.

Arrest Two—John D. Judd and Albert Wesley Calhoun were booked by city police yesterday on a charge of drunkenness. Judd forfeited $10 bail in police court this morning and Calhoun will be brought up later.

Dimes Stolen—A can containing coins donated to the annual March of Dimes fund for the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation was stolen from the Owl club, a police report filed yesterday states. The can contained about $6 or $7, the report said.

Visits Here—Cpl. Lowell Iverson, formerly employed by the Medford Groceries, is spending a furlough here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rose, 429 South Front. Cpl. Iverson has been in Nebraska visiting his parents and arrived here Tuesday. He left Medford early in the war and has been with the 41st division in New Guinea and Australia.

On Honor Roll—June Jarmin, sophomore in science at Oregon State college, earned a place on the honor roll for last quarter with a grade point average of 3.50 or above according to a news release from the school. A 3.50 average is half-way between A and B, the release states. Miss Jarmin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Jarmin, 823 Sherman avenue.

Investigate Accident—A sedan driven by Mrs. Ruth Blackburn and a truck of the Trumix Concrete company driven by Frank Gidney were involved in an accident yesterday afternoon at the corner of Jackson boulevard and Central avenue according to a report on file at the police department. The report stated that Mrs. Blackburn's sedan was sideswiped by the truck when the driver made too wide a turn at the intersection.

Judge Hanna Visits—Circuit Judge Herbert K. Hanna called at his chambers in the court house yesterday for the first time since his recent illness, and visited a few county offices before returning to his home in Jacksonville where he is convalescing rapidly. He also met Judge Crawford of Portland, who has been occupying the local bench. Judge Crawford left for Portland last night, and will return next week. A number of criminal cases and minor matters in the probate court are pending.

parts of the county were received at the courthouse and packaged in holiday wrappings.

J'VILLE LANDMARK IS DAMAGED BY FLAMES
Jacksonville, Jan. 26.—The old Dr. J. W. Robinson home on the Old Stage road near here suffered heavy fire damage Wednesday when flames started around a defective flue and burned the upper story. The place has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ryder for the past two months.

What's Doing at U. S. O.'s

An informal evening of dancing is scheduled for tonight at the Riverside USO and tomorrow a movie, "Scattergood Meets Broadway" will be shown at 7:15 p. m.

Sunday's program will include the regular Java club session beginning at 9:30 a. m.; "Twilight Reverie" from 4 to 5 p. m., with Kathryn Gentner at the piano and the "Pantry Shelf" beginning at 5 p. m. The Lady Lions will be in charge of the latter feature and quantities of good food are promised. At 7 p. m. Mrs. Prentice's Accor-diana girls will play.

LETTER TELLS OF RED CROSS GIFTS RECEIVED AT SEA

Telling of the distribution of Red Cross packages on his ship on Christmas Day, Mrs. C. L. Conaway has received a letter from her husband, Master Sgt. Conaway, who was on the high seas on Christmas Day.

Sgt. Conaway wrote that he had enjoyed a fine day and that distribution of the packages had been one of the highlights of the holiday on the ship. There were enough packages to provide one for every man and the few left over were opened and the contents used for prizes for games, the sergeant wrote. Mail delivery added to the fun, Sgt. Conaway said, and added that he received 20 letters from Mrs. Conaway in the one delivery.

Sgt. Conaway has been in the army 12 years and is in the air corps. Mrs. Conaway makes her home at 129 Kenwood avenue.

The sergeant's wife was particularly interested in her husband's description of the package distribution since she had contributed to the local project, carried on just before the holidays by the Camp and Hospital committee of the county Red Cross chapter. Hundreds of small gifts, contributed from all
