

JURY LIST DRAWN WITH 384 NAMES FOR COMING YEAR

The Jackson county jury list for the coming year, consisting of 384 names, has been drawn and approved by the county court. This city and rural routes adjoining provide 168 names. Ashland 122, Central Point 25, and the balance are scattered throughout the county. Of the total 248 are men, and 136 women.

Jurors for the February term of court starting Monday, February 26, will be drawn both for the new grand jury, and the new petit jury.

As farmers and orchardists will be at the start of another busy season, they are least represented, though 27 are listed. Housewives, retired citizens, and artisans predominate.

QUAKER LEADER WILL SPEAK IN LOCAL CHURCHES

The Church of the Brethren, Mary and Saling streets, and the Friends Church, 15 Keene Way drive, are cooperating over the week-end in presenting Dr. Emmett W. Guiley, president of Pacific College, for two appearances, at 11 a. m. at the Friends Church and at 2:30 p. m. at the Church of the Brethren.
He recently returned from a nation-wide conference of church, civic, and governmental leaders at Richmond, Ind., dealing with universal peace-time military conscription.

Dr. Guiley spent a number of years as general secretary of the Friends denomination in New York state, then served as missionary in Mexico, later he served on the American Friends Service committee when the church undertook the feeding of some 750,000 children in Spain during the civil war there, and following this as associate director in rehabilitation of Jewish refugees migrating into Cuba.
The morning church service will be given over to Dr. Guiley, who will speak on problems in the reconstruction of Europe. The afternoon rally will take the form of a discussion led by Dr. Guiley, giving both sides of the present issue of peace-time conscription.

The public is invited to attend the meetings Sunday.
